What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, how you market, what you sell, your access to customers and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit B.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

(A) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.

(B) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.

(C) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.

(D) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years; and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.

(E) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.

(F) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.

(G) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

  (1) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

  (2) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

  (3) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

  (4) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(H) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (C).

(I) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A franchisor whose most recent financial statements are unaudited and which show a net worth of less than $100,000.00 shall, at the request of a franchisee, arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

The escrow agent shall be a financial institution authorized to do business in this state. The escrow agent may release to the franchisor those amounts of the escrowed funds applicable to a specific franchisee upon presentation of an affidavit executed by the franchisee and an affidavit executed by the franchisor stating that the franchisor has fulfilled its obligation to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training, or other items. This subsection does not prohibit a partial release of escrowed funds upon receipt of affidavits of partial fulfillment of the franchisor's obligation.

The name and address of the franchisor's agent in this state authorized to receive service of process is the Michigan Department of Commerce, Corporation and Securities Bureau, 2407 North Grand River Avenue, Lansing, Michigan 48906.

Any questions regarding this notice should be directed to:

Department of Attorney General
Corporate Oversight Division
Franchise Section
PO Box 30213
Lansing, Michigan 48909

Note: Notwithstanding paragraph (F) above, we intend to, and you agree that, we and you will fully enforce the provisions of the arbitration section of our agreements. We believe that paragraph (F) above is unconstitutional and cannot preclude us from enforcing the arbitration provisions.

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

The Franchisor

This disclosure document describes the franchise offered by Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC ("Ameriprise Financial", "Ameriprise", "we" or "us"). We were formed as a Delaware corporation on June 14, 1971, and on January 9, 2020, we converted to a Delaware limited liability company. We conduct our business under our corporate name, the "Ameriprise" trademark, "Ameriprise Financial®" registration mark and the "Ameriprise Financial" logo. Our principal business address is 200 Ameriprise Financial Center, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55474.

We and our affiliates offer personalized financial products and services to help clients achieve their financial goals through personal financial planning and advice. Over the years, we and our financial advisors have helped millions of people invest and save billions of dollars for what is important to them. In today's complex financial world, we help our financial advisors serve clients by providing a clear vision of financial opportunities and pitfalls, a listening ear and a steady voice. Through our ongoing relationship with clients, we and our financial advisors identify and tailor solutions for clients' specific needs. Our overall vision is to be the most sought-after financial planning and services firm.

We and our affiliates offer a wide range of personalized financial services and product solutions to help meet clients' financial needs and objectives. These include: alternative investments, annuities and insurance, asset management, brokerage, investment advisory services, mutual funds, REITS, retirement plans, trust services, wealth management and other products and services. The financial products and services that we and our affiliates offer are provided and marketed to clients nationwide through our and our affiliates' employees, independent contractors and third parties. We and our affiliates use direct marketing, local and national advertising, online services, seminar presentations and telemarketing to market the financial products and services that we offer.

In 1999, we began offering franchises for Ameriprise Financial. Other than the franchise described in this disclosure document, we do not grant and have not granted franchises in any other line of business. We began contracting with non-franchised independent contractors ("Independent Contractors") who sell our financial products and services. We also utilize non-franchised personal financial advisors that operate as employees ("Employees"). Employees are eligible for commissions, are paid a draw amount and receive training on offering products and services to clients. Employees operate under agreements with us ("Advisor Agreement"), of which the terms are different from those described in this disclosure document. Prior to 1999, financial advisors were our Employees during their first year and became Independent Contractors thereafter. Beginning in 1999, financial advisors had the choice to either remain an Employee or become a franchisee ("Independent Advisor(s)"). At the end of 2025, we had approximately 3,738 Independent Advisors and approximately 1,724 Employees nationwide. We also offer Independent Advisors the opportunity to use non-franchised personnel financial advisors that operate as employees or contractors of our Independent Advisors ("Associate Financial Advisors"). We began offering Independent Advisors the opportunity to use Associate Financial Advisors in 2002, and at the end of 2025, there were approximately 4,484 Associate Financial Advisors. Independent Advisors wishing to utilize an Associate Financial Advisor must sign Addendum 4 to the Franchise Agreement. We also utilize corporate office staff ("Corporate Staff") to service clients online and/or over the telephone. In 2017, our affiliate acquired Investment Professionals, Inc., a broker-dealer that provides investment services through relationships with banks, credit unions and other financial institutions. Referred to as Ameriprise Financial Institutions Group ("AFIG"), this group operates separately from our Independent Advisors, Employees and Corporate Staff. At the end of 2025, there were approximately 343 AFIG advisors. AFIG advisors, Employees, Associate Financial Advisors and Corporate Staff offer financial products and services that are similar to or the same as the products and services that will be offered by the Independent Financial Advisor Business offered in this disclosure document. Independent Advisors pay an Initial Fee and a monthly Association Fee, unlike AFIG advisors, Employees and Corporate Staff who pay no such fees.

A list of our agents for service of process is attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit E.

Our Parent and Affiliates

We are a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameriprise Financial, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Parent"). We have 13 affiliates that may provide products and services to our franchisees and clients, each of which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Parent or us: American Enterprise Investment Services Inc., which is a clearing broker for brokerage transactions processed through brokerage accounts with us; Ameriprise Bank, FSB, which provides deposit, lending and personal trust products and services; Ameriprise Captive Insurance Company, which is a risk financing entity for Ameriprise Financial; Ameriprise Certificate Company, which offers investment certificates; Ameriprise Trust Company and Ameriprise Capital Trusts I-IV, which offer trust services to qualified plans; Columbia Management Investment Advisers, LLC, which provides investment advice to institutional clients and mutual funds; Columbia Management Investment Distributors, Inc., which serves as the principal underwriter and distributor of the Columbia-branded suite of funds, serves as placement agent of private funds managed by Columbia Management Investment Advisers, LLC, distributes Columbia Trust collective funds and offers separately managed account strategies managed by Columbia Management Investment Advisers, LLC to wrap program sponsors; Columbia Management Investment Services Corp., which is an SEC-registered transfer agent for Columbia-branded funds, Ameriprise certificates and processes shareholder purchase and redemption requests; RiverSource Distributors, Inc., which is a limited purpose broker-dealer that distributes variable life insurance and variable annuities through us; RiverSource Life Insurance Company and RiverSource Life Insurance Co. of New York, which are conventional life insurance companies offering fixed and variable annuities, disability income insurance, fixed and variable life insurance and long-term care insurance; and Threadneedle International Limited, which advises and sub-advises institutional clients and mutual funds.

A list of our affiliates and their respective business addresses is attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit C. Except as specified above, our predecessors and affiliates have not in the past offered franchises in this or any other line of business.

The Franchise Offered

We have developed and own a distinctive system that offers, through financial advisors, brokerage services, financial planning, insurance products, investment advice and consulting services, lending services, securities products, tax planning services and other related products and services provided or procured through us, our affiliates and/or third parties (collectively, "Products & Services") to individuals and/or business owners ("System"). The distinguishing characteristics of the System include: nearly 130 years of history in financial services; distinctive products and services; a high level of regulatory and securities compliance; the highest standards of customer service and quality advice, including financial planning; administration procedures providing for superior customer service and management control, including consolidated statements; orientation programs; advertising and promotional programs; and direct marketing, telemarketing and online services directed to clients; all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by us from time to time. The System is identified by emblems, indicia of origin, logos, service marks, trademarks and trade names for use in connection with the System, as further specified in Item 13 ("Proprietary Marks").

If we offer a franchise to you (we will refer to the franchisee as "you"), you will sign the Independent Advisor Business Franchise Agreement ("Franchise Agreement", attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit A), which will grant you the right to establish and operate the independent financial advisor business using our System and the Proprietary Marks ("Independent Financial Advisor Business"). To promote the highest standards of operation under the System, we have prepared Confidential Manuals ("Manuals"), to which you will be granted access by a method selected by us, and which include but are not limited to: the Compensation Reference Guide (defined below); the Confidential Operations and Compliance Manual; and bulletins, manuals, policies and procedures setting forth the minimum standards for the Independent Financial Advisor Business, including Client Satisfaction, communications, Compliance, use of the Proprietary Marks, processing procedures, privacy policies, signage, the Code of Conduct and the Individual Treatment Policy.

As our franchisee, you would be an Independent Advisor and you would offer the Products & Services to clients. The Products & Services the Independent Financial Advisor Business would offer include: (i) advisory, financial planning, securities brokerage and/or other financial services; and (ii) annuity policies and life insurance, contracts and other insurance products, financial products, investment certificates, investments, stocks and other products and securities.

We divide with you, the revenues received from the sale of all Products & Services and all other income of every kind and nature related to the Independent Financial Advisor Business ("Compensation"), as follows. During each Accounting Period (defined below), we will provide you with a statement showing the financial activity for Products & Services and various long-term compensation items, detailing the Compensation for the prior Accounting Period. From the Compensation, we: (i) retain a percentage of the Compensation, as specified in the Manuals ("Compensation Reference Guide"); (ii) pay to your Franchise Consultant ("Consultant(s)") the percentage of the Compensation specified in the Franchise Consulting Services Agreement (defined below); (iii) pay to your Registered Principal (defined below) the amount specified in the Supervision Agreement (defined below); and (iv) pay to you, the balance of the Compensation after deducting any fees (including the Association Fee (defined below)), interest and other monies due to us for services authorized by you and/or deductions provided for in the Franchise Agreement. See Item 6 for a description of these expenses that may be applicable to the Independent Financial Advisor Business.

Independent Advisors have the option to negotiate agreements with Consultants for leadership services (collectively, "Consulting Agreement(s)"). The Consulting Agreement sets forth the services to be provided by the Consultant to the Independent Advisor, such as business planning, coaching and marketing services. Consultants receive a fee or percentage of Compensation for the services they provide to Independent Advisors and some Consultants may solicit individuals to join our System.

All Independent Advisors are associated persons of Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC and must be supervised by a registered principal ("Registered Principal") (or other compliance officials as designated below) in the System. Each Independent Advisor must enter into an agreement with a Registered Principal or Ameriprise Financial for purposes of compliance supervision, which is Addendum 1 of the Franchise Agreement ("Supervision Agreement"). A Registered Principal maintains an Office of Supervisory Jurisdiction ("OSJ") in accordance with the regulations and rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), FINRA (defined below) and the policies and procedures set forth in the Manuals. Registered Principals are registered individuals responsible for supervising Independent Advisors to ensure that Independent Advisors comply with insurance, securities and other regulatory requirements. Registered Principals are authorized by us to provide these services to Independent Advisors under the System. Registered Principals are generally franchisees that operate under the Franchise Agreement and a Registered Principal Agreement, which is Addendum 2 of the Franchise Agreement ("Registered Principal Agreement"), or are employees of Ameriprise Financial.

Independent Advisors must pay a monthly fee for their compliance supervision, which will be determined by Ameriprise Financial as a flat fee. The factors used to determine the compliance supervision fee include: the expected sales volume, Independent Advisor's compliance record, record keeping costs and the Registered Principal's time required in providing services. Ameriprise Financial must approve all Registered Principals. If an Independent Advisor does not have a Registered Principal for compliance supervision, we will, for a fee, appoint one of our employees to provide compliance supervision. Since Registered Principals receive a fee for services they provide to Independent Advisors, some Registered Principals may solicit individuals to join our System.

Consultants, Independent Advisors and Registered Principals may receive from Ameriprise Financial, a bonus or referral fee based on the production generated at the prior firm of each prospective franchisee who they refer to us and who becomes an Ameriprise Financial franchisee. Consultants and Independent Advisors may also negotiate to receive a portion of Compensation earned by the prospective franchisee. Other employees of Ameriprise, independent contractors, or contractors and employees of franchisees may also receive a bonus or referral fee for each prospective franchisee who they refer to us and who becomes an Ameriprise Financial franchisee.

LITIGATION

ADVISOR RELATED CLIENT LITIGATION

Ameriprise Financial is a defendant in approximately 40–60 claims filed each year by clients (out of over 2,000,000 clients). Most of the claims relate to investment products sold by Ameriprise Financial registered representatives, and generally involve client allegations of advisor error, negligence, misrepresentation, unsuitability or fraud relating to market losses. None of the claims either alleged or resulted in any material amounts against Ameriprise Financial. Ameriprise Financial's advisors are largely protected from the costs of these claims by Ameriprise Financial's Errors and Omissions Program, the cost of which is covered by your Errors and Omissions Fee.

All references to Ameriprise Financial Services, Inc. refer to Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC.

Below are descriptions of non-routine or class action client-related matters claiming over $5,000,000 in compensatory damages (not including punitive damages), which must be disclosed:

A. Pending Matters:

Susanne Mehlman, Joy Hultman, Mindy Bender and Robert Sullivan, Individually and on Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated v. Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC, et al., Case No. 2:24-CV-03018-JRT-DLM, filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota on July 30, 2024. Ted Lourenco, Individually and On Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated v. Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC, et al., Case No. 24-CV-08825-MRA-KS, filed in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California on October 14, 2024. Frank R. Tripson, Individually and on Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated v. Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC., et al., Case No. 0:24-CV-04669, filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota on December 31, 2024. Plaintiffs in these putative class action cases allege that Ameriprise's cash sweep services pay interest rates on cash balances that are not in compliance with Ameriprise's legal duties. The causes of action in these matters include Breach of Contract; Breach of Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing; Breach of Fiduciary Duty; Negligence; Negligent Misrepresentation and Omissions; Unjust Enrichment; Violation of the Investment Advisers Act, Violation of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, as well as violations of state specific unfair competition laws. In the Mehlman case, Ameriprise filed a Motion to Dismiss the Plaintiffs' claims in their entirety and a separate Motion to Compel Arbitration of Plaintiffs' Investment Advisory Claims on December 20, 2024. Lourenco voluntarily dismissed his claims on May 8, 2025. The Tripson case was consolidated with the Mehlman case on January 22, 2025. On August 19, 2025, the court granted Ameriprise's motion to compel the investment advisory claims to arbitration and granted Ameriprise's motion to dismiss the fiduciary duty claim. The court denied Ameriprise's motion to dismiss the claims of breach of contract, breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing and unjust enrichment. The parties are engaged in discovery. Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Class Certification on July 9, 2026. Ameriprise filed its Opposition to the Motion for Class Certification on September 25, 2026.

B. Concluded Matters:

No concluded advisor related client matters are required to be disclosed.

FIELD SALES FORCE RELATED LITIGATION

Over each of the past 10 years, Ameriprise Financial has had approximately 5 to 12 civil lawsuits or FINRA arbitrations filed against it by current or former employees of its corporate office, field support personnel or by members of the field sales force (members of the field sales force may be either Employees or Independent Contractors of Ameriprise Financial). Most of these lawsuits or FINRA arbitrations have alleged claims of discrimination under federal and state anti-discrimination statutes, as well as other employment-related claims for breach of contract, breach of good faith and fair dealing, emotional distress, fraud, negligence and unfair and deceptive practices. This type of litigation filed by corporate office employees or field personnel generally has no material or threatened material impact on Ameriprise Financial, and thus, Ameriprise Financial has not specifically described those cases.

Below are descriptions of employee or field sales force related matters, which must be disclosed:

A. Pending Matters:

No employee or field sales force related matters are required to be disclosed.

B. Concluded Matters:

No concluded employee or field sales force related matters are required to be disclosed.

Ameriprise Financial brings approximately 5-10 cases each year to enforce its contractual and other legal rights against: (i) former representatives and officers; and (ii) certain competitors, including enforcing post termination covenants in Ameriprise Financial's Franchise Agreement and other standardized contracts. Under these contracts, Ameriprise Financial's registered representatives and field officers agree to preserve the confidentiality of specified Ameriprise Financial information – including certain client information, and to refrain from diverting Ameriprise Financial's clients whom they learned about or serviced through Ameriprise Financial for one-year after termination. Ameriprise Financial typically obtains injunctive relief enforcing its contracts, plus a monetary settlement or award in its favor.

Ameriprise Financial brings approximately 0-5 cases each year against terminated Independent Advisors for unpaid debt balances. During 2026, Ameriprise Financial has not pursued any new collection cases. Upon termination, Ameriprise Financial conducts an audit of Compensation to ensure business submitted prior to termination or default is paid and to allow for all other pending business transactions to post appropriately. When audits reveal unpaid charges and/or reverse commissions, or if there is an outstanding balance on a promissory note, Ameriprise Financial will pursue payment of debt balances with former Independent Advisors. Efforts are made to resolve these matters directly, through a collection agency and/or through arbitration proceedings.

Below are descriptions of Ameriprise initiated collection matters, which must be disclosed:

A. Pending Matters:

Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC v. Robert William Urban v. Clayton Harrison, FINRA Case No. 22-02783, filed on December 6, 2022. Claimant's statement of claim against Respondent Urban, a former franchisee, includes: breach of transition note, breach of working capital note and loan agreement, breach of franchise agreement, unjust enrichment, attorney's fees and costs, entry of award for transition note and permanent injunctive relief. Total outstanding note debt in the statement of claim is $684,955.62. Respondent Urban filed a counterclaim alleging: breach of contract, negligent misrepresentation, prima facie tort and punitive damages in the amount of $500,000. Mediation was held on July 30, 2026, with no resolution. This case is pending a date for a final FINRA arbitration hearing.

B. Concluded Matters:

No matters have been concluded in 2026.

RECRUITING RELATED LITIGATION

Financial services firms bring approximately 5-15 cases each year against Ameriprise Financial to enforce contractual and other legal rights arising from Ameriprise Financial's successful recruitment of experienced advisors. These claims are ordinary routine litigation incidental to the recruitment of approximately 300-400 experienced advisors on an annual basis. Claims against Ameriprise Financial are typically filed in FINRA arbitration or federal or state court and involve allegations of tortious interference with a non-solicit agreement or inducement to misappropriate trade secrets. These claims typically include a request for damages and may include a request for injunctive relief. This type of litigation filed by financial services firms generally has no material or threatened material impact on Ameriprise Financial, and thus, Ameriprise Financial has not specifically described those cases.

Below are descriptions of recruiting related matters, which must be disclosed:

A. Pending Matters:

Oppenheimer & Co. Inc. v. Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC, Logan W. Shalmi, Andrew M. Lerner, Mark E. Zuckerman, Lance P. Ross, Hector G. Aguilar, John J. Pescatore, Stephen A. Jaffe and Charles M. Shalmi, FINRA Case 25-02828, filed on December 23, 2025. Claimant alleges Ameriprise orchestrated a raid of its Boca Raton, Florida branch office causing the departure of nine financial advisors plus support staff. They allege Ameriprise aided and abetted the breach of the respondent advisors' contractual obligations and duties of good faith and loyalty. Claimant's causes of action are raiding/unfair competition, tortious interference with employee contracts, breach of contract, tortious interference with business relations with customers and prospects, and breach of duty of loyalty. Claimant seeks a permanent injunction and damages of $45m. Ameriprise filed its Answer to the Statement of Claim is due February 12, 2026. A hearing on the merits is currently scheduled for August 2027.

Edward D. Jones & Co, LP v. Cory Clem and Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC, FINRA Case 23-0028, filed on January 26, 2023. Claimant alleges Clem took confidential and trade secret information when he left Edward Jones and that Ameriprise assisted in the activity. Claimant's causes of action against Clem are misappropriation of trade secrets, defend trade secrets and violations of IL statutes, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, and civil conspiracy. Claimant's causes of action against Ameriprise are aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference with contract, and civil conspiracy. At the FINRA arbitration hearing, Claimant requested damages between $1m and $10m plus punitive damages, attorneys' fees, and costs. On September 22, 2026, the FINRA panel issued a total award of $4,824,105.00 of which Ameriprise is responsible for $2,082,771. The matter will be removed from the next update.

B. Concluded Matters:

No concluded recruiting related matters are required to be disclosed.

REGULATORY ACTIONS

Below are descriptions of Regulatory Actions, which must be disclosed:

A. SEC and FINRA Actions

In August 2018, Ameriprise Financial reached a settlement with the SEC regarding allegations that from 2011 through 2014 the firm failed to adopt and implement policies and procedures reasonably designed to safeguard retail investor assets against misappropriation and failed to reasonably supervise five representatives with a view to preventing and detecting violations of certain federal securities laws by these representatives. The firm agreed to pay a civil penalty amount of $4.5 million. The firm further reimbursed all impacted clients for the losses they incurred due to the misconduct. The firm also took steps to enhance controls, policies and procedures related to the safeguarding of client assets against misappropriation or theft by its associated persons and voluntarily retained a compliance consultant to assess and confirm the reasonableness of these controls, policies and procedures.

In December 2017, Ameriprise Financial reached a settlement with the SEC regarding allegations that from December 2010 through October 2013, the firm negligently relied on misrepresentations made by F-Squared Investments, Inc. regarding certain of its ETF portfolios, and as a result, the firm made false statements about the portfolios in certain advertisements. The SEC also alleged that the firm had failed to adopt and implement written compliance policies and procedures reasonably designed to prevent the alleged violations. The firm agreed to pay a disgorgement amount of $6.3 million plus prejudgment interest of $700,000 and a civil penalty amount of $1.75 million.

In September 2016, Ameriprise Financial reached a settlement with FINRA regarding allegations that between October 2011 and September 2013, the firm failed to detect and prevent wire transfers from five of its customers to one of its registered representatives. FINRA also alleged this went undetected because the firm failed to establish, maintain and enforce a supervisory system that was reasonably designed to review and monitor the transmittal of funds from accounts of customers to third parties, including those controlled by registered representatives of the firm. The firm paid restitution plus interest to the impacted customers and a fine of $850,000.

5. The Administration Fee ("Administration Fee" or "Admin Fee") is deducted from the advisory fee amount paid by a client before applying the Payout Rate, as specified in Item 19. The cost of the Administration Fee will vary depending on advisory assets under management in Advisory Solutions (Managed Accounts). See Table 11 of Item 19 for more information.
6. At your expense and option, you may become a member of a local or regional advertising, marketing program or promotional campaign. The fee for a campaign or program will be due upon demand. 7. Independent Advisors who qualify (based on specified criteria set forth in the Manuals) may be eligible for this program. Independent Advisors who are eligible and participate in this program are required to incur additional costs for program orientation, training and other expenses. The cost of the Errors and Omissions Fee per Independent Advisor will vary based on: (i) the amount of coverage chosen; (ii) whether Independent Advisor or Associate Financial Advisor participates in the SPS Advisor discretionary program; (iii) the number of Associate Financial Advisors contracted or employed by Independent Advisors who qualify for this program will sign the Franchise Consultant Agreement, which is Addendum 5 to the Franchise Agreement.

21. If you affiliate with a Consultant for franchise consulting services, you will sign an agreement between you and the Consultant (for an example, see Exhibit G). Ameriprise Financial collects the agreed-upon consulting fee on behalf of the Consultant from the Compensation, biweekly, whether the consulting fee is based on a commission split or flat-fee.
22. The internal client transfer fee is for our costs and expenses associated with administration of reassigning clients when a client transfer is requested. The amount of the fee charged will depend upon the number of clients being transferred, recognizing that Independent Advisors may transfer less than the entire Independent Financial Advisor Business. The fee will be paid by the acquiring Independent Advisor. The fees are non-refundable.
23. In the event the monthly network monitoring fee goes unpaid, Ameriprise may deduct any outstanding balance from your portion of the Compensation.
24. At your option, you may purchase additional investment research tools, such as advanced options and streaming quotes. The fees for these tools will be paid to us or an affiliate and will vary by the tool(s) selected. The fees are non-refundable.

A violation of the Software License User's Agreement will result in penalties, as specified in Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement. The fee helps cover costs associated with data processing and maintaining computer identification and security. While the intent is to provide free support calls within the Technology Access Package, Ameriprise Financial reserves the right to begin billing at $33 per ticket after advanced notice if an Independent Financial Advisor Business's call rate is deemed excessive. If you install outdated hardware or software on your computer, additional support fees may apply.

    From time to time, the Company will certify certain software for you to use on your computer for an additional fee, as specified in Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement, which could exceed the disclosed range and will depend upon usage. Your use of this software is at your option and is not supported by the Company. Independent Advisors who qualify (based on specified criteria set forth in the Manuals) may be eligible for this program. Independent Advisors who are eligible and participate in this program are required to incur additional costs for enhanced marketing materials, office standards, signage, stationery and training.

In some states, you may be required to pay state sales tax on products or services you purchase from us.

All of the programs, training and other services specified in Item 6 that we offer for a fee may be purchased by Employees who become Independent Advisors. Employees who become Independent Advisors will pay the Association Fee and will be required to enter into an agreement for compliance supervision for a fee that is estimated to range from $296 to $2,717 per month.

NOTES TO ITEM 7:

1. All costs/expenses disclosed in Item 7 are non-refundable, unless otherwise indicated. However, certain lease costs, communication hardware, computer hardware and computer software, and security deposits may be refundable depending on the terms of the lease or purchase agreement(s) you sign with third parties.
2. The Initial Fee is non-refundable. See Item 5 and Item 11 for more information.
3. You will need capital for the start-up and to support ongoing expenses of the Independent Financial Advisor Business. The expenses include: Association Fee; compliance supervision; Errors and Omissions Fee; payroll; rent; utilities and other fees for the second and third months of operation (to the extent these costs are not covered by revenues). The need for additional funds will vary widely among Independent Financial Advisor Businesses; new Independent Financial Advisor Businesses usually generate a negative cash flow. We estimate the amount provided will be sufficient to cover ongoing expenses for the start-up phase of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, which we calculate to be three (3) months. The amount provided is only an estimate, however, and we cannot guarantee that you will incur additional expenses in starting the Independent Financial Advisor Business. The estimate is based on our experience and the experiences of Independent Advisors with whom we previously contracted.

   If you are an Employee advisor who becomes an Independent Advisor, we estimate that because you are already engaged in the financial advisory business, the additional funds you will need for three (3) months of operation will be considerably less than the additional funds listed. We estimate the additional funds you will need may range from $0 to $6,700. The amount provided is only an estimate, however, and we cannot guarantee that you will not incur additional expenses.

4. You must pay us the monthly Association Fee, which we will deduct from the Compensation each Accounting Period before you receive your portion of the Compensation. The Association Fee includes: accounting and payroll services related to the broker-dealer; assistance in obtaining and maintaining required licenses and registrations; certain forms and materials; corporate compliance oversight; fidelity bond coverage; field support; a limited license to use the Ameriprise Financial Proprietary Marks; national advertising and promotional materials; and signage specifications.
5. You must obtain business authorizations, certificates, licenses, permits and registrations required by: federal and state securities and insurance laws, regulations and rules; the SEC, FINRA and other governmental and regulatory agencies; and Ameriprise Financial. You must also obtain appropriate insurance licenses before you sell insurance. The initial and renewal costs will be due as incurred and are non-refundable. The costs and fees may vary depending on the license held and the number of jurisdictions in which you are licensed. In exchange for the Association Fee, Ameriprise Financial will provide you with assistance in obtaining and maintaining the required licenses and registrations.
6. If you choose to purchase your computer hardware independently, you must purchase a “software install” service for the installation of our base proprietary software. The service will be performed by our Technology Support Team.
7. You must pay us the Errors and Omissions Fee, which we will deduct from the Compensation each Accounting Period before sending you your portion of the Compensation. The cost of the Errors and Omissions Fee per Independent Advisor will vary based on: (i) the amount of coverage chosen; (ii) whether Independent Advisor or Associate Financial Advisor participates in the SPS Advisor discretionary program; (iii) the number of Associate Financial Advisors contracted or employed by Independent Advisor; and (iv) the distribution channel. The initial premium for the Errors and Omissions Fee will be for $2,000,000of coverage. The deductible will be $10,000 per claim. At your option, additional $3,000,000 in Errors and Omission coverage may be purchased for an additional fee. Additional insurance options to protect you and the Independent Financial Advisor Business include: business insurance; health insurance; and practice management liability insurance. Your fee will be determined based on coverage and product selections.
8. We will provide computer hardware and network equipment specifications. You must obtain computer hardware that meets our exact specifications. Computer hardware may be leased or purchased from your choice of vendor. You may purchase computer hardware through an Ameriprise certified vendor that meets our requirements and has required software installed. You may pay on an installment plan offered by outside vendors. In addition, you may get connectivity to our computer network (with Internet access) either through a Local Area Network (LAN) in our space (where available) or with a secure Internet account. You also will need network and telephone cabling installed in your office to properly operate your computer system. You should also anticipate ongoing monthly charges for telecommunications services and various equipment. See Item 11 for additional details. You must contract with a phone company for local and long-distance service.
9. You will need to procure office furnishings, in order to maintain a professional office, in good repair. We provide a wide range to account for Independent Advisors who do not currently have an office location, as compared to those with an existing office location and furnishings. The actual cost may vary based on the number of staff and the size of the office location.
10. You may lease from a third party or own your office location. If you lease your office location from a third party, you will choose the grade of space and the office size (meeting the minimum standards, as specified in Item 11). The cost will vary based on your selections. If you own your office location or have an existing office location for the Independent Financial Advisor Business (as permitted by Ameriprise Financial policies), you may not need to incur any additional leasehold expenses.
11. At your expense and option, you may attend continuing education programs for a fee. The fees for these programs will vary by format (e.g., computer vs. instructor), location and other factors. All fees are due to us or an affiliate upon demand. The fees may be refundable depending on the program. In addition, if you qualify to participate in special optional programs, you may be required to attend additional training for an additional fee. Some training programs may only be available to Independent Advisors who are enrolled in a certain program or meet specific program requirements.
12. You are not required to participate in these programs and/or obtain these services.

13. Optional technology support products and services may be developed and offered through a vendor or the Company for an additional fee, which could exceed the disclosed range, and which will depend upon usage. The fees may be reduced as a part of a selection for additional software. In order to obtain some of our: (i) optional services; (ii) technology consulting services and troubleshooting; or (iii) technology support, you must obtain computer hardware that meets our exact specifications. Additional computing devices, licenses, monitoring, network hardware, software packages and support services are available for an additional fee.
14. Security deposits generally are required by any equipment lessors, the landlord and utility providers. Landlords usually require a security deposit of one to three months' rent.
15. Each signage order must: (i) be submitted through our approved signage vendor to acquire designs; (ii) meet specifications, as specified in the Manuals; and (iii) be approved by us. The range provided is only an estimate and does not include the cost associated with installation.
16. The Technology Access Package includes a single license to use our base proprietary AdvisorCompass® software that is used for conducting the Independent Financial Advisor Business ("Software"). For each additional Associate Financial Advisor, Paraplanner and/or other staff, you will be required to pay the Software Licenses and Fees for Staff. In order to obtain a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable and terminable license to use the Software, you must sign the AdvisorCompass® Software License User's Agreement ("Software License User's Agreement" (Exhibit I)). A violation of the Software License User's Agreement will result in penalties, as specified in Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement. The fee helps cover costs associated with data processing and maintaining computer identification and security. While the intent is to provide free support calls within the Technology Access Package, Ameriprise Financial reserves the right to begin billing at $33 per ticket after advanced notice if an Independent Financial Advisor Business's call rate is deemed excessive. If you install outdated hardware or software on your computer, additional support fees may apply.

    From time to time, the Company will certify certain software for you to use on your computer for an additional fee, as specified in Section 5 of the Franchise Agreement, which could exceed the disclosed range and will depend upon usage. Your use of this software is at your option and is not supported by the Company.
17. The estimated cost covers business cards, office supplies, stationery and other materials.
18. You must pay the Supervision fee, which is charged in 24 Accounting Periods each year for yourself and any Associate Financial Advisor(s) you contract with or employ. The cost of compliance supervision conducted by a Registered Principal will vary depending on, among other things, your compliance record and sales volume. Because these factors vary widely among Independent Advisors, we provide a wide range. The monthly amounts listed are the annual fees divided by 12 months. See Item 1 for more information.
19. At your expense and option, you may hire support staff to assist you with the Independent Financial Advisor Business, subject to the prior approval of Ameriprise Financial and consistent with Ameriprise Financial policies. We estimate the amount provided will cover one full-time assistant, but you may hire more or fewer support staff depending on the needs of the Independent Financial Advisor Business.
20. At your option, you may incur entertainment and travel expenses associated with entertaining and visiting existing and potential clients. You may also have to pay for food, lodging and transportation to attend certain Independent Advisor events and training.

ITEM 8
RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS & SERVICES

Products & Services

You do not purchase Products & Services. As specified in Item 16, all of the Products & Services offered for sale or sold at the Independent Financial Advisor Business must be pre-approved by us, meet our then-current standards and be procured through us or our affiliates, as set forth in the Manuals.

We and our affiliates are currently approved suppliers of the Products & Services. All of the Products & Services are currently also supplied by approved non-affiliated suppliers.

You must not offer for sale or sell any Products or Services until you receive our written approval of such product, service or supplier. We may, from time to time, revoke our approval of certain Products & Services or suppliers if we determine, in our sole discretion, that the Products & Services or suppliers no longer meet our standards. Upon receipt of such revocation, you must cease offering and selling any disapproved Products & Services and/or cease purchasing from any disapproved suppliers (although you may continue to service such Products & Services, unless otherwise notified).

We and our affiliates will derive revenue from selling Products & Services to clients of Independent Financial Advisor Businesses operating under the System. In order for you to sell some of the Products & Services offered by some of our affiliates, you may be required to execute agreements with certain affiliates.

Our Parent company and sole stockholder is Ameriprise Financial, Inc., a public company whose stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE: AMP"). Although none of our directors or principal officers hold a controlling interest in Ameriprise Financial, Inc., each may hold an equity interest in Ameriprise Financial, Inc. in the form of shares of common stock, non-qualified employee stock options, phantom stock units, restricted stock or units in the Ameriprise Financial 401(k) Plan's Ameriprise Financial Stock Fund.

Office Lease

As specified in Item 6, Item 7 and Item 11, you may lease your office location from a third party. You may also choose to own your office location(s). Office location(s) leased or owned by you must meet location and signage standards, as set forth in the Manuals.

Other Purchases

As specified in the Manuals, you must, at your expense, maintain a FINRA and state (if applicable) compliant office location with the equipment, fixtures and furnishings necessary to maintain professional standards for operating the Independent Financial Advisor Business. You must purchase and install signs, as set forth in the Manuals and as specified by FINRA policies, regulations and rules.

Advertising and Promotion

All advertising and promotion by you must be in such format, media and of such type as we may approve. You must conduct such activities in a dignified manner, which conform to the requirements and standards as we may establish to conform with regulatory requirements and to protect the value of the Proprietary Marks. You must not use any advertising, plans or promotional materials unless and until you have received our written approval (see Item 11 under the subheading "Advertising" for more information). Additional information on advertising, marketing, promotion and seminar marketing are contained in the Manuals. We and our affiliates may derive revenue from providing marketing programs to you.

Computer Software and System

We will provide computer hardware specifications. Your computer hardware must be capable of operating the software we specify and connecting to our computer network. You must agree to the Software License User's Agreement, attached as Exhibit I, gain access to our computer network and obtain a license to use the Software from us (see Item 11 under the subheading "Computer Systems" for additional information and restrictions, regarding the computer hardware and software). We and our affiliates may derive revenue from leasing the computer hardware and licensing the software to you.

Insurance

You will be responsible for any and all liability resulting from operating the Independent Financial Advisor Business, and you must agree to indemnify us, as specified in the Franchise Agreement. We recommend, prior to commencing operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business or operating under the Franchise

Agreement, that you procure and maintain – in full force and effect at all times during the term of the Franchise Agreement, at your expense, an insurance policy or policies protecting you against any claim or demand with respect to death, personal injury or property damage, or any expense, liability or loss whatsoever arising from or in connection with the Independent Financial Advisor Business (including comprehensive general liability insurance). We recommend that any insurance policy or policies you procure with respect to the Independent Financial Advisor Business also protect us, our affiliates and their respective directors, officers, partners, employees and agents.

As specified in the Manuals and in Section 3 and Section 13 of the Franchise Agreement, you are required to participate in our Errors and Omissions Program. The policy is written by American International Specialty Lines Ins. Co. and insured by Ameriprise Captive Insurance Company. In addition, you may have the opportunity to purchase additional insurance options from us to protect you and the Independent Financial Advisor Business, such as: business insurance; health insurance; and practice management liability insurance, as set forth in the Manuals.

Our total revenues, including revenues from non-franchise businesses in 2025, were $9,323,392,000. (See Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC Audited Financial Statement for the Year Ended December 31, 2025.) $374,093,535 or 4.0% of these total revenues were as a result of Independent Advisors' purchases of products and services.

We estimate your leases or purchases from approved suppliers (including us and our affiliates), or in accordance with our specifications, will represent approximately 25% – 50% of your total leases and purchases in establishing the Independent Financial Advisor Business and approximately 25% – 50% in continued operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business. As detailed above, you are, however, required to offer for sale only the Products & Services that we approve at the Independent Financial Advisor Business. In some instances, suppliers of Products & Services may pay us or our affiliates a periodic fee or a fee based on sales to clients made by Independent Financial Advisor Businesses operating under the System. Such fees generally range from .10% – .20% (or more) of the sales to clients obtained by Independent Advisors.

From time to time, one or more of our officers may own an interest in one or more of our suppliers.

Our standards for leases, purchases and suppliers are either: (i) contained in the Manuals; or (ii) will be provided to you upon request. When approving suppliers, we consider: (i) whether the supplier demonstrates the ability to meet our policies regarding confidentiality and privacy; (ii) our company specifications and standards; and (iii) whether the supplier possess adequate capacity and quality controls to supply your needs promptly and reliably. With respect to suppliers of the Products & Services, we also consider: (i) how the supplier is managed and structured; (ii) internal conditions, external conditions and events, as well as conditions that affect a supplier's stability and structure; (iii) the stability of the supplier; (iv) the performance of the supplier; (v) the risk level involved in using the supplier; and (vi) the way the supplier operates their businesses. If you propose an alternative supplier, we will approve or disapprove the alternative supplier within a reasonable time after we receive all requested information concerning the supplier. We currently do not charge a fee for the review of an alternative supplier. We may revoke our approval of an alternative supplier upon written notice.

We do not have any distribution or purchasing cooperatives. We do not grant material or special benefits based on use of an approved or designated supplier.

In order to maintain client privacy and compliance with relevant regulations, we may set additional restrictions on your use of third-party vendors, as set forth in the Manuals.

We consider a variety of factors when determining whether to grant or renew additional franchises. Among the factors considered is compliance with the Franchise Agreement.

FINANCING

We do not offer direct or indirect financing, except as specified below. We will not guarantee a lease, note or obligation for you.

If an Independent Advisor joins Ameriprise Financial or if an Independent Advisor desires to contract/employ an experienced Associate Financial Advisor, Ameriprise Financial, in its sole discretion, may offer to a qualified Independent Advisor a loan(s) pursuant to a 4 to 10-year promissory note(s) to assist Independent Advisor and/or Associate Financial Advisor in converting to the Ameriprise Financial System. The loan(s) are based on a percentage of verified trailing 12-month compensation earned at the prior firm, the assets under management at Ameriprise Financial on a particular measurement date and/or the production generated at Ameriprise Financial by a certain measurement date. Independent Advisor is obligated to repay the promissory note(s), including accrued interest, in monthly installments or due immediately upon the termination of Independent Advisor's Franchise Agreement. Prepayments are permitted without penalty. As specified in Section 14 of the Franchise Agreement, Independent Advisor will not be permitted to transfer his or her interest in the Independent Financial Advisor Business until all accrued monetary obligations, including the promissory note(s), are fully satisfied. Independent Advisor also may not be permitted to become an Associate Financial Advisor, Corporate Staff or Employee until all accrued monetary obligations, including the promissory note(s), are fully satisfied. Interest will be charged at a rate equal to one quarter point more than the semi-annual mid-term Applicable Federal Rate compounded annually, as published by the Internal Revenue Service. Independent Advisor must grant us a security interest in all of Independent Advisor's interest, right and title to any amounts received from any future employer and/or other party making payments to Independent Advisor. In addition, Independent Advisor authorizes Ameriprise Financial to withhold all assets and money, and to deduct any amounts owed or missed payments, from the Compensation owed to Independent Advisor or from accounts held at Ameriprise Financial or its affiliates. If Independent Advisor defaults on the promissory note(s), Ameriprise Financial may pursue legal action to collect on the remaining balance, as specified in Exhibit H. Independent Advisor must waive demand, notice of nonpayment, presentment and protest, and agree to pay all costs of collection (including attorney's fees).

Ameriprise Financial, in its sole discretion, may offer installment loan(s) to a qualified Independent Advisor who joins Ameriprise Financial for the purpose of building, hiring staff, marketing, provisioning new office location(s) that comply with premise standards (see Item 11) or renovating. The installment loans are serviced in part by our affiliate, RiverSource Life Insurance Company, which is reimbursed at cost for the services it provides. To qualify for an installment loan(s), an Independent Advisor may need to meet recruiting productivity thresholds, as well as personal credit worthiness and financial parameters. Independent Advisor must grant a security interest in the Independent Financial Advisor Business and provide a personal guaranty to repay the loan principal and all accrued interest, as specified in Exhibit H. Independent Advisor may be provided with a loan value equal to a percentage of their incoming trailing twelve-month production prior to hire and included with their transition compensation offer. Repayment is in monthly installments, which Independent Advisor can opt for over a 36- to 72-month period. Partial prepayments are permitted without penalty. Interest will be charged at a rate equal to the current prime rate at the time the loan is granted plus 300 basis-points and the interest rate will then be fixed for the life of the loan (prime rate as of 12/2025 is 6.75%). If Independent Advisor defaults on the loan or if Independent Advisor's Franchise Agreement is terminated for any reason, all outstanding principal and accrued interest will be due and payable upon written demand. Independent Advisor must waive demand, notice of nonpayment, presentment and protest, and must agree to pay all costs of collection (including attorney's fees).

Our Parent, Ameriprise Financial, Inc., may offer installment loan(s) to a qualified Independent Advisor for the purpose of purchasing a practice from another Independent Advisor or a nonaffiliated third party. The installment loan(s) are serviced in part by our affiliate, Ameriprise Bank, FSB ("Bank"), which is reimbursed at cost for the services it provides. To qualify for the installment loan(s), an Independent Advisor must: have cash flow and practice debt to equity metrics within current program guidelines; be in good standing with respect to Compliance and Franchise standards; and have an acceptable personal credit history. Additional criteria is considered, such as: (i) an Independent Advisor's personal net worth; (ii) the number and size of practice acquisitions made by an Independent Advisor; and (iii) an Independent Advisor's transition plan. Independent Advisor must grant a security interest in the Independent Financial Advisor Business and execute a non-compete, as specified in Exhibit M. Repayment is in monthly installments, typically for over a 120-month period. Partial prepayments are permitted without penalty. Interest will be charged at a competitive rate determined at the time of loan approval. If Independent Advisor defaults on the loan or if Independent Advisor's Franchise Agreement is terminated for any reason, all outstanding principal and accrued interest will be due and payable upon written demand. Additional compound interest and liquidated damages are assessed if Independent Advisor's Franchise Agreement terminates and Independent Advisor affiliates with a competing broker-dealer at any time during the installment loan term. Independent Advisor must waive demand, notice of nonpayment, presentment and protest, and must agree to pay all costs of collection (including attorney's fees).

We do not have any intent to assign, discount or sell to a third party all or part of the financing arrangements. We do not receive direct or indirect payments for placing financing with any person or third party. We may, however, assign to an affiliated company at a discount.

14. We may offer optional services to you for a fee, as set forth in the Manuals. (Franchise Agreement Section 3)

15. We may offer incentive programs, such as awards and conferences, as set forth in the Manuals. (Franchise Agreement Section 4)
16. We will offer, as we deem appropriate, advanced education programs ("Advanced Programs") for a fee that may: (i) cover customer service, marketing to clients, promotion and other topics related to operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business; (ii) enable you to obtain certificates, licenses and permits to offer additional Products & Services; (iii) enable you to offer additional Products & Services; (iv) relate to certain Products & Services; and (v) satisfy regulatory requirements. (Franchise Agreement Section 7)
17. We will administer and maintain the System Fund. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
18. We will review and charge you a fee for the review of your advertising, marketing materials, promotional plans and training materials to determine if they meet the requirements, as specified in the Franchise Agreement and the Manuals. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)

(Franchise Agreement Section 12)

Any pre-opening or continuing assistance set forth above may be performed by us or by someone designated by us.

Advertising

Local Advertising

You must submit all advertising, marketing materials or promotional plans to us and obtain our written approval of such materials or plans prior to use if such materials or plans have not been prepared or previously approved by us within the prior one-year period. If we believe that any advertising or promotional materials may cause a conflict with protecting the value of the Proprietary Marks, we will initiate a process to review the advertising or promotional materials and retain final approval authority over the materials. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)

If you hold appropriate licenses and satisfy all regulatory requirements, you may obtain listings for the Independent Financial Advisor Business in telephone directories. The appearance and content of any telephone listing must: (i) conform to our pre-approved format; (ii) conform to regulatory requirements; and (iii) protect the value of the Proprietary Marks. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)

National Advertising

Recognizing the value of advertising, promotion and the importance of coordinated advertising and promotional programs, in furtherance of the goodwill and public image of the System, we have the right (but not the obligation) to establish the System Fund. Part of the Association Fee paid by Independent Advisor may be used for the System Fund. Currently, we plan to contribute approximately 1% – 3% of your Association Fee to the System Fund for national advertising, but we are not required to do so. If established, the System Fund will be administered and maintained by us as follows:

1. We will direct all advertising programs through the System Fund, with sole discretion over the concepts, materials and media used in the programs, as well as their allocation and placement. We intend to maximize general public acceptance, recognition and use of the Products & Services and the System. We are not obligated to make expenditures for you that are equivalent or proportionate to your contribution or to ensure that any particular Independent Advisor under the System benefits directly or pro rata from expenditures. We are not obligated to spend any amount on advertising in the geographical area where you are located. We do not plan to use the System Fund to conduct advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises. We are not obligated to make contributions to the System Fund on the same basis as Independent Advisors. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
2. The System Fund and any of the System Fund's earnings will be used exclusively to meet the costs of administering, conducting, directing and preparing advertising, marketing, promotional materials and programs, public relations and/or any other activities that we believe will enhance the image of the System, including the cost of: (i) administering and conducing in-office promotions; (ii) conducting and preparing direct mail advertising, marketing surveys and media advertising campaigns; (iii) employing advertising and/or public relations agencies; (iv) purchasing marketing and promotional items; and (v) providing promotional and other marketing materials and services to businesses operating under the System. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)

We anticipate that all advertising funds collected from Independent Advisors will be spent during the fiscal year in which they are accrued. In 2025, we spent $11.5 million on national advertising. We plan to conduct a similar level of national advertising in the future. An accounting report of advertising expenditures from prior years is available in the Ameriprise Financial annual report to shareholders. For the current accounting period, we plan to make an accounting report of advertising expenditures available in our annual report to shareholders.

We do not require you to participate in any advertising cooperatives.

Campaigns

We may designate any geographical area for purposes of establishing a local or regional advertising and promotional campaign ("Campaign") and to determine whether a Campaign is applicable to the Independent Financial Advisor Business. If it is established that a Campaign is applicable to the Independent Financial Advisor Business, at your expense and option, you may become a member of such Campaign. The following provisions will apply to each Campaign:

1. Each Campaign will be coordinated by us or our designees (such as our Regional Vice Presidents) and will commence operation on a date pre-approved in writing by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
2. Each Campaign will be established and organized for the exclusive purpose of administering local or regional advertising programs, and developing, subject to our approval, standardized advertising materials for use by the members in local advertising. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
3. No advertising, plans or promotional materials may be used by a Campaign or furnished to its members without our prior approval to conform to regulatory requirements and to protect the value of the Proprietary Marks. All such materials and plans must be submitted to us. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
4. Each Independent Advisor who is a member of the Campaign must submit to the Campaign, his or her contribution together with such other reports or statements as may be required by the Campaign or by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
5. Only Independent Advisors who are members of the Campaign will receive leads resulting from the Campaign. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)

Websites

All websites will be deemed "advertising" under the Franchise Agreement, and all internet advertising and websites will be subject to (among other things) our approval prior to use, as set forth in the Manuals. The Advisor Locator Program automatically creates an Independent Advisor webpage on our website. On occasion, opportunities may arise to participate in other website programs, subject to the approval of Ameriprise Financial.

In connection with any website, you agree to the following:

1. Websites may only be created using the then-current template we provide. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
2. In addition to any other applicable requirements, you must comply with our standards for websites, as set forth in the Manuals or otherwise in writing. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
3. Any revision to the website or any of the information contained therein must be pre-approved by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 12)
4. Any use of Proprietary Marks on or in connection with a website must comply with the Proprietary Marks provision of the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement Section 8)

National Franchisee Advisory Council

We have established a National Franchisee Advisory Council that serves in an advisory capacity to us on a variety of topics, including advertising matters. All Independent Advisors have the opportunity to self-nominate for council membership, as long as the Independent Advisor is compliant with all ongoing duties under and not in default of the Franchise Agreement. Members are selected by Ameriprise Financial based on information submitted as part of the self-nomination. Ameriprise Financial retains the power to form, modify or dissolve the council.

Computer System (Franchise Agreement Section 5)

In order to obtain some of our consulting services, optional services, technology support and troubleshooting services, you must obtain computer hardware to our exact specifications (see Item 6). The principal function of the computer system is to link the Independent Financial Advisor Business to our computer network for the purpose of conducting financial analysis, financial planning, marketing and service functions. There are options for acquiring the computer hardware, which are set forth in the Manuals. The Franchise Agreement gives us the right to require that you, at all times, maintain and operate, at your expense, computer hardware and software (including any peripheral devices and equipment) that meet our specifications. We strongly recommend you lease or purchase computer hardware from our Ameriprise certified channels to ensure that the equipment and hardware has been fully tested with the AdvisorCompass® applications. If you choose to purchase computer hardware independently, the hardware must meet certain specifications, as set forth in the Manuals.

The computer hardware specifications provided in the Manuals represent the recommended list of computer requirements and should be used as a guide to help ensure optimal performance. The intention of this recommendation is to offer affordable high performance technology that is widely available and supported. We require that you keep your hardware updated to ensure that the AdvisorCompass® applications run properly and to limit security risk.

Support may be withdrawn for systems that do not meet baseline specifications or that are end of life from the original equipment manufacturer, including withdrawing support of systems that previously met baseline specifications upon changes to the specifications.

In order to access client information and receive information electronically, you must use the Software to obtain access to our computer network. Through the Software, we will have access to the computer system at the Independent Financial Advisor Business. We will provide enhancements, modifications and support for the Software; provided, the computer hardware meets our specifications. Your maintenance and operational activities must conform to our specifications, as set forth in the Manuals or otherwise in writing.

We have the right to require you to: (i) collect and maintain information on the computer system installed at the Independent Financial Advisor Business according to processing and regulatory requirements; and (ii) provide us with information to use, as we may request, from the data so collected and maintained. We also have the right to require you to link your computer system to ours and provide us access to the computer system installed at the Independent Financial Advisor Business for the purpose of obtaining information from your computer system to satisfy regulatory and business processing requirements. We also have the right to specify other non-proprietary software that you use for the computer system.

At our request, you must obtain such additions, enhancements, modifications, substitutions or other upgrades to the computer system and software that conform to our specifications. We have the right to terminate your access to our computer network for violation of the Software Agreement, as specified in Exhibit I to the Franchise Agreement.

There are no: (i) cost or frequency limitations on our right to require you to update or upgrade the computer hardware and software; or (ii) contractual limitations on our right to access and retrieve information from your computer system. The cost of computer hardware and the monthly costs for optional hardware services and/or support are specified in Item 6 and Item 7.

It is your responsibility to ensure you have the appropriate network equipment installed at the Independent Financial Advisor Business, which includes the use of the Managed Network hardware and service solutions made available by Ameriprise Financial that meet our security protocols. The principal function of the network equipment is to connect the Independent Financial Advisor Business to our computer network. There are options for acquiring network equipment based on geographic location and office size. We require you to: (i) conform to the network equipment specifications, as set forth in the Manuals; and (ii) allow us to connect to and configure your network equipment. It is your responsibility to procure equipment and services, including internet connectivity, as specified in the Manuals.

Manuals

We will allow you to view the Manuals before executing the Franchise Agreement. Before doing so, however, you must sign a confidentiality agreement ("Confidentiality Agreement") agreeing to not reveal any of the information contained in the Manuals without our permission or use any of the information contained in the Manuals if you do not execute the Franchise Agreement. The Confidentiality Agreement is attached to this disclosure document as Exhibit D.

Opening the Independent Financial Advisor Business

You must open the Independent Financial Advisor Business within sixty (60) days after you sign the Franchise Agreement. The typical length of time between signing the Franchise Agreement and opening the Independent Financial Advisor Business ranges from 1 to 30 days. Factors which may affect this time-period include: the time needed to: (i) find an approved office location; (ii) make necessary leasehold improvements; (iii) obtain required certificates, licenses, permits, registrations and training; and (iv) secure necessary office equipment and furniture.

Site Selection

You will specify the registered office location(s) you have chosen for the Independent Financial Advisor Business ("Location") in Schedule A of the Franchise Agreement. You may lease space from a third party or own your location(s). The Independent Financial Advisor Business Location must be located in a commercial zone or mixed commercial/residential zone, as specified in the Manuals, and is subject to our approval. In approving an office location, we consider: (1) requirements under the Franchise Agreement; (2) compliance with applicable federal and state laws, regulations of government or self-regulatory agencies (such as FINRA), and Ameriprise Financial policies (including privacy policies); (3) whether you will be conducting the Independent Financial Advisor Business in a professional environment; and (4) accessibility for compliance and regulatory inspections. The criteria for a professional environment generally includes: accessibility and safety for clients and staff; a clean and neat appearance, with equipment and furniture in good repair; and the ability to display appropriate signage. Your Location and any other location where you conduct securities business and maintain client files, must be registered with FINRA.

Your primary office location will determine which Region you will be assigned ("Region"), which is a geographic territory that has been defined by us based on market potential, client growth potential and similar marketing accessibility factors. We may change Region boundaries. You may not relocate the Independent Financial Advisor Business without our prior written approval.

You must have at least one approved office location within sixty (60) days after you sign the Franchise Agreement. If an approved office location is not secured within sixty (60) days, the Franchise Agreement will terminate.

Training

Before opening the Independent Financial Advisor Business, you must complete, to our satisfaction, the initial orientation program we offer, the cost of which is included in the Initial Fee. At our discretion, we may modify the orientation program based on your experience and/or to enhance or update the program. Instructional materials will consist of course and online resources.

TRAINING PROGRAM
Subject	Hours of Training	Hours of On-the-Job Training	Location
Introduction	Varies by experience	None	Region
Orientation	Up to 2 hours	None	Online
Compliance	Up to 8 hours	None	Online/Region

We conduct our Introduction program as we deem necessary. Our regional vice presidents "RVP" (or field vice presidents "FVP") will provide our Introduction program. Our RVPs and FVPs generally have experience as financial advisors and have been promoted from the field with an understanding of the System. Individual RVP experience is further specified in Item 2 of this disclosure document. All of the sections of the orientation program are developed by corporate office departments with responsibility specific to the subject matter. Any orientation program that involves classroom work will take place at one of our offices near your Location within the Region.

You must attend regulatory, compliance, franchise or brand seminars as set forth in the Manuals. For a fee, if applicable, you and your employees and/or contractors may attend optional courses, seminars, and other training programs offered by us. We will offer, as we deem appropriate, Advanced Programs. You will not be required to attend such Advanced Programs, except as necessary to satisfy regulatory requirements or if you participate in special optional programs such as Private Wealth Advisor. Some programs such as these, may have limited participation. You will be required to pay a fee, if any, specified by us for all Advanced Programs. You and your employees and/or contractors will be responsible for all costs and expenses, including the cost of transportation, lodging, meals, and wages, incurred in connection with the initial orientation program, compliance programs, and Advanced Programs.

Orientation programs, regulatory compliance programs, and Advanced Programs will be at such times and places or through other methods, which may include computer software or websites, as we may designate.

All of the programs, training and other services specified in Item 11 that we offer for a fee, may be purchased by Employees who become Independent Advisors. Employees who become Independent Advisors will pay the Association Fee of $290 per month and will be required to receive compliance supervision for a fee that is estimated to range from $296 – $2,717 per month.

TERRITORY

You must operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business at the Location. You may not relocate the registered office location of the Independent Financial Advisor Business or establish a secondary office location without our prior written approval, as specified in the Manuals. You must have the appropriate licenses and registrations to solicit clients based on your Location, the location/residence of the client and the person(s) who perform your regulatory oversight and supervision. You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from Employees and other Independent Advisors, from outlets we own or from competitive brands or other channels of distribution that we control. Because your franchise is non-exclusive, you have no protected area, clients or territory. You have no options, right of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises. In addition, we and our affiliates retain the right, among others, in any manner and on any terms and conditions we deem advisable, without compensation to you, and without granting you any rights:

1. To offer financial products and services, including the Products & Services, directly or indirectly to any business or Client, or to license others to offer Products & Services under any proprietary marks (including the Proprietary Marks) at any location, through other Independent Advisors, Employees, Corporate Staff, AFIG Advisors, direct marketing, telemarketing, internet or other online service, third-party marketers, and any other distribution method;
2. To own and/or operate and license others to operate, businesses that offer Products & Services using the System and Proprietary Marks, at any location; and
3. To own and/or operate, and license others to operate, businesses that offer other investment opportunities, financial services and products, using proprietary marks other than the Proprietary Marks or other systems, whether such businesses are similar to or different from the Independent Financial Advisor Business, at any location.

As discussed in Item 1, we and certain of our affiliates and designees (including other Independent Advisors operating under the System, our Employees, Corporate Staff, AFIG Advisors, third-party dealers, persons associated with such persons, and mail order services) now sell, and must continue to have the right to sell, Products & Services to clients located in the same or close proximity to the Independent Financial Advisor Business; we and certain of our affiliates and designees will be direct competitors of yours.

Independent Advisors are not permitted to directly or indirectly provide, offer to sell or sell any of the Products & Services to any client of Ameriprise Financial, AFIG Advisor, Corporate Staff, Employee or another Independent Advisor operating under the System, unless Independent Advisor has followed the procedures specified in the Manuals.

All internet advertising and websites, including any revisions, must be approved in advance by us and must be in a format designated by us. There are restrictions on the acceptable use of electronic commerce and electronic communications, as set forth in the Manuals.

If you execute the Registered Principal Agreement (Addendum 2), you may provide compliance supervision only to Independent Advisors who are subject to the System, as set forth in the Manuals. Each Independent Advisor will have a Registered Principal assigned to provide compliance supervision for such Independent Advisor.

TRADEMARKS

The Franchise Agreement allows you to use the Proprietary Marks, which include the trademarks, service marks, names, logos and commercial symbols listed in the table below ("Principal Marks"), for operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business in certain limited and enumerated ways. Each is registered with the United States Patent and Trademark Office on the principle register and has been assigned the registration number indicated below. The Parent has filed all required affidavits for each of the Principal Marks.

Mark	Registration No.	Registration Date	Goods and Services
Ameriprise®	3,308,498	October 9, 2007	Financial services and advice
	3,326,186	October 30, 2007	Financial services and advice
Ameriprise Platinum Financial Services®	3,284,839	August 28, 2007	Financial services and advice

The Parent and some of our affiliates use the Principal Marks in connection with the operation of their businesses. As specified in Item 1, some of these affiliates sell the Products & Services and/or products and services that are similar to those offered by the Independent Financial Advisor Business. There are no agreements currently in effect that limit our right to use or license others to use the Principal Marks.

There are no currently effective determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or any court, and there is no pending infringement, opposition, cancellation proceeding or pending material litigation involving the Principal Marks that may be relevant to their use by you. We do not know of any infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Principal Marks in this state or elsewhere.

You must promptly notify us of any issue relating to the Principal Marks, including: (i) suspected infringement of any Principal Marks; (ii) any challenge to the validity of the Principal Marks; or (iii) any challenge to the ownership of, right to use and to license others to use or your right to use the Principal Marks. We or our affiliates have the right to direct and control any administrative proceeding or litigation involving the Principal Marks, including any settlement.

We or our affiliates have the sole right, but not the obligation, to take action against uses by others that may constitute infringement of the Principal Marks. We will defend you against any third-party claim, suit or demand arising out of your authorized use of the Principal Marks in connection with the goods and services identified in the table above. We will not defend claims arising from your use of the Principal Marks with respect to any other goods and services or with respect to the clearance, registration or claims arising from your use of any other trademarks, service marks or logos. You must sign all documents and do whatever the Parent believes is necessary or advisable to protect and maintain our interests or your license to use the Principal Marks. Unless litigation results from your use of the Principal Marks in a manner inconsistent with the terms of the Franchise Agreement, we will reimburse you for the out-of-pocket costs you actually incur for the requested participation in such litigation.

We reserve the right to substitute different marks for the Principal Marks, for use in identifying the System and the Independent Financial Advisor Business operating under the System, if we, in our sole discretion, determine that substitution of one or more of the Principal Marks will be beneficial to the System or if any of the Principal Marks can no longer be used. You must promptly substitute a new mark for one of the Principal Marks, and the use of the new mark, as one of the Principal Marks, will be governed by the terms of the Franchise Agreement.

You must follow our rules when you use the Principal Marks. Some of the applicable rules are as follows:

1. You may not use the Principal Marks:
    - To sell an unauthorized product or service;
    - In any manner not expressly authorized by us. You may only use the Principal Marks in the ways we expressly authorize in the Franchise Agreement, every other type and form of use is prohibited; or
    - To register a domain name including, in whole or in part, any Principal Mark or any domain name that may be confusingly similar, in our sole discretion, to any Principal Mark.
2. You may not authorize, by granting a sublicense or by any other means, any other person or entity to use a Principal Mark for any purpose.

3. You may use the Principal Marks only as adjectives followed by a noun consisting of the good or service that is branded with the Principal Mark.
4. Never use the Principal Marks as possessives, plurals, verbs or as part of a pun and do not abbreviate (i.e., shorten) any Principal Mark. They must be used exactly as registered.
5. Use the proper symbol (SM, TM or ®) shown in the preceding list.
6. You are not permitted to use any mark owned or associated with the Parent other than those listed above.
7. If you have questions regarding the appropriate use of a Principal Mark or whether your use is permitted, you must contact us for clarification at Intellectual Property Legal Mail.

We are authorized by Ameriprise Financial, Inc. to use the Principal Marks and to license them to you for use in the Independent Financial Advisor Business. If we are no longer authorized to use the Principal Marks, you will not be permitted to use the Principal Marks either.

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Our Parent, Ameriprise Financial, Inc., owns, among others, the patents, copyrights and proprietary information outlined below. We are authorized by Ameriprise Financial, Inc. to use such patents, copyrights and proprietary information and to sublicense them to you for use in the Independent Financial Advisor Business.

Patents and Copyrights

The Parent owns the following patents, some or all of which may be embodied in the Software, and which may be material to the Independent Financial Advisor Business:

Title	U.S Patent No.	Issue Date
Management of goals and recommendations	8,190,502	May 29, 2012
Stochastic modeling module for providing financial planning and advice	8,306,885	November 6, 2012
System and method for providing financial planning and advice	8,407,125	March 26, 2013

The patents listed above relate to the financial planning, financial analysis, and financial advice functions of the tools we may provide for use in the Independent Financial Advisor Business. To the extent any such functions are provided in the Software specified in Items 8 and 11, please see Items 8 and 11 for more information on the Software. As a general matter, a patent lasts for a term of 20 years from the filing date of the application that led to the issued patent. However, the 20-year term of a patent may be lengthened or shorted by the rules of the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Often, this lengthening or shortening is indicated on the face of the patent document alongside the “Notice” heading. The filing date of the application is also listed on the face of the patent document alongside the “Filed” heading. We may choose, for one reason or another, to allow an issued patent we own to lapse or otherwise become abandoned. Ameriprise Financial grants to Independent Advisor a limited license to use the patents solely in connection with the operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement and only during the term of the Franchise Agreement.

The Parent does not own any copyright registrations that it deems to be material to the Independent Financial Advisor Business, but it does own licenses to use third-party software (as further specified in Items 8 and 11), which may be subject to copyright protection. The Software Agreement (discussed in Items 8 and 11), grants you a limited license to use the Software, so long as the Parent maintains such licenses, and so long as you comply with the Software Agreement. The Parent has no obligation to defend the right to use the Software or to continue to make it available for use, but it intends to take commercially reasonable steps to enable you to use the Software or replacements for the same. Except as specified in the Software Agreement, the Parent and us provide no warranties or representations regarding future use of the patents or the Software. The Parent’s and our right to use or license the Software is not materially limited by any agreement other than by the terms and conditions of use in the relevant vendor’s license agreement. Your right to use the Software is limited by this Agreement and the Software Agreement.

We or the Parent own the copyright to the printed and other materials provided to you for your use, and we, or the Parent, may, or may not, seek registrations of such copyrighted materials in its, or our, discretion. However, the decision whether or not to obtain such registrations does not impact your ability to use the same in the Independent Financial Advisor Business. These materials include: the Manuals and other manuals, brochures, forms, training materials, marketing collateral, and other materials. Although we may choose not to file an application to register the copyright for such materials, our copyright in them exists nonetheless under applicable law, and you must retain and not alter, in any way, the copyright notice on any copy you receive or are authorized to make, if any.

You may use these materials only in the manner we specify and only in and while operating the Independent Financial Advisor Business under the System. You may not prepare derivative works (altered works or new works based in whole or part on the materials we provide) of these materials, and you may not attempt to claim ownership of any such derivative work, or license, for free or for a fee, lend, or sell outright, any copies of such materials or derivative works thereof to others, whether inside the System or outside of it.

You must promptly notify us of any suspected infringement or challenge to our use of the Software, the patents or the copyrighted materials. We or our affiliates have the right to direct and control any administrative proceeding or litigation involving the Software, patents, and copyrights, including any settlement. We or our affiliates have the sole right, but not the obligation, to take action against uses by others that may constitute infringement of the patents or copyrights. We will defend you against any third-party claim, suit or demand arising out of your authorized use of the Software or copyrights. You must execute any and all documents and do such acts as may, in our opinion, be necessary and advisable to protect and maintain our interests in the Software, patents, and copyrights. Unless litigation results from your use of the Software or copyrights in a manner inconsistent with the terms of the Franchise Agreement, we will reimburse you for the out-of-pocket costs actually incurred by you in any such litigation.

If we decide to add, modify or discontinue use of the Software, or an item or process covered by a patent or copyright, you must do the same. The use of any replacement Software item or process will be governed by the terms of the Franchise Agreement.

Manuals

You must operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business in accordance with the professional standards specified in the Manuals. The Manuals consist of optional services, business processing procedures, compliance policies and procedures, compensation schedules and other information necessary to operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business. To comply with regulatory requirements, we may make reasonable interpretations and revise the contents of the Manuals, from time to time. For business changes to the Manuals, we will provide you with reasonable notice. Such revisions may include, but are not limited to: the introduction of new fees and revisions to any of the fees set forth in the Manuals, the Franchise Agreement or the Franchise Disclosure Document (including the Association Fee). We agree to provide you with sixty (60) days' written notice of any non-regulatory changes to the Manuals that result in a reduction of the GDC ("Gross Dealer Concession") Payout Rate, as defined in the Manuals. You must agree to comply with the revised Manuals.

We will provide you with electronic access to the Manuals during the term of the Franchise Agreement. You will receive the Manuals upon completion, to our satisfaction, of the initial orientation program. In lieu of providing you with electronic access to the Manuals, we may provide you with an alternative method to access the Manuals such as by providing you with a paper copy. Any notice of revision to the Manuals may be given by us by revising the Manuals and notifying Independent Advisors of such revisions by any reasonable means, including without limitation via electronic access. You must treat the Manuals and the information contained in them as confidential. You may not copy, duplicate, record or otherwise reproduce the Manuals, in whole or in part, or show them to any unauthorized person. The Manuals will remain our sole and exclusive property. In the event of a dispute as to their contents, the contents of the most recently communicated Manuals supersede all previous Manuals.

Confidential Information

You must not during or after the term of the Franchise Agreement, except as otherwise permitted in the Franchise Agreement, communicate, divulge, or use for yourself, except under the System, or for the benefit of anyone else, any confidential information or trade secrets, including employee, advisor, or client names, addresses, data, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the System and the Independent Financial Advisor Business that may be, or have been, communicated to you, or about which you may become aware, in connection with your operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business. You also must not reveal any information about potential clients to whom a presentation has been made by an Independent Advisor that might reasonably be expected to do business with us. Confidential information includes, among other things, the Manuals, current and prospective client and other advisor names, addresses, data, and other personal and financial information recorded in company or company client records, compilations and lists of client information, technical information, computer hardware design, computer software, Products & Services information, System information, business information, including costs, revenues, prices (including discounts), programs, training, clients, business plans, financial reports and strategies, and sales and marketing information, used by us to compete against other providers of products and services that are similar to those offered through the System.

In addition, other materials and information, including organizational structure, marketing philosophy and objectives, financial results, processes, rates, agreements, programs, methods of doing business, techniques, systems, formulas, patterns, models, devices, compilations, lists of and information concerning clients and customers, and trade secrets are proprietary and confidential. You may divulge confidential information only to those employees or contracted staff who must have access to it in order to perform their employment or staff responsibilities and who have an obligation to keep such information confidential and use it only in furtherance of the Independent Financial Advisor Business.

Contracted Staff that may have access to personally identifiable client or potential client information may only be retained by you pursuant to a written contract that contains obligations regarding the secure handling of clients' and potential clients' personally identifiable information that are no less restrictive than those to which you are subject. Similarly, at our request, you must require your employees having access to any confidential information of ours, or personally identifiable information about clients or potential clients or other advisors, to sign covenants and/or non-disclosure agreements, on forms satisfactory to us, requiring that they securely handle and maintain the confidentiality of all such information they receive during their association with the Independent Financial Advisor Business. We will be a third-party beneficiary of these agreements and covenants and/or non-disclosure agreements with the independent right to enforce them. In addition, all service providers that you independently retain to assist you in operating the Independent Franchise Advisor Business must be contractually required by you to take measures reasonable under the circumstances to protect our confidential information and to securely handle the personally identifiable information of clients, prospective clients, and other advisors that they handle on your behalf or to which they may be exposed in the provision of services to you. To the extent you use technological solutions for the processing or storage of such confidential or personally identifiable information that are neither provided or managed by our Parent, you are responsible for ensuring such solutions and service providers meet all of the legal and regulatory obligations to which you are subject to the same extent as if you performed the services yourself (i.e., you cannot outsource these responsibilities). You may be required to annually attest to the fact that you have appropriate contractual obligations in place for the protection of such information and technical solutions, and we and our Parent are entitled to rely on such attestations, the falsity of which can and will subject you to personal liability.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets if there is a reasonable basis for the information and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in this Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

Some Independent Advisors have earned these amounts. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for this financial performance representation is available to you upon request.

* Table 1 data covers all Independent Advisors in the U.S. "Region" is a term used to describe a geographic region.
 Consists of Time-of-Sale GDC and Trail GDC.
 Expenses are not included in this figure but are necessary to run a business; these types of costs can vary significantly from individual to individual. Independent Advisor is responsible for determining the cost he or she will incur for these expenses (see Items 5, 6 and 7 for more information).
*Table 1 does not include 221 Independent Advisors that left the Ameriprise system in 2023, none of which had operated as an Independent Advisor for twelve months or less.

1. The average length of service of Independent Advisors whose results are reflected in Table 1 is approximately 23 years.
2. Table 1 represents actual Independent Advisors' 2025 GDC data. Product mix is specific to each individual Independent Advisor and may vary among Independent Advisors; the product mix of a new Independent Advisor may differ from the product mix of an experienced Independent Advisor. This difference in product mix will cause earnings to differ because different products have different GDC rates, which, in turn, affects an Independent Advisor's gross income. Ameriprise Financial's average product mix (based on national Independent Advisor data) is illustrated in Table 2 (below).

Table 2: 2025 Average Total GDC Product Mix for Independent Advisors

Product Category	% of Total GDC
Advice Services	7.2%
Annuities	7.5%
Direct Investments	0.2%
Insurance (Disability, Life, Long-Term Care)	1.7%
Managed Accounts	72.5%
Mutual Funds & Securities	3.7%
Other	7.2%
Total	100%

3. The following terms are provided to aid in understanding Table 1:
   - GDC: Generally, the amount generated after the GDC Rate is applied to the product transaction. The GDC Rate is also known as the GDC Product Rate. These rates can be found in the Compensation Reference Guide contained in the Manuals. Certain products, such as Non-Traded Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REIT"), Non-Traded Business Development Companies ("BDC"), Unit Investment Trusts ("UIT"), Brokered Insurance, and Hedge Fund Offerings may have a lower GDC Product Rate than that of the selling commissions rate. Ameriprise Financial reserves the right to make these products available for sale or to remove them from the approved Products & Services list, hence not all the products listed may be available as an approved Product. For examples of how the GDC Product Rates are calculated, see Exhibit L.
   - GDC Payout Rate: The percentage payout rate applied to the GDC. In 2025, the average payout percentage ranged from 73.7% to 88.0% depending upon production level, as illustrated in Column F of Table 1 (actual payouts range from 72% to 91%).
4. A description of the specific revenue columns, which make up Table 1 are as follows:

   Description of Table 1:
   - Column A: Annual GDC (in thousands) – The gross dealer concession amount generated from new business, also known as Time-of-Sale GDC and Trail GDC.
   - Column B: Number of Independent Advisors – The number of Independent Advisors by GDC production level. The breakout is based on results, as specified above, from December 26, 2024 through December 23, 2025. Only Independent Advisors who were active as of December 2025 are included.
   - Column C: Percent of Independent Advisors – The percent of Independent Advisors that fall into each GDC production level.
   - Column D: Annual Average Total GDC – The average GDC generated for those Independent Advisors that fall within the specified GDC production level.

- Column E: Annual Median Total GDC – The median GDC generated for those Independent Advisors that fall within the specified GDC production level.
- Column F: Average Gross Income – The average annual GDC multiplied by the average GDC Payout Rate for each production level. The average GDC Payout Rate varies by production level and was between 73.7% and 88.0% in 2025 for these levels.
- Column G: Number/Percent Met or Exceeded Average Gross Income – The number and percent of Independent Advisors that have met or exceeded the Average Gross Income in Column F within the specified GDC production level.
- Column H: Median of Gross Income – The median gross income earned by Independent Advisors within the specified GDC production level.
- Column I: Range of Gross Income – The range of gross income earned by Independent Advisors within the specified GDC production level.

5. All figures are for actual Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisors.
6. Ameriprise Financial reserves the right to change GDC rates, GDC Payout Rates and required expenses at any time. We will provide Independent Advisor with sixty (60) days' notice of any non-regulatory change, which reduces the GDC Payout Rates. Other changes to the GDC Payout Rate will be communicated with reasonable notice to Independent Advisor.

PAYOUT METHOD FOR CALCULATING GDC

THE METHOD FOR CALCULATING THE GDC PAYOUT RATE IS A PAYOUT GRID. THE PAYOUT GRID MEASURES TOTAL GDC AND INCLUDES A POTENTIAL FOR A BONUS PAYOUT RATE. PAYOUT GRID RESULTS DETERMINE WHICH OF THE GDC PAYOUT RATES WILL APPLY TO THE INDEPENDENT ADVISOR'S GDC.

Bonus Payout Grid. Independent Advisors who qualify for less than a 91% base payout rate on the payout grid have the opportunity to qualify for a bonus payout rate based on the number of financial plans sold and percent of 100k+ clients with a plan, with additional growth metrics. The bonus payout rate will be added to the base payout rate — up to a combined maximum payout rate of 91%.

The financial planning bonus payout rate ranges from .5% to 2.5%, with a 5% total bonus opportunity based on additional growth metrics. Independent Advisor may qualify for a financial planning bonus payout rate based on Independent Advisor's percent of 100k+ clients with a financial plan and plan count results during 2027, based on Table 5 for the Jan. 19, 2028 through Jan. 16, 2029 Compensation Period. The 2027 Minimum Plan Count will be measured as of Dec. 23, 2026 through Dec. 21, 2027. The percent of 100k+ clients with a Comprehensive Plan will be measured monthly, and if the minimum requirement is achieved for any month during 2027, then will meet the requirement for Dec. 2027 measurement. Net Flows will be based on total Adjusted Net Flows in 2027 as a percent of prior year Total AUM. Target Market Clients Acquired ("TMCA") with over $500k of AUM will be based on the total count of eligible client groups acquired in 2027.

New Independent Advisor Payout Rate

New Independent Advisors may not have sufficient data to determine GDC Payout Grid results. Therefore, a new Independent Advisor's initial GDC Payout Rate will be determined based on his or her prior affiliation with another company in the financial services industry. A former Employee advisor will have an initial GDC Payout Rate based on their prior production.

The initial GDC Payout Rate for new experienced Independent Advisors with a transferable book of business from another financial services company outside of Ameriprise Financial will have a fixed GDC Payout Rate for a guaranteed term based on several factors, including his or her production at the prior firm (see Table 6A). If the standard GDC Payout Rate is better, as calculated at year-end grid measurement, the better-of GDC Payout Rate may apply for the following compensation year, as specified in the offer letter. When the new Independent Advisor no longer qualifies for a fixed GDC Payout Rate, the GDC Payout Rate will change during the next two-week service period based on the then-current payout grid. The GDC Payout Rate will run through the then-current annual measurement cycle, and thereafter, will be measured every year.

Independent Advisors may be eligible for transitional compensation in the form of an initial loan(s) to assist an Independent Advisor in transferring to the Ameriprise Financial System, as further specified in Exhibit H. The amount of the loan(s) may be based on: (i) the trailing 12-month production generated at an Independent Advisor's prior firm; (ii) the amount of assets under management at Ameriprise Financial on a particular measurement date; and/or (iii) the production generated at Ameriprise Financial by a certain measurement date. Independent Advisor may also be eligible to earn bonuses to help offset loan payments by remaining an Independent Advisor through the date each loan payment is due.

Table 6A: New Experienced Independent Advisor Compensation Package Considerations

T-12 Production	Initial Loan	Total Bonus Opportunities	Initial Fixed Payout Rate
$200K – $350K	45%	77.5%	87%
$350K – $500K	50%	87.5%	87%
$500K – $750K	55%	97.5%	90%
$750K – $1M	60%	110%	91%
$1M – $1.5M	65%	120%	91%
$1.5M+	70%	135%	91%

Employees transitioning to an Independent Advisor can only do so on one of two designated dates per year (see Table 6B). An Employee who becomes an Independent Advisor will have his or her initial GDC Payout Rate based on the prior year's GDC Payout Grid. Regardless of the date of transfer during the year, 26 service period Total GDC, 26 service period financial plan count, Net Flows and Client Acquisition as of December of the prior year will be applied to the prior year's grid to determine the Independent Advisor's initial GDC Payout Rate. For example, Employees who transfer in 2027 will have their sales metrics from December of 2026 applied to the 2026 GDC Payout Grid (see Table 7), and Employees who transfer in 2028 will have their sales metrics from December of 2027 applied to the 2027 GDC Payout Grid (see Table 4). The initial GDC Payout Rate will remain in effect until the start of the next compensation period following a year-end grid measurement date when there are 26 service periods of data (including Employee advisor sales results). Employees with less than ten (10) years of service with Ameriprise Financial will have a 15-percentage point payout rate reduction from the rate they would otherwise qualify for as an Independent Advisor. The payout rate reduction will last for a minimum of 52 service periods. If after 52 service periods a minimum of 30% of an Independent Advisor's 26 service period total GDC at the time of transition has been recovered, the payout rate reduction will end; otherwise, the reduction will continue until the 30% has been met. In addition, Employees or field leaders who were subject to a payout rate reduction as an Employee will have that payout rate reduction applied to their GDC Payout Rate as an Independent Advisor until the original term of the payout rate reduction has been met.

THE COMPANY RESERVES THE RIGHT, IN ITS SOLE DISCRETION, TO PERIODICALLY MODIFY THE INDEPENDENT ADVISOR COMPENSATION MODEL AND ALL COMPONENTS OF ANY SUCH MODEL, INCLUDING, FOR EXAMPLE, THE GDC PAYOUT AND PRODUCT RATES, THE METRIC CATEGORIES AND THE PERFORMANCE STANDARDS WITHIN EACH METRIC. WE WILL PROVIDE INDEPENDENT ADVISOR WITH SIXTY (60) DAYS NOTICE OF ANY NONREGULATORY CHANGE THAT REDUCES THE GDC PAYOUT RATE. OTHER CHANGES TO THE GDC PAYOUT RATE WILL BE COMMUNICATED WITH REASONABLE NOTICE TO INDEPENDENT ADVISOR.

New Independent Advisors will have their initial GDC Payout Rates determined as follows:

- Field Leaders will have an initial GDC Payout Rate of 85% as a new Independent Advisor.
- Associate Financial Advisors who have been in the role of Associate Financial Advisor for one year or less (i.e., less than 26 service periods) will have an initial GDC Payout Rate of 80% if they become an Independent Advisor.
- Associate Financial Advisors who have been in the role of Associate Financial Advisor for more than one year (i.e., more than 26 service periods) will have an initial GDC Payout Rate of 85% if they become an Independent Advisor.
- Associate Financial Advisors who become an Independent Advisor and are also the successor of their former contracting/employing Independent Advisor's business may qualify to receive the same GDC Payout Rate as their former contracting/employing Independent Advisor as their initial GDC Payout Rate if: (1) the former contracting/employing Independent Advisor becomes the new Independent Advisor's Associate Financial Advisor in the same service period; and (2) the new Independent Advisor had been contracted/employed by the former Independent Advisor as an Associate Financial Advisor for at least one (1) year.
- New Independent Advisors with no prior experience or who do not meet the required standards will have an initial GDC Payout Rate of 85%.
- During the initial GDC Payout Rate period, if at year-end grid measurement, the standard GDC Payout Rate is higher than the initial GDC Payout Rate, the Independent Advisor will receive the higher GDC Payout Rate as applicable.

Table 9: Recasting of Table 1 Using the GDC Payout Grid

In order to provide guidance in evaluating how the GDC Payout Grid affects average individual Independent Advisor compensation, the results in Table 1 have been recast to show the breakout by GDC Payout Rate as shown in Table 9A and Table 9B (below). Table 9A illustrates the breakout based on 2025 GDC Payout Rates (which Independent Advisors qualified for in 2024) and Table 9B illustrates the breakout based on 2026 GDC Payout Rates (which Independent Advisors qualified for in 2025). Table 9A and Table 9B do not include any information for Employee advisors. Table 9A and Table 9B also exclude the 222 Independent Advisors that left the Ameriprise system in 2024, none of which had operated as an Independent Advisor for twelve months or less.

Bonus and Incentive Programs

Deferred Compensation: The Ameriprise Financial Deferred Compensation Program ("Deferred Compensation Program") allows eligible Independent Advisors to defer a percent of GDC.

Eligibility: With respect to each program year (2025 program year runs from Jan. 22, 2025 through Jan. 20, 2026), an Independent Advisor must have a minimum GDC Payout Rate of 78% to be eligible for participation in the program. Eligible Independent Advisors may enroll in the program once each year during open enrollment. New Independent Advisors may become eligible to enroll in the program for the 2026 plan year.

Table 10: 2026 Annual Deferred Equity Options

2026 GDC Payout Rate	2026 Deferral Rate Options
72% – 77%	0%
78% – 91%	2% – 25%

Deferrals are calculated and credited, bi-weekly, to a participant's deferral account in units based on the market value of the selected investments (options include AMP shares) on the Friday following each service period. If that date falls on a non-business day, deferrals will be calculated and credited on the preceding business day.

Distributions: Distributions may be paid in annual installments, over 2 to 10 years, or as a lump sum payment at the participant's election. A participant may elect to receive distributions in a specific year or upon termination of his or her Franchise Agreement. Note: If a participant elects to receive distributions in a specific year and he or she separates from Ameriprise Financial for any reason other than death or disability and/or his or her Franchise Agreement is terminated, payments will begin in March of the year following such termination. Distribution of account balances invested in the Ameriprise Common Stock Fund will be made in shares; all other account balances are paid in cash.

Dividends: If and when dividends are paid on Ameriprise Financial common stock, the share unit account will receive additional deferred share units for the value of the cash dividends as of the dividend payment date.

Administration Fee: The Administration Fee ("Admin Fee") is deducted from the advisory fee amount paid by a client before applying the GDC Payout Rate, as specified in Table 4. The Administration Fee is used to support administration, development and management of the advisory service. Independent Advisors may qualify for a rate reduction of the Administration Fee, based on advisory assets under management ("AUM") for Advisory Solution (Managed Accounts) and average advisory household AUM at the end of the calendar year. The Admin rate is applied to all fees debited in the subsequent year. Advisory assets are billable securities for which financial advice is provided. See Table 11 for the Admin Fee ranges.

Table 11: Administration Fee Ranges

Account Type	Admin Fee Range
All Managed Accounts	0.06% – .20%
For client household groups with less than $150,000 in advisory account assets, an annual minimum Administration Fee of $300 will be applied; there will be no negative gross dealer concession (GDC)

Risk Management Tiered Compensation: The Ameriprise Financial Risk Management Tiered Compensation Program supports Independent Advisors who meet the fixed life and disability ("DI") insurance needs of their clients. Once an Independent Advisor reaches specified time-of-sale gross dealer concession ("TOS GDC") levels with an individual insurance carrier, the Independent Advisor begins earning additional compensation on subsequent TOS GDC for that carrier — up to 30% of TOS GDC generated on eligible fixed life and disability income insurance in 2026. The measurement period for the Ameriprise Financial Risk Management Tiered Compensation Program is Dec. 24, 2025 through Dec. 22, 2026. Risk Management Tired Compensation payments occur quarterly – in April, July and October 2026, with the final payment in February 2027. The compensation amount equals the compensation percent multiplied by the amount of eligible TOS GDC for the applicable tier as shown in Table 12 (below). Achieving a new payout tier applies the applicable percent rate for that tier only to eligible TOS GDC within that tier (it does not go backwards to the first dollar of TOS GDC).

Table 12: 2026 Risk Management Tiered Compensation

Tier	2026 Fixed Life & DI Eligible TOS GDC Amount ($)	2026 Percent	Number of Independent Advisors Qualifying Based on 2025 Production
1	250,000+	30%	1
2	100,000 – 249,999	25%	9
3	75,000 – 99,999	20%	0
4	50,000 – 74,999	15%	9
5	25,000 – 49,999	10%	39
6	0 – 24,999	0%	4,359

For example, an Independent Advisor that reaches $150,000 in eligible TOS GDC in 2025, would be paid $23,750 in tiered compensation.

- 0% on the first $24,999 (tier 6)
- 10% on the next $25,000 = $2,500 (tier 5)
- 15% on the next $25,000 = $3,750 (tier 4)
- 20% on the next $25,000 = $5,000 (tier 3)
- 25% on the next $50,000 = $12,500 (tier 2)

Total Risk Management Tiered Compensation = $23,750

For examples of GDC calculations, see Exhibit L.

Ameriprise Financial Business Development Coaching Program

The Ameriprise Financial Business Development Coaching Program is available to all Independent Advisors, free of charge, aimed to help Independent Advisors evolve to the scale of their business, increase the number of collaborative client conversations and upgrade their client experience. An Independent Advisor that joins the Ameriprise Financial Business Development Coaching Program can elect to join one or more of the following cohorts: (1) client acquisition; (2) financial planning; and/or (3) net flows.

Table 13A, Table 13B and Table 13C data, for the period January 1, 2024, through December 31, 2024, covers new Independent Advisors across the U.S. that: (1) enrolled in the Ameriprise Financial Business Development Coaching Program and participated in one or more cohorts.

NOTES TO TABLE 13A, TABLE 13B AND TABLE 13C:

1. Table 13A data covers the 2024 annual client acquisition growth rates for Qualifying Independent Advisors coached and enrolled in the Ameriprise Financial Business Development Coaching Program client acquisition cohort from January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024. Client acquisition is the measure of new clients with $100,000+ in assets.
2. Ameriprise Financial GDC 5-Year Compound Annual Growth Rate

The information in this section covers the compound annual growth rate ("CAGR") of GDC over a 5-year period from December 31, 2020 through December 31, 2025 ("5-Year Period") for three groups of Ameriprise Financial advisors: (1) "All Advisors", which includes all Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisors, Employees, Associate Financial Advisors, Corporate Staff and AFIG advisors across the U.S.; (2) "Employee & Independent Advisors", which includes all Ameriprise Financial Employee and Independent Advisors across the U.S.; and (3) "Independent Advisors", which includes all Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisors across the U.S. GDC is the gross dealer concession amount generated from new business, also known as Time-of-Sale GDC and Trail GDC.

The CAGR disclosed below for each advisor group was calculated with a standard CAGR formula: the average GDC per advisor as of December 31, 2025 was divided by the average GDC per advisor as of December 31, 2020, the result was raised to the inverse number of years between 2020-2025 (exponent of one divided by five for the five years between 2020-2025), before subtracting the subsequent result by one.

For the All Advisors group, the average number of advisors in operation for the calendar year ending December 31, 2020 was 9,897, and the average number of advisors in operation for the calendar year ending December 31, 2025 was 10,465. GDC is the gross dealer concession amount generated from new business, also known as Time-of-Sale GDC and Trail GDC.

For purposes of this section, "Qualifying Employee & Independent Advisors" consists of 4,495 advisors that are a subset of the Employee & Independent Advisors who: (1) were active in the System as of December 31, 2025; (2) had assets under management as of December 31, 2025; (3) had GDC in both 2020 and 2025; and (4) operated continuously during the 5-Year Period.

For purposes of this section, "Qualifying Independent Advisors" consists of 3,378 advisors that are a subset of the Independent Advisors who: (1) were active in the System as of December 31, 2025; (2) had assets under management as of December 31, 2025; (3) had GDC in both 2020 and 2025; and (4) operated continuously during the 5-Year Period.

and the CAGR of GDC for such advisors was 15%. During the 5-Year Period, there were 676 advisors in the bottom 20% of the Qualifying Independent Advisors group and the CAGR of GDC for such advisors was (15%).

Table 15: 2022-2024 AUM Ramp Up of Independent Advisors Versus Industry

In March 2025, we participated in a third-party study conducted by McLagan Data & Analytics, a product of Aon, a leading global professional service firm ("McLagan"). In addition to Ameriprise Financial, six other financial service firms also participated in the study, the names of which are available upon request (collectively with Ameriprise Financial, "Participating Firms"). As part of the study, all Participating Firms agreed to provide McLagan with specific data related to all franchised, licensed or affiliated financial advisors that joined the Participating Firms from other firms in 2022, 2023 and 2024 ("Recruits"). This study did not include among Recruits any financial advisors directly employed by the Participating Firms.

Data provided to McLagan on Recruits included: (1) the value of a Recruits' assets under management at the prior firm at the time a Recruit left the prior firm ("Recruited AUM"); (2) the value of a Recruits' assets under management after a full 12 months after they joined the Participating Firm ("12 Month AUM"); (3) the value of a Recruits' assets under management after a full 24 months after they joined the Participating Firm ("24 Month AUM"); and (4) the value of a Recruits' assets under management after a full 36 months after they joined the Participating Firm ("36 Month AUM").

Based on the data provided by the Participating Firms, McLagan published a confidential study that concluded Ameriprise had the highest median 12 Month AUM, 24 Month AUM and 36 Month AUM as a percent of the same Recruits' Recruited AUM when compared to the other six Participating Firms, and therefore, Ameriprise Financial Recruits ramped up faster than the other Participating Firms:

	Rankings[7]
	Months 1-12 Ranking[4]	Months 13-24 Ranking[5]	Months 25-36 Ranking[6]
2022 Recruits[1]	1 (of 7)	1* (of 7)	1 (of 7)
2023 Recruits[2]	1 (of 7)	1 (of 7)	–
2024 Recruits[3]	1 (of 7)	–	–

NOTES TO TABLE 15:

1. 2022 Recruits joined the Participating Firms in the 2021 calendar year.
2. 2023 Recruits joined the Participating Firms in the 2022 calendar year.
3. 2024 Recruits joined the Participating Firms in the 2023 calendar year.
4. In determining the Months 1-12 ranking for all Participating Firms, McLagan calculated each Recruit's 12 Month AUM as a percent of their Recruited AUM. The median of these percentages for Recruits from each of the seven Participating Firms was compared against the median of other Participating Firms. For the 2024 calendar year, the median 12 Month AUM was 103.3% for Ameriprise Financial Recruits and 86.3% for the other Participating Firms.
5. In determining the Months 13-24 ranking for all Participating Firms, McLagan calculated each Recruit's 24 Month AUM as a percent of their Recruited AUM. The median of these percentages for Recruits from each of the seven Participating Firms was compared against the median of other Participating Firms. *Note, Ameriprise Financial and one other Participating Firm were jointly ranked first among the 2022 Recruits for Months 13-24. In all other measured categories, Ameriprise Financial was the only Participating Firm to achieve a first-place ranking.
6. In determining the Months 25-36 ranking for all Participating Firms, McLagan calculated each Recruit's 36 Month AUM as a percent of their Recruited AUM. The median of these percentages for Recruits from each of the seven Participating Firms was compared against the median of other Participating Firms.
7. In all years, Recruits were only counted for periods where they remained at the Participating Firm for the full period of time after their recruitment. For example, if a Recruit joined a Participating Firm in 2022 and left the Participating Firm after 13 months, that Recruit's data would be included with the 2021 Recruits for Months 1-12, but not included in Months 13-24 or Months 25-36.

2023 and 2024 Revenue Multiples for Sales of Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Businesses Versus Industry

Table 16 discloses average gross revenue multiples (the ratio resulting from the sale price of the business divided by gross revenue attributed to "recurring revenue") on sales of certain Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Businesses occurring in 2023 and 2024 and then compares these averages to certain 2023 and 2024 sales of non-Ameriprise Financial advisor businesses. For purposes of the comparison, we included only a limited number of Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Business sales ("data set"). We considered only sales of full Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Businesses occurring during calendar year 2023 and 2024 for which we had access to complete revenue data and sale price information. We excluded from the data set all sales for which we received incomplete data, or which involved an abnormal (defined below) transaction structure. Finally, we excluded from the data set any partial sales of a business.

In 2023 and 2024, 183 Independent Advisors sold the entirety of the Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Business to a new owner. Of the 183 sales, 24 sales were excluded because they involved an abnormal transaction structure, or we did not have access to complete revenue data and sales price information for the sale. As a result, we included 159 sales in the data out of a total of 183 Independent Financial Advisor Business sales.

The data in Table 16 regarding sales of non-Ameriprise Financial advisor businesses is taken from a study that Succession Resource Group prepared for us ("Study"). Succession Resource Group reviewed data from all non-Ameriprise Financial advisor business sales in 2023 and 2024, but of these 175 sales, excluded 18 for which it had incomplete data or which involved an abnormal transaction structure.

Table 16 discloses the comparison of average gross revenue multiples for sales of Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Businesses versus sales of industry sample group (non-Ameriprise Financial advisor) businesses, based on data for "recurring revenue" of the businesses involved.

Table 16: 2023 and 2024 Revenue Multiples for Sales of Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Businesses Versus Industry

	Number of Independent Financial Advisor Business Sales Considered	Average Gross Revenue Multiple (Recurring Revenue)	Median Gross Revenue Multiple (Recurring Revenue)	Number and Percent That Met or Exceeded Average (Recurring Revenue)

Sales of Industry Sample Group Businesses (non-Ameriprise Financial)	157	2.76	2.83	82 (49.10%)

2. "Gross revenue" means the total gross revenue paid to either the Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Business or the non-Ameriprise Financial advisor business, net of any fees charged by a broker-dealer or custodian.
3. "Gross revenue multiple" means the sale price of the business (either the Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Business or the non-Ameriprise Financial advisor business), divided by the "gross revenue" of that business.
4. "Median" means the gross revenue value for which there are an equal number of higher and lower gross revenue values in the applicable data set.
5. "Non-recurring revenue" means gross revenue paid to the business for a single transaction (e.g., a commission earned on an annuity sale that does not repeat on a periodic basis).
6. "Recurring revenue" means gross revenue paid to the business on an ongoing basis, typically annually (e.g., trail commissions earned on a mutual fund sale).

7. Succession Resource Group is a third party, which Ameriprise Financial engaged to conduct the Study.
8. The figures cited in Table 16 for non-Ameriprise Financial advisor businesses is based on data provided by Succession Resource Group in the Study. This data does not reflect the operating history of Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisor Businesses.
9. The figures cited in Table 16 are a retrospective analysis only.
10. Based on the figures cited in Table 16, Ameriprise Financial Independent Financial Advisor Businesses on average have a 16% higher multiple of recurring revenue than the sales of non-Ameriprise Financial advisor businesses.

*Table 17A and Table 17B data covers Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisors across the U.S. that: (1) previously worked at another company in the financial services industry;(2) became an Independent Advisor between October 1, 2022 and October 1, 2024; (3) have been operating as an Independent Advisor for at least 24 months as of October 1, 2026; and (4) had a minimum of $300,000 in Total GDC at their prior firm from the prior 12 months. Table 17A includes information on the 24 highest performing of these Independent Advisors and Table 17B includes information on the 24 lowest performing of these Independent Advisors, as compared to their Total GDC at their prior firms.
Consists of Time-of-Sale GDC and Trail GDC.

NOTES TO TABLE 17A AND TABLE 17B:

1. Independent Advisors may have purchased or sold practices as part of their GDC sales volume, however, these are not accounted for in Table 17A or Table 17B. In addition, product mix is specific to each individual Independent Advisor and may vary among Independent Advisors; the product mix of a new Independent Advisor may differ from the product mix of an experienced Independent Advisor. This difference in product mix will cause earnings to differ because different products have different GDC rates, which, in turn, affects an Independent Advisor's gross income. Ameriprise Financial's average product mix (based on Independent Advisor national data) is illustrated in Table 2 (above).

2. A description of the specific columns, which make up Table 17A and Table 17B are as follows:

   Description of Table 17A and Table 17B:

   - Column A: Advisor – An individual Independent Advisor that meets the qualifications specified in the Notes to Table 17A and Table 17B section (above).
   - Column B: Percent of Growth by Month 24 – The percent of growth achieved by the Independent Advisor's 24th month as an Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisor that exceeds the Independent Advisor's Recruited Total GDC.
   - Column C: Total GDC by Month 24 – The total gross dealer concession amount generated from new business, also known as Time-of-Sale GDC and Trail GDC, by the Independent Advisor's 24th month as an Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisor.
   - Column D: Recruited Total GDC – The total gross dealer concession amount at the time of the Independent Advisor's recruitment.
   - Column E: Recruited AUM – The amount of assets under management at the time of the Independent Advisor's recruitment.
   - Column F: Percent of Actual Ramp Up – The percent of actual ramp up growth achieved by the Independent Advisor's 24th month as an Ameriprise Financial Independent Advisor, as compared to the Independent Advisor's Recruited Total GDC.

Some Independent Advisors have earned these amounts. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you will earn as much.

RECITALS

A. Through its time, skill, effort, and money, Ameriprise Financial has developed a distinctive system that offers, through financial advisors, a variety of financial services to individuals and/or business owners using the Proprietary Marks, confidential information, business techniques, methods and procedures, and sales promotion programs, as Ameriprise Financial periodically modifies (the "System"). C. Independent Financial Advisor Businesses are identified by trade names, service marks, trademarks, trade dress, domain names, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin for use in connection with the System, including but not limited to, the "Ameriprise" trademark, "Ameriprise Financial" logo, and other Ameriprise Financial family of marks (collectively, the "Proprietary Marks") and operate pursuant to the System; and

D. Independent Advisor desires to contract with Ameriprise Financial to operate a business offering Products & Services under the System, and/or supervisory and consulting services (if applicable, and pursuant to relevant addenda), and using the Proprietary Marks (the "Independent Financial Advisor Business").

NOW THEREFORE, Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor hereby agree as follows:

1. GRANT.

   A. Independent Financial Advisor Business.

      (1) Ameriprise Financial grants to Independent Advisor a limited license to use the Proprietary Marks solely in connection with Independent Advisor's operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and only during the term of this Agreement.

      (2) Independent Advisor agrees to operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business only at the location(s) specified in Schedule A (the "Location"). Independent Advisor agrees to not relocate the Independent Financial Advisor Business or establish any location without prior written approval by Ameriprise Financial, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

      (3) Ameriprise Financial will only compensate an appropriately licensed individual. Accordingly, Independent Advisor agrees to operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business, as described in this Agreement, as an individual business and shall not conduct such business as a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, sub-chapter S company or any other similar organizational structure. This shall not prevent Independent Advisor from operating other approved related businesses, as described in Section 5, under the heading "Use of Premises", and as set forth in the Manuals.

      (4) Independent Advisor has the right during the term of this Agreement to solicit Clients for Products & Services, as described in this Agreement and as set forth in the Manuals. For purposes of this Agreement, "Client" shall mean an individual person or entity that acquires any Products & Services from Ameriprise Financial through Independent Advisor.

B. Non-Exclusive Agreement.

(1) Independent Advisor expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Independent Financial Advisor Business is non-exclusive, and that this Agreement does not grant or imply any protected area, territory or clients for the Independent Financial Advisor Business. By way of example, other Independent Advisors, Ameriprise Financial, and its affiliates may or will continue to market, from any location, through various channels, including: employees, agents, dealers, direct marketing, telemarketing, and online services.

(2) Independent Advisor is not permitted to directly or indirectly sell, offer to sell or provide any of the Products & Services to any Client of Ameriprise Financial, its employees or another Independent Advisor operating under the System unless Independent Advisor has followed the procedures specified in the Manuals.

(3) Ameriprise Financial and its affiliates reserve the following rights:

i. To offer financial products and services, including the Products & Services, directly or indirectly to any client or business (including the Clients), or license others to offer Products & Services under the Proprietary Marks at any location, through other Independent Advisors, employees, direct marketing, telemarketing, online services, third-party marketers and any other distribution method;

ii. To own and/or operate, and license others to operate, businesses that offer Products & Services using the System and Proprietary Marks, at any location; and

iii. To own and/or operate, and license others to operate, businesses that offer other investment opportunities and financial services and products, whether or not using the Proprietary Marks or other systems, and/or whether such businesses are similar to or different from the Independent Financial Advisor Business, at any location.

(4) Independent Advisor acknowledges and agrees that Ameriprise Financial and certain of Ameriprise Financial's affiliates and designees (including other Independent Advisors of Ameriprise Financial, Ameriprise Financial employees, third-party dealers, persons associated with such persons, and mail order services) now sell, and will continue to have the right to sell, the Products & Services to Clients located in the same or in close proximity to Independent Advisor's Location; and that Ameriprise Financial and such affiliates and designees shall be direct competitors of Independent Advisor.

(5) Ameriprise Financial expressly reserves any and all rights not explicitly granted to Independent Advisor by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(3) Except as otherwise permitted by Ameriprise Financial, Independent Advisor satisfies all monetary obligations owed by Independent Advisor to Ameriprise Financial and its affiliates, and timely meets those obligations throughout the term of this Agreement; and

(4) Independent Advisor has, at Ameriprise Financial's option, executed Ameriprise Financial's then-current form of the Franchise Agreement for such renewal terms as are provided by this Agreement, which shall supersede this Agreement and which may include terms and conditions that differ materially from the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

C. Terminating the System. Independent Advisor agrees to execute such documents of acknowledgment or otherwise as Ameriprise Financial shall request.

B. Independent Advisor Transfer with Ameriprise Financial Consent. Independent Advisor understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Independent Advisor, and that Ameriprise Financial has granted this franchise in reliance on Independent Advisor's business skill, financial capacity, and personal character. Accordingly, neither Independent Advisor nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Independent Advisor's interest in this Agreement or in the Independent Financial Advisor Business shall sell, assign, transfer, convey, pledge, encumber, merge, or give away (collectively, "transfer") any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement or in all or any portion of the assets of the Independent Financial Advisor Business without the prior written consent of Ameriprise Financial. Any purported assignment or transfer not having the written consent of Ameriprise Financial required by this Section 14 shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, for which Ameriprise Financial may immediately terminate without opportunity to cure pursuant to Section 17 of this Agreement.

C. Conditions for Consent of Transfer. Independent Advisor agrees to notify Ameriprise Financial in writing of any proposed transfer of any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement, in all or any portion of the assets of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, or in any client accounts at least thirty (30) days prior to such transfer is proposed to take place, as set forth the Manuals. Independent Advisor agrees to provide Ameriprise Financial with such documentation and information relating to the offer as Ameriprise Financial may require. Ameriprise Financial may withhold its consent of any transfer: (1) if the transferee is not eligible to enter into a Franchise Agreement; (2) if the proposed transfer is to a corporation, limited liability company or partnership; or (3) for any other reasonable reason. Moreover, without limiting the preceding, upon a transfer, Ameriprise Financial requires all of the following as conditions of its approval:

(1) That all of Independent Advisor's accrued monetary obligations and all other outstanding obligations to Ameriprise Financial and its affiliates related to the Independent Financial Advisor Business have been resolved to Ameriprise Financial's satisfaction.

(2) That Independent Advisor is not in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment hereof or successor hereto, or any other agreement between Independent Advisor and Ameriprise Financial or its affiliates.

(3) That Independent Advisor agrees to have executed a general release, in a form satisfactory to Ameriprise Financial, of any and all claims against Ameriprise Financial and its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, and employees as more fully described in the Manuals.

(4) That: (a) if the transferee is not an Independent Advisor under the System, the transferee execute, for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement and with such renewal term(s) as may be provided by this Agreement, the then-current form of Franchise Agreement and other ancillary agreements, including the applicable Addendum No. 3, as Ameriprise Financial may require for the Independent Financial Advisor Business, which agreements shall supersede this Agreement in all respects; or (b), if the transferee is an Independent Advisor under the System, the transferee enter into a written assignment, in a form satisfactory to Ameriprise Financial, assuming and agreeing to discharge all of Independent Advisor's obligations under the terms of the transferee's existing franchise agreement with Ameriprise Financial.

(5) That the transferee demonstrates to Ameriprise Financial's satisfaction that transferee has all appropriate permits, certificates, licenses, and training which may be required by Ameriprise Financial, FINRA, and governmental and regulatory agencies; be in compliance with the minimum requirements to be in good standing with this Agreement as set forth in Section 5 and has adequate resources, both financial and operational, and capital to operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business.

(6) That Independent Advisor remain liable for all of the obligations to Ameriprise Financial in connection with the Independent Financial Advisor Business which arose prior to the effective date of the transfer and execute any and all instruments reasonably requested by Ameriprise Financial to evidence such liability.

(7) That the transferee, as part of the Initial Fee, complete any orientation programs then in effect for Independent Advisors upon such terms and conditions as Ameriprise Financial may reasonably require.

(8) That the transferee agree to reasonable conditions as specified by Ameriprise Financial in the Manuals, or otherwise in writing, in recognition of Ameriprise Financial's waiver of its right of first refusal, pursuant to Section 14(F) below.

(9) That the transfer is in good faith.

(10) That Independent Advisor pay a transfer fee as fully described in the Manuals, at Ameriprise Financial's request, to reimburse Ameriprise Financial for administration of reassigning clients. A transfer fee may also be required should Independent Advisor relinquish clients to Ameriprise Financial.

Ameriprise Financial may expand upon and provide more details related to the conditions for transfer and Ameriprise Financial's consent as described in this Section 14(C), and may do so in the Manuals, or otherwise in writing.

D. Ameriprise Financial Termination of Franchise Agreement for Cause. If this Agreement is terminated for reasons outlined in Section 17 hereof, with the exception of paragraphs B. (4) and/or (17), or abandonment of practice, Ameriprise Financial will honor any agreement with another Independent Advisor that is consistent with Ameriprise Financial's succession planning policies.

E. Ameriprise Financial Approval at Time of Succession Planning Agreement and Transfer. If Independent Advisor has entered into a succession planning agreement with the transferee, Ameriprise Financial has the right to review the transferee under the conditions of Section 5 and Section 14 of this Agreement both at the time the succession planning agreement was entered into, at the time of the proposed transfer, and at the time of any subsequent amendments, whether oral or written. If Independent Advisor participates in any special optional programs, additional transfer requirements may apply as further described in the Manuals.

F. Ameriprise Financial's Right to Purchase. If less than ninety (90) days prior to any proposed transfer, Independent Advisor has entered into a succession planning agreement with a transferee, Ameriprise Financial shall have the right and option to purchase the Independent Financial Advisor Business on the same terms and conditions as described in the succession planning agreement at any time up to the date of transfer.

If ninety (90) days or more prior to the proposed transfer, Independent Advisor has entered into a succession planning agreement with a transferee:

(1) Ameriprise Financial shall have the option and right, exercisable within thirty (30) days of Ameriprise Financial's receipt of an executed succession planning agreement, to purchase the Independent Financial Advisor Business on the same terms and conditions as described in the succession planning agreement.

(2) If Ameriprise Financial has not exercised the opportunity to buy or right of first refusal, as described in this Section 14, Ameriprise Financial agrees to not have a right or option to purchase the Independent Financial Advisor Business at the time of the proposed transfer. If Ameriprise Financial elects not to purchase the Independent Financial Advisor Business, any material change thereafter in the terms of the offer from a transferee shall constitute a new offer subject to the same rights of first refusal by Ameriprise Financial as in the case of the transferee's initial offer. Failure of Ameriprise Financial to exercise the option afforded by this Section 14 shall not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of this Section 14 with respect to a proposed transfer.

(3) If, upon Ameriprise Financial's offer to purchase the Independent Financial Advisor Business on similar terms and conditions, Independent Advisor chooses not to sell to Ameriprise Financial, Independent Advisor has the right to withdraw the offer to enter into a succession planning agreement and continue operating the Independent Financial Advisor Business.

G. Ameriprise Financial's Purchase of Independent Financial Advisor Business. If Ameriprise Financial elects to purchase the Independent Financial Advisor Business pursuant to Section 14(F) hereof, closing on such purchase shall occur within thirty (30) days with a specified transfer date from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Ameriprise Financial. In the event the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by a transferee are such that Ameriprise Financial may not reasonably be required to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then Ameriprise Financial may purchase the interest proposed to be sold for the reasonable equivalent in cash. If the parties cannot agree within thirty (30) days on the reasonable equivalent in cash of the consideration, terms, and/or conditions offered by the transferee, an independent appraiser shall be designated and mutually agreed upon by Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor, at Ameriprise Financial's expense, and the appraiser's determination shall be binding.

H. Transfer upon Death, Mental or Physical Incapacity. Ameriprise Financial encourages Independent Advisor, for a variety of business reasons, including anticipation of death, mental or physical incapacity, to execute an agreement with another Independent Advisor, consistent with the succession planning policies in this Section 14. The Independent Financial Advisor Business will immediately transfer to the designated Independent Advisor, upon the death, mental or physical incapacity of Independent Advisor, provided the transferee is still meeting the requirements in Sections 5 and 14 at the time of the transfer. Such transfers, including but not limited to, transfers by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer. In the event an agreement does not exist, Ameriprise Financial, for a management fee, will manage the Independent Financial Advisor Business for up to ninety (90) days from the death, mental or physical incapacity of Independent Advisor, until the Independent Advisor, executor, or other personal representative can find a buyer for Ameriprise Financial to review. Independent Advisor agrees and understands the Clients of Independent Advisor may be reassigned to other advisors to receive service during this ninety-day period. The management fee (further described in the Compensation Reference Guide) equals all the compensation, including but not limited to trailing compensation and service fees, generated from the Independent Financial Advisor Business while a buyer is being located and approved. The estate is responsible for all expenses relating to the Independent Financial Advisor Business during this time. If the Independent Financial Advisor Business is not disposed of within ninety (90) days after such death, mental or physical incapacity, Ameriprise Financial may terminate this Agreement, pursuant to Section 17 hereof.

I. No Waiver of Claims upon Transfer. Ameriprise Financial's consent to a transfer of any interest in this Agreement or in all or any portion of the assets of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, or any client accounts shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Ameriprise Financial's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferor or transferee.

J. No Security Interest without Ameriprise Financial Consent. Independent Advisor agrees to not grant a security interest in the Independent Financial Advisor Business or in any of the assets of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, without the prior written consent of Ameriprise Financial.

15. COMPLIANCE AND INSPECTIONS.

A. Independent Advisor agrees to comply with the required policies and procedures set forth in the Manuals as defined herein and the Individual Treatment Policy. Compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, and such policies and procedures are required to ensure that Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor are in good standing with the regulators. Independent Advisor agrees to timely obtain and maintain all licenses and registrations with Ameriprise Financial necessary for the full and proper conduct of the Independent Financial Advisor Business and the offering of Products & Services, including any required FINRA, state securities and/or insurance licenses, licenses to do business, state investment adviser registrations, sales tax permits, and/or clearances. Independent Advisor understands the lack of a license or registration may prevent the Independent Advisor from conducting business and receiving compensation. Independent Advisor is an associated person of Ameriprise Financial and agrees to be supervised for regulatory compliance purposes by the Registered Principal as described in the Manuals. To ensure a high level of regulatory compliance, Independent Advisor agrees to promptly respond to requests for information from, and to provide original records and documents to, Registered Principals and Ameriprise Financial employees and agents, including Region Risk Directors and Regional Registered Principals, upon demand.

B. Independent Advisor agrees to immediately notify Ameriprise Financial of the occurrence of any of the following events: (1) inspection, investigation, notice, request or citation of Independent Advisor or the Independent Financial Advisor Business by FINRA, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), state securities regulators, state insurance commissioners or any other governmental or regulatory agencies; (2) suspension of any license or registration related to the Independent Financial Advisor Business or the sale of any Products or Services; (3) alleged violation of any federal, state, local, or FINRA laws or regulations related to Products or Services, or to the Independent Financial Advisor Business; (4) action, suit, disciplinary proceeding or other proceeding, and/or the issuance of any fine, sanction, order, writ, injunction, award, judgment, or decree of FINRA or any court, regulator, agency, or other governmental instrumentality, against Independent Advisor or which may adversely affect Independent Advisor or the operation or financial condition of the Independent Financial Advisor Business; or (5) Client complaints.

C. Independent Advisor agrees to permit Ameriprise Financial, the Registered Principals, Region Risk Directors, Regional Registered Principals, Ameriprise Financial's agents and employees, and governmental and regulatory agencies required to have access by law (collectively, the "Inspectors") to enter upon the Premises at any time, with or without notice to Independent Advisor, during normal business hours for the purpose of conducting inspections to confirm compliance with the terms of this Agreement, the Manuals and applicable rules and regulations; shall cooperate with Inspectors in such inspections by rendering such assistance as they may reasonably request, including providing access to all originals and copies of books and records, including electronic books and records; and, upon notice from Inspectors, and without limiting Ameriprise Financial's other rights under this Agreement, shall take such steps as may be necessary to correct immediately any deficiencies detected during any such inspection within a reasonable time as determined by Ameriprise Financial. Independent Advisor understands that all such books and records are the property of Ameriprise Financial, not Independent Advisor, and that all such books and records, including all copies and electronic files, shall be given to Ameriprise Financial upon the termination of this Agreement.

D. In accordance with FINRA requirements, Ameriprise Financial agrees to investigate and resolve complaints and compliance issues involving Independent Advisor. Ameriprise Financial agrees to provide Independent Advisor with an opportunity to respond to complaints and supply documentation, but Ameriprise Financial maintains the right to settle these issues. Independent Advisor will have access to an internal appeals process should a dispute on the resolution of a case occur. Ameriprise Financial may assess applicable settlement costs, subject to whatever offsets, if any, are afforded Independent Advisor by the Ameriprise Financial errors and omissions program, and fines against Independent Advisor for failure to comply with regulatory requirements and company policies as set forth in the Manuals. These costs and fines may be deducted directly from Independent Advisor's Compensation or any amounts otherwise due to Independent Advisor by Ameriprise Financial; however, Ameriprise Financial agrees to allow either or both to be paid directly to Ameriprise Financial should the Independent Advisor so choose.

16. ADDITIONAL SUPERVISION.

A. Ameriprise Financial, at its sole discretion, may apply additional supervision to Independent Advisor for a period of time and place certain restrictions on Independent Advisor and/or the Independent Financial Advisor Business. Restrictions may include, but are not limited to: (1) terminating some of Independent Advisor's rights to offer Products & Services; (2) suspending or placing restrictions on Independent Advisor's rights to operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business and/or offer Products & Services; (3) requiring Independent Advisor to obtain additional training; (4) imposing heightened supervision of Independent Advisor and the Independent Financial Advisor Business; (5) reducing the payout to which Independent Advisor would otherwise be entitled; (6) stopping all payments to Independent Advisor during any suspension and reassign Clients of Independent Advisor to another Independent Advisor or Ameriprise Financial who shall receive all compensation including, but not limited to: commission, loads, asset management fees, trailing compensation, and service fees to which Independent Advisor would have been eligible; (7) deeming Independent Advisor ineligible to earn or receive special designation, incentive and recognition awards, and trips; and (8) such other requirements that Ameriprise Financial may require, effective immediately upon the provision of notice to Independent Advisor (in the manner provided under Section 23 hereof).

B. Upon notice from Ameriprise Financial that Independent Advisor has been placed on additional supervision, Independent Advisor agrees to immediately comply with the terms of such supervision. Independent Advisor's failure to comply with the additional supervision terms shall be deemed a default under the "Immediate Termination" provision of Section 17 hereof.

17. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION.

A. Termination by Independent Advisor. Independent Advisor may terminate this Agreement upon fourteen (14) days' written notice to Ameriprise Financial in the manner provided in Section 23 hereof and, if applicable, Addendum No. 3 hereto. The fourteen-day period shall begin on the day the written notice is received by Ameriprise Financial and continue through and include the fourteenth day thereafter. The termination shall take effect on the date specified in the notice or as directed by Ameriprise Financial.

B. Immediate Termination with Cause. Upon the occurrence of any of the following events of default, Ameriprise Financial may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, which events shall constitute good cause to the extent permitted by law, without affording Independent Advisor any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon the provision of notice to Independent Advisor (in the manner provided under Section 23 hereof). In the event Ameriprise Financial believes any law may prohibit the immediate termination of this Agreement, Ameriprise Financial may immediately suspend Independent Advisor who shall remain suspended until such time as Ameriprise Financial either terminates this Agreement or ends the suspension. Any Independent Advisor who is suspended must temporarily cease operations, although such Independent Advisor will receive compensation that Independent Advisor is entitled as set forth in the Manuals at the time the suspension is lifted:

(1) If Independent Advisor fails to locate an approved site or to open the Independent Financial Advisor Business within the time limits provided in Section 6 hereof;

(2) If Independent Advisor fails to complete the initial orientation program described in Section 7 hereof to Ameriprise Financial's satisfaction;

(3) If Independent Advisor, at any time, ceases to operate or otherwise abandons the Independent Financial Advisor Business, enters into an unauthorized agency agreement with a competitor or imminently plans to do so or otherwise forfeits the right to do or transact business in the jurisdiction where the Independent Financial Advisor Business is located. However, if, through no fault of Independent Advisor, the Location is damaged or destroyed by an event such that repairs or reconstruction cannot be completed within sixty (60) days thereafter or Independent Advisor loses the right of possession of the Location, then Independent Advisor agrees to have sixty (60) days after such event in which to apply for Ameriprise Financial's approval to relocate the Independent Financial Advisor Business, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld;

(4) If Independent Advisor is charged with, pleads nolo contendere to or is convicted of a felony, becomes subject to statutory disqualification by FINRA, or is convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude or dishonesty or any other crime or offense that Ameriprise Financial believes is reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the System, the Proprietary Marks, the goodwill associated therewith, or Ameriprise Financial's interest therein, or if Ameriprise Financial has reasonable proof that Independent Advisor has engaged in any of the above conduct;

(5) If Independent Advisor fails to obtain or loses any appropriate licenses which may be required by Ameriprise Financial, the SEC, FINRA, and governmental and regulatory agencies to operate the Independent Financial Advisor Business or offer Products & Services;

(6) If any purported assignment or transfer of any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement or in all or any portion of all of the assets of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, or any client accounts, is made to any transferee without Ameriprise Financial's prior written consent, contrary to the terms of Section 14 hereof;

(7) If an approved transfer is not effected within the time provided following death, mental or physical incapacity, as required by Section 14 hereof;

(8) If Independent Advisor fails to comply with the covenants in Section 19 hereof or fails to obtain execution of the covenants required under Sections 10 or 19 hereof;

(9) If, contrary to the terms of Sections 9 or 10 hereof, Independent Advisor discloses or divulges the contents of the Manuals or other confidential information provided to Independent Advisor by Ameriprise Financial;

(10) If Independent Advisor knowingly maintains false books and/or records or submits any false reports to Ameriprise Financial;

(11) If Independent Advisor is involved in misappropriating monies, fails to timely transmit Client funds or securities to Ameriprise Financial, engages in unauthorized activities or violates the policies or procedures set forth in the Manuals and/or the Individual Treatment Policy;

(12) If Independent Advisor misuses or makes any unauthorized use of the Proprietary Marks or any other identifying characteristics of the System, or otherwise materially impairs the goodwill associated therewith or Ameriprise Financial's rights therein;

(13) If Independent Advisor refuses to permit an Inspector to inspect the Location, and/or the books, records or accounts of Independent Advisor upon demand;

(14) If Independent Advisor, upon receiving a notice of default under Section 17 hereof entitled "Termination with an Opportunity to Cure Within Thirty (30) Days", fails to immediately initiate a remedy to cure such default;

(15) If Independent Advisor, after curing a default pursuant to Section 17 hereof entitled "Termination with an Opportunity to Cure Within Thirty (30) Days", commits the same default again, whether or not cured after notice;

(16) If Independent Advisor fails to comply with the terms of Additional Supervision; or

(17) If Independent Advisor is alleged to have violated federal or state civil or common law that Ameriprise Financial believes is reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the System, the Proprietary Marks, the goodwill associated therewith, or Ameriprise Financial's interest therein.

C. Termination with an Opportunity to Cure Within Thirty (30) Days. Except as otherwise provided in Section 17 entitled "Immediate Termination With Cause" and Section 17 entitled "Termination with an Opportunity to Cure within One (1) Year," upon any other default by Independent Advisor, Ameriprise Financial may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice of termination (in the manner set forth under Section 23 hereof), stating the nature of the default, to Independent Advisor at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of termination; provided, however, that Independent Advisor may avoid termination by immediately initiating a remedy to cure such default, curing it to Ameriprise Financial's satisfaction, and by promptly providing proof thereof to Ameriprise Financial within the thirty (30) day period. If any such default is not cured within the specified time or such longer period as applicable law may require, this Agreement shall terminate without further notice to Independent Advisor, effective immediately upon the expiration of the thirty (30) day period or such longer period as applicable law may require and Ameriprise Financial may re-assign any Clients assigned to Independent Advisor. Defaults which are susceptible of cure hereunder include the following illustrative events:

(1) If Independent Advisor fails to substantially comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement;

(2) If Independent Advisor fails, refuses or neglects to promptly pay any monies owing to Ameriprise Financial or its affiliates when due, or to submit the financial or other information required by Ameriprise Financial under this Agreement;

(3) Except as provided in Section 17 entitled "Immediate Termination With Cause", if Independent Advisor fails, refuses or neglects to obtain Ameriprise Financial's consent or prior written approval as required by this Agreement;

(4) If Independent Advisor engages in any business or markets any product or service under a name or mark which, in Ameriprise Financial's sole opinion, is confusingly similar to the Proprietary Marks; or

(5) If Independent Advisor fails to comply with the terms and conditions of Independent Advisor's offer letter.

D. Termination with an Opportunity to Cure within One (1) Year. Upon the occurrence of any of the following events of default, determined annually, Ameriprise Financial may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder, by giving written notice of termination (in the manner set forth under Section 23 hereof), stating the nature of the default, to Independent Advisor one (1) year prior to the effective date of termination; provided, however, that Independent Advisor may avoid termination by immediately initiating an approved written remedy to cure such default, curing it to Ameriprise Financial's satisfaction, and by providing proof thereof to Ameriprise Financial within such one (1) year period. If any such default is not cured within the one (1) year period, this Agreement shall terminate without further notice to Independent Advisor, effective immediately upon the expiration of such one (1) year period:

(1) If Independent Advisor fails to maintain Client Satisfaction Standards of at least seventy percent (70%), as set forth in the Manuals; or

(2) If Independent Advisor fails to maintain a registered office with the equipment, fixtures, and furnishings necessary to maintain professional standards for operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business or if Independent Advisor fails to install signs, as set forth in the Manuals.

E. Subject to State Law. All provisions of Section 17 are subject to state law.

18. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION.

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted hereunder to Independent Advisor shall forthwith terminate although Independent Advisor's duties under this Agreement shall continue as specified in this Section 18, and:

A. Independent Advisor agrees to immediately cease operating the Independent Financial Advisor Business and Independent Advisor agrees to not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold himself or herself out as a present or former franchisee of Ameriprise Financial.

If this Agreement is terminated for reasons outlined in Section 17 (Immediate Termination with Cause), with the exception of paragraphs B. (4) and/or (17), or because the Independent Advisor abandons the Independent Advisor's practice, Ameriprise Financial will honor any agreement with another Independent Advisor, consistent with the transfer of interest policies in Section 14, or, Independent Advisor can attempt to locate a buyer for Ameriprise Financial to approve. Independent Advisor agrees to release all client files to the Region Vice President or designate immediately upon termination. Ameriprise Financial, for a management fee, will manage the Independent Financial Advisor Business for up to ninety (90) days until a buyer can be found and approved. Independent Advisor agrees and understands the Clients of the Independent Advisor may be reassigned to other advisors to receive service during this period. The management fee (further defined in the Compensation Reference Manual) is all compensation including, but not limited to, trailing compensation which Independent Advisor would have been eligible while a buyer is being located and approved. During this ninety (90) day period, Independent Advisor agrees that Ameriprise Financial has the sole right to assign or reassign Clients in any manner it chooses, and that Independent Advisor shall have no legal or equitable claim against Ameriprise Financial for such assignment. If a buyer is not found and approved within the ninety (90) days after such termination, the Independent Financial Advisor Business agrees that the right to the equity in the Independent Advisor business is terminated. In the interests of good client relationships, Ameriprise Financial will assume continuous service to all Clients.

B. Independent Advisor agrees to immediately and permanently cease to use, in any manner whatsoever: any confidential methods, procedures, and techniques associated with the System; the Proprietary Marks; and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols, and devices associated with the System. In particular, Independent Advisor agrees to cease use of, without limitation, all signs, advertising materials, displays, stationery, forms, products, social media, and any other articles which display the Proprietary Marks.

C. Independent Advisor agrees to make such modifications or alterations to the Premises immediately upon termination or expiration of this Agreement as may be necessary to distinguish the Premises from that of the Independent Financial Advisor Business under the System and to comply with all applicable laws and the Ameriprise Financial privacy policy, and shall make such specific additional changes thereto as Ameriprise Financial may reasonably request for the purpose identified herein. In the event Independent Advisor fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this Section 18, Independent Advisor agrees

Ameriprise Financial has the right to enter upon the Premises, without being guilty of trespass or any other tort, for the purpose of making or causing to be made such changes as Ameriprise Financial may require, at the expense of Independent Advisor, which expense Independent Advisor agrees to pay upon demand.

D. If after Independent Advisor's termination, Independent Advisor remains in the same premises leased or otherwise occupied by other Ameriprise financial advisors, and structural or other alterations to the premises must be made for the reasons identified in Section 18D of the Franchise Agreement, Independent Advisor agrees to pay the full cost of such changes. Consistent with Ameriprise Financial's right to withhold sums due to Independent Advisor for up to six (6) weeks after termination and offset from such amounts all sums due from Independent Advisor to Ameriprise Financial or its affiliates, Ameriprise Financial may withhold amounts incurred for alterations. Independent Advisor will remain responsible for paying, and shall pay to Ameriprise Financial, all amounts incurred for all alterations to the premises.

E. At Ameriprise Financial's expense, Ameriprise Financial reserves the right to add a forwarding message to any such telephone number no longer used by Independent Advisor, indicating the telephone number for Ameriprise Financial and for the departing Independent Advisor.

F. Independent Advisor agrees, in the event he or she continues to operate or subsequently begins to operate any other business, not to use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of the Proprietary Marks, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, which, in Ameriprise Financial's sole discretion, is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception, or which, in Ameriprise Financial's sole discretion, is likely to dilute Ameriprise Financial's rights in and to the Proprietary Marks. Independent Advisor further agrees not to utilize any designation of origin, description, or representation (including but not limited to reference to Ameriprise Financial, the System, or the Proprietary Marks) which, in Ameriprise Financial's sole discretion, suggests or represents a present or former association or connection with Ameriprise Financial, the System, or the Proprietary Marks.

G. Independent Advisor agrees to promptly pay all sums owing to Ameriprise Financial and its affiliates including, but not limited to, any advance payment for refunded products and services. In the event of termination for any default of Independent Advisor, such sums shall include all damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), and interest on such damages, costs and expenses incurred by Ameriprise Financial as a result of the default. Ameriprise Financial may withhold all sums due to Independent Advisor for up to six (6) weeks and may offset from such amounts all sums due from Independent Advisor to Ameriprise Financial or its affiliates. Any negative balance will require repayment by Independent Advisor.

H. Unless otherwise mandated by state or federal law or governmental regulations, or required by Ameriprise Financial's privacy policy in existence at the time of Independent Advisor's termination, Independent Advisor agrees to immediately deliver to Ameriprise Financial the Manuals, Compliance Policy Manuals, and all other original and copies of records (including electronic or computer-generated copies, even if such copies were made in violation of this Agreement), including most recent financial plans and recommendations, computer databases and files, correspondence, and instructions containing confidential information relating to the System, all of which are acknowledged to be the property of Ameriprise Financial. Moreover, unless otherwise mandated by state or federal law, or governmental regulations, or required by the Ameriprise Financial privacy policy in existence at the time of Independent Advisor's termination, Independent Advisor agrees to immediately deliver to Ameriprise Financial the originals and copies of all Client records, including, for example, records containing Client lists and/or information and transactions belonging to Ameriprise Financial and to follow all other requirements under Ameriprise Financial's privacy policy. Independent Advisor also agrees that, in the event of Independent Advisor's incapacitation, abandonment of practice, or untimely death, Ameriprise Financial shall have the unrestricted right to enter the premises and seize all the materials referenced above.

I. Independent Advisor agrees to immediately (1) discontinue use of any computer software developed for the System or Ameriprise Financial, (2) deliver to Ameriprise Financial all such computer software in Independent Advisor's possession or control and any copies made of such computer software, (3) erase or destroy any of such computer software contained in the computers or data storage devices under the control of Independent Advisor, and (4) remove such computer software from any other computer programs or software in Independent Advisor's possession or control that incorporates or uses such computer software in whole or in part following the decommission procedure as described in the Manuals.

J. Independent Advisor agrees to comply with the covenants contained in Section 19 hereof.

19. COVENANTS.

A. Independent Advisor covenants that, during the term of this Agreement, Independent Advisor agrees to: (1) devote best efforts to the management and operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business; and (2) except as otherwise approved in writing by Ameriprise Financial or after providing notice to Ameriprise Financial as specified in the Manuals, not be employed or engage in other business activities outside the Independent Financial Advisor Business.

B. Independent Advisor specifically acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Independent Advisor will receive additional substantive rights as a franchisee of Ameriprise Financial. Independent Advisor also recognizes he or she will receive valuable and confidential information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Ameriprise Financial and the System. In recognition of and in consideration for these and other benefits, to protect the confidentiality of Ameriprise Financial's Client information and to protect Ameriprise Financial's goodwill, Independent Advisor covenants that:

(1) During the term of this Agreement Independent Advisor agrees to not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or entity:

i. encourage, assist, participate, induce, or attempt to encourage, assist, participate or induce any Client or prospective business or customer to terminate an agreement with Ameriprise Financial, Ameriprise Financial's affiliates, Issuers, or any financial advisor business under the System;

ii. encourage, assist, participate, induce, or attempt to encourage, assist, participate or induce any Client or prospective business or customer to terminate, surrender, redeem, or cancel any action related to Products & Services acquired or ordered from or through Ameriprise Financial, Ameriprise Financial's affiliates, Issuers, or any financial advisor business under the System, except as provided in the Manuals or with Ameriprise Financial's written approval and consent;

iii. solicit any Clients that Independent Advisor contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under this Agreement to open an account other than an Ameriprise Financial account or to sell any investment, financial or insurance products or services other than through Ameriprise Financial with Ameriprise Financial's written approval and consent;

iv. open an account for, or provide or offer to provide any investment, financial, or insurance products or services to any Clients that Independent Advisor contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under this Agreement; and/or

v. encourage, induce, or attempt to encourage or induce or otherwise solicit any person who is employed by Ameriprise Financial or associated or affiliated with Ameriprise Financial as an Independent Advisor, independent contractor or agent to terminate their employment, association or other affiliation with Ameriprise Financial.

(2) For one year after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Independent Advisor agrees to not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or entity:

i. encourage, induce, or attempt to encourage or induce any Client that Independent Advisor contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under this Agreement to terminate an agreement with Ameriprise Financial, Ameriprise Financial affiliates, Issuers, or any financial advisor business under the System;

ii. encourage, induce, or attempt to encourage or induce any Client that Independent Advisor contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under this Agreement, to terminate, surrender, redeem, or cancel any action related to Products & Services acquired or ordered from or through Ameriprise Financial, Ameriprise Financial's affiliates, Issuers, or any financial advisor business under the System, except as provided in the Manuals or with Ameriprise Financial's written approval and consent;

iii. solicit any Clients that Independent Advisor contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under this Agreement for the purpose of the Client opening an account other than an Ameriprise Financial account, purchasing investment, financial, or insurance products or services, purchasing any product or service, the type of which is offered by Ameriprise Financial, or purchasing any investment, financial or insurance products or services other than through Ameriprise Financial with Ameriprise Financial's written approval and consent; and/or

iv. encourage, induce, or attempt to encourage or induce or otherwise solicit any person who is at that time employed by Ameriprise Financial or associated or affiliated with Ameriprise Financial as an Independent Advisor, independent contractor or agent to terminate their employment, association or other affiliation with Ameriprise Financial.

(3) He or she will not disparage, during the term of this Agreement or thereafter, Ameriprise Financial, its affiliates, advisors, employees and/or Products & Services. Independent Advisor understands that nothing contained in this Agreement limits Independent Advisor's ability to raise concerns internally at Ameriprise Financial according to established policies and procedures or file a charge or complaint with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or any other federal, state or local governmental regulatory or law enforcement agency.

For purposes of this Section, an "Issuer" is a company or entity that issues Products & Services distributed or offered by Ameriprise Financial, Ameriprise Financial's affiliates, or Ameriprise Financial as the agent of another company.

C. Independent Advisor understands and acknowledges that if Independent Advisor terminates this Agreement, Ameriprise Financial shall have the right to continue to actively offer all Products & Services to Clients Independent Advisor serviced at Ameriprise Financial.

D. Upon expiration of this Agreement, Independent Advisor may have a right to revenue based on past Products & Services that have been purchased by Clients through the Independent Financial Advisor Business, as provided for in the Manuals, or otherwise with Ameriprise Financial's approval and consent.

E. Independent Advisor acknowledges and agrees that Ameriprise Financial shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope or restrictiveness of any covenant set forth above or any portion thereof, without Independent Advisor's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Independent Advisor of written notice thereof; and Independent Advisor agrees that it shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, which shall be fully enforceable notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24 hereof. Independent Advisor agrees and understands that Ameriprise Financial's exercise of such discretion, as to the Independent Advisor who is the subject of this Agreement, or of any other Independent Advisor, shall not constitute a waiver of any of Ameriprise Financial's right to enforce this or any other agreements.

F. Independent Advisor expressly agrees that the existence of any claims Independent Advisor may have against Ameriprise Financial, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Ameriprise Financial of the covenants in this Section 19.

At Ameriprise Financial's request, Independent Advisor agrees to obtain and furnish to Ameriprise Financial executed covenants similar in substance to those set forth in this Section 19 and, at the Independent Advisor's discretion, Addendum No. 3 (including covenants applicable upon the termination of a person's relationship with Independent Advisor and the provisions of Section 10 of this Agreement) from personnel (identified in the Manuals) employed or retained as an independent contractor by Independent Advisor or his or her agent. Every covenant required by this Section shall be in a form approved by Ameriprise Financial, including, without limitation, specific identification of Ameriprise Financial as a third-party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them.

G. Independent Advisor agrees that to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Ameriprise Financial will be entitled to injunctive relief from a court or FINRA arbitration should Independent Advisor violate any of the covenants in this Section 19 and the provisions in Sections 10 and 18 (the "Sections") of this Agreement. Independent Advisor recognizes that Ameriprise Financial's remedies solely at law will be inadequate, that Ameriprise Financial will be irreparably harmed by violations of the provisions in the Sections, and thus that Ameriprise Financial will be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent future violations of the provisions in the Sections until a full and final resolution of any dispute may be had on the merits. If Independent Advisor has signed Addendum No. 3 but fails to comply with it, Ameriprise Financial shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief to enforce at Ameriprise Financial's option, the covenants in Section 19, including 19B (1) and (2) Ameriprise Financial has the right to seek such injunctive relief in a court of competent jurisdiction, which relief shall extend until, and if, a decision on the merits of the same issue is rendered by a FINRA arbitration panel. Such election by Ameriprise Financial to seek judicial relief shall not waive any rights Ameriprise Financial may have to arbitrate disputes arising under this Agreement, including rights to obtain damages from Independent Advisor in arbitration for violations of this Agreement.

H. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent Independent Advisor from engaging in a competitive business consistent with the covenants in this Section 19, including serving as a consultant or financial advisor affiliated with another firm, after this Agreement expires or is terminated. Nothing in this Agreement will prohibit Independent Advisor from servicing and soliciting any Clients that Independent Advisor contacted, learned about or serviced while operating under an agreement with Ameriprise Financial more than one year after this Agreement expires or is terminated, provided that Independent Advisor makes no use directly or indirectly of any confidential or trade secret information, including but not limited to, client files and lists obtained from Ameriprise Financial.

I. Upon Independent Advisor's request, Ameriprise Financial may, in its sole discretion, release Independent Advisor from any provisions in this Section 19, in whole or in part, for example to exclude specified family members from the provisions in this Section 19. Such requests by Independent Advisor must be in writing and any release to Independent Advisor must be provided in writing and signed by an officer of Ameriprise Financial. Any such release shall not act as a waiver of any other rights of Ameriprise Financial under this Agreement as such rights apply to any other Independent Advisor.

J. In accordance with Section 10 hereof, all Clients shall be deemed Clients of Ameriprise Financial and not any individual Independent Advisor. Nonetheless, Independent Advisor shall have the opportunity, consistent with Section 14, to transfer Independent Advisor's interest in this Agreement, including the right to receive compensation, as more fully described in Section 14.

K. Ameriprise Financial agrees that Clients set forth on Exhibit 1 to Addendum 3-V as of the date of execution of this Agreement (or within 14 days thereafter), if any, are not subject to Section 19B.(1) and (2).

L. Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor agree that nothing in this Section 19 is intended to interfere with FINRA Rule 2110-7 (Interfering With the Transfer of Customer Accounts in the Context of Employment Disputes) or any future modifications to that Rule.

M. Independent Advisor agrees and covenants to comply with all of Ameriprise Financial's policies, including the client privacy policy, and not take any action inconsistent with said policies while affiliated with Ameriprise Financial, or thereafter.

N. Subject to State Law. All provisions in Section 19 are subject to state law.

20. TAXES, PERMITS AND INDEBTEDNESS.

A. Independent Advisor agrees to promptly pay when due all taxes levied or assessed, including without limitation, unemployment and sales taxes, and all accounts and other indebtedness of every kind incurred by Independent Advisor in operating the Independent Financial Advisor Business. Independent Advisor agrees to pay to Ameriprise Financial an amount equal to any sales tax, gross receipts tax or similar tax (other than income tax) imposed on Ameriprise Financial with respect to any payments to Ameriprise Financial required under this Agreement, unless the tax is credited against income tax otherwise payable by Ameriprise Financial.

B. In the event of any bona fide dispute as to Independent Advisor's liability for taxes assessed or other indebtedness, Independent Advisor may contest the validity or the amount of the tax or indebtedness in accordance with procedures of the taxing authority or applicable law, but in no event shall Independent Advisor permit a tax sale or seizure by levy or execution or similar writ or warrant, or attachment by a creditor, to occur against the Premises of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, or any improvements thereon.

21. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION.

A. This Agreement does not create a fiduciary duty on behalf of Ameriprise Financial to Independent Advisor. Independent Advisor agrees to be an independent contractor, and nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute Ameriprise Financial as an agent, employee, legal representative, joint venturer, partner, servant or subsidiary of Independent Advisor for any purpose whatsoever.

B. During the term of this Agreement, Independent Advisor agrees to hold himself or herself out to the public as an independent contractor operating the Independent Financial Advisor Business. Independent Advisor agrees to take such action as may be necessary to do so, including without limitation, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place at the Premises, the content of which Ameriprise Financial reserves the right to specify. Nothing in this Agreement authorizes Independent Advisor to make any agreement, contract, representation or warranty on Ameriprise Financial's behalf or to incur any debt or other obligation in Ameriprise Financial's name; and Ameriprise Financial agrees to in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable hereunder as a result of, any such action; nor shall Ameriprise Financial be liable by reason of any act or omission of Independent Advisor in his or her operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business or for any claim or judgment arising therefrom against Independent Advisor or Ameriprise Financial.

C. To the extent permitted by law, Independent Advisor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Ameriprise Financial, its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, successors, and assigns ("Indemnitees"), against any and all causes of action, claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, actions, litigation or other expenses (including but not limited to, interest, costs of investigation, settlement costs, and attorney's fees) arising out of or relating to Independent Advisor's establishment or operation of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, except for any claim based solely on the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Ameriprise Financial or its officers, employees, and agents or based solely on nonperformance by Ameriprise Financial of its obligations hereunder. Independent Advisor agrees that with respect to any threatened or actual litigation, proceeding or dispute which could directly or indirectly affect any of the Indemnitees, the Indemnitees shall have the right, but not the obligation, to: (1) choose counsel, (2) control, direct, and/or manage the handling of the matter; and (3) settle on behalf of the Indemnitees and/or Independent Advisor, any claim against the Indemnitees in their sole discretion. All vouchers, canceled checks, receipts, receipted bills or other evidence of payments for any such losses, liabilities, costs, damages, charges or expenses of whatsoever nature incurred by any Indemnitee shall be taken as prima facie evidence of Independent Advisor's obligation hereunder. Ameriprise Financial may require Independent Advisor to reimburse Ameriprise Financial for all expenses (including attorney's fees and interest) reasonably incurred by Ameriprise Financial to enforce the terms of this Agreement, any obligation owed by Independent Advisor to Ameriprise Financial under this Agreement or otherwise, including without limitation, Independent Advisor's indemnification obligations.

22. APPROVALS AND WAIVERS.

A. Whenever this Agreement requires the consent or prior approval of Ameriprise Financial, Independent Advisor agrees to make a timely written request to Ameriprise Financial therefor, and such consent or prior-approval must be obtained in writing from an officer of Ameriprise Financial. Ameriprise Financial will respond to such requests within a timeframe reasonable under the circumstances.

B. Ameriprise Financial makes no guarantees or warranties upon which Independent Advisor may rely and assumes no liability or obligation to Independent Advisor, by providing any approval, consent, suggestion or waiver to Independent Advisor in connection with this Agreement or by reason of any delay, denial or neglect of any request therefor.

C. No failure of Ameriprise Financial to exercise any power reserved to it by this Agreement, or to insist upon strict compliance by Independent Advisor with any obligation or condition hereunder, and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof, shall constitute a waiver of Ameriprise Financial's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms hereof. Waiver by Ameriprise Financial of any particular default of Independent Advisor shall not affect or impair Ameriprise Financial's rights with respect to any subsequent default of the same, similar, or different nature; nor shall any delay, forbearance, or omission of Ameriprise Financial to exercise any power or right arising out of any breach of default by Independent Advisor of any of the terms, provisions, or covenants hereof, affect or impair Ameriprise Financial's right to exercise the same, nor shall such constitute a waiver by Ameriprise Financial of any right hereunder, or the right to declare any subsequent breach or default and to terminate this Agreement prior to the expiration of its term. Subsequent acceptance by Ameriprise Financial of any payments due to it hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Ameriprise Financial of any preceding breach by Independent Advisor of any terms, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

23. NOTICES.

Unless otherwise indicated, any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be: personally delivered; sent by electronic notice, including email; sent by facsimile/telecopier (if confirmed by mail); mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested; or dispatched by overnight delivery envelope to the respective parties at the following addresses, unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party or specifically required herein:

Any notice of a revision to the Manuals may be made by revising the Manuals and notifying Independent Advisor of such revisions by any reasonable means.

24. ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

A. This Agreement and the attachments hereto, constitute the entire Agreement between Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, negotiations, and representations (oral and written), no other representations having induced Independent Advisor to execute this Agreement. No party is relying on any agreement or representation or is bound by any other agreement or obligation concerning the subject matter of this Agreement that is not expressly set forth herein. Except for those permitted to be made unilaterally by Ameriprise Financial hereunder, no amendment, change or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed in writing by the parties' authorized officers or agents. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to disclaim any representations that Ameriprise Financial made in the Franchise Disclosure Document that Ameriprise Financial provided to Independent Advisor.

B. Ameriprise Financial has the right to operate, develop, and change the System in any manner that is not specifically precluded by this Agreement. Whenever Ameriprise Financial has reserved in this Agreement a right to take or withhold an action, or to grant or decline to grant Independent Advisor a right to take or omit an action, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, Ameriprise Financial may make its decision or exercise its rights on the basis of the information readily available to Ameriprise Financial, and Ameriprise Financial's judgment of what is in its best interests and/or in the best interests of the System, at the time Ameriprise Financial's decision is made shall be deemed to be reasonable and enforceable, without regard to whether other reasonable or even arguably preferable alternative decisions could have been made by Ameriprise Financial and without regard to whether Ameriprise Financial's decision or the action Ameriprise Financial takes promotes Ameriprise Financial's financial or other individual interest.

25. SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION.

If, for any reason, any section, part, term, provision, and/or covenant herein is determined to be invalid and contrary to or in conflict with any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, parts, terms, provisions, and/or covenants of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible; and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto; and said invalid portions, sections, parts, terms, provisions, and/or covenants shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

A. Any provision or covenant in this Agreement which expressly or by its nature imposes obligations beyond the expiration, termination or assignment of this Agreement (regardless of cause for termination) shall survive such expiration, termination or assignment, including but not limited to Sections 10, 19, 21, and 26.

B. Independent Advisor expressly agrees to be bound by any covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof, as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof any portion or portions which a court, regulator, or agency having valid jurisdiction may hold to be unreasonable and unenforceable in an unappealed final decision to which Ameriprise Financial is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court, regulator, or agency order.

C. If the performance of any obligation by Ameriprise Financial under this Agreement is prevented, hindered or delayed by reason of Force Majeure, which cannot be overcome by reasonable commercial measures, Ameriprise Financial shall be relieved of any such obligation during the period of such Force Majeure. In such event, Ameriprise Financial shall give Independent Advisor written notice of the Force Majeure occurrence and an estimate as to its duration. As used in this Agreement, the term "Force Majeure" shall include, but not be limited to: any act of God; acts of terrorism or war (declared or undeclared); riots or other social disturbances; strikes, lock-outs or other industrial disturbances; failure or degradation of telecommunications or internet services; fires, floods, earthquakes or other natural occurrences; epidemics; and any other circumstance outside of Ameriprise Financial's control.

26. APPLICABLE LAW.

A. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE INTERPRETED AND CONSTRUED EXCLUSIVELY UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, EXCLUDING THE FRANCHISE LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE UNLESS IT APPLIES BY ITS TERMS. IN THE EVENT OF ANY CONFLICT OF LAW, THE LAWS OF DELAWARE SHALL PREVAIL, WITHOUT REGARD TO THE APPLICATION OF DELAWARE CONFLICT OF LAW RULES; EXCEPT THAT ALL ISSUES RELATING TO ARBITRABILITY OR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THIS AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE HEREIN CONTAINED SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE TERMS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, AND TO THE EXTENT NOT INCONSISTENT WITH THIS AGREEMENT, BY THE RULES OF ARBITRATION OF FINRA. NOTHING IN THIS SECTION IS INTENDED BY THE PARTIES TO SUBJECT THIS AGREEMENT TO THE DELAWARE FRANCHISE ACT OR ANY FRANCHISE OR SIMILAR STATUTE, RULE OR REGULATION OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

B. NO RIGHT OR REMEDY CONFERRED UPON OR RESERVED TO AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL OR INDEPENDENT ADVISOR BY THIS AGREEMENT IS INTENDED TO BE, NOR SHALL BE DEEMED, EXCLUSIVE OF ANY OTHER RIGHT OR REMEDY HEREIN OR BY LAW OR EQUITY PROVIDED OR PERMITTED, BUT EACH SHALL BE CUMULATIVE OF EVERY OTHER RIGHT OR REMEDY.

C. AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL AND INDEPENDENT ADVISOR IRREVOCABLY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, BROUGHT BY EITHER OF THEM AGAINST THE OTHER, WHETHER OR NOT THERE ARE OTHER PARTIES IN SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING, EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE AGREED.

D. AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL AND INDEPENDENT ADVISOR HEREBY WAIVE TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT TO OR CLAIM OF ANY PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES AGAINST THE OTHER AND AGREE THAT IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE BETWEEN THEM, EACH SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE RECOVERY OF ANY ACTUAL DAMAGES SUSTAINED BY IT.

E. NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL BAR AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL'S RIGHT TO OBTAIN INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AGAINST CONDUCT OR THREATENED CONDUCT THAT: (1) WILL CAUSE IT LOSS OR DAMAGE; (2) VIOLATES THE TERMS OF ADDITIONAL SUPERVISION; OR (3) IS IN VIOLATION OF AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL'S OBLIGATION TO COMPLY FULLY WITH GOVERNMENT AGENCY LAWS OR REGULATIONS UNDER THE USUAL EQUITY RULES, INCLUDING THE APPLICABLE RULES FOR OBTAINING SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, RESTRAINING ORDERS, AND PRELIMINARY INJUNCTIONS.

27. ARBITRATION.

A. Except as provided in Section 27E hereof, Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor agree to arbitrate any dispute, claim or controversy that may arise between Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor or a customer or any other person ("Claims"), unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor. To the extent that such Claims are required or allowed to be arbitrated under the rules, constitutions or by-laws of FINRA, as amended from time-to-time, they will be arbitrated in accordance with the policies and procedures established by FINRA.

B. If either FINRA declines to administer arbitration of any Claims or FINRA rules do not allow for arbitration of any Claims, Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor agree that the Claims shall be finally decided by arbitration conducted pursuant to the Commercial Dispute Resolution Procedures of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") and its Supplementary Rules for Securities Arbitration, or other applicable rules promulgated by the AAA. In addition, Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor specifically agree that all Claims, statutory or otherwise, which allege discrimination or violation of employment laws, including but not limited to, claims of sexual harassment, shall be finally decided by arbitration pursuant to the AAA unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Ameriprise Financial and the Independent Advisor.

C. By written agreement of Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor, disputes may be resolved in arbitration by a mutually agreed-upon organization other than AAA or FINRA.

D. In consideration of the promises and the compensation provided in this Agreement, neither Ameriprise Financial nor Independent Advisor shall have a right: (1) to arbitrate any Claims on a class or multi-party action basis or in a purported representative capacity on behalf of any Independent Advisors, employees, applicants or other persons similarly situated; (2) to consolidate Claims or join in an arbitration brought by or against another Independent Advisor, employee, applicant or Ameriprise Financial, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor; (3) to litigate any Claims in court, except as provided in Section 27E hereof or to have a jury trial on any Claims; and (4) to participate in a representative capacity or as a member of any class of claimants in an action in a court of law pertaining to any Claims. Nothing in this Agreement relieves Ameriprise Financial or Independent Advisor from any obligation Ameriprise Financial or Independent Advisor may have to exhaust certain administrative remedies before arbitrating any claims or disputes under this Agreement.

E. Except as provided in this Section 27E, either Ameriprise Financial or Independent Advisor may compel arbitration of any Claims filed in a court of law. In addition, either Ameriprise Financial or Independent Advisor may apply to a court of law for immediate injunctive relief or other temporary or emergency relief, as allowed by FINRA rules or otherwise described in Section 19H hereof.

F. Any award by an arbitration panel shall be final and binding upon Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor. Judgment upon the award may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof or having jurisdiction over the relevant party or its assets.

G. This Agreement to arbitrate is governed by and enforceable under the terms of the Federal Arbitration Act.

THE AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL SERVICES, LLC
INDEPENDENT ADVISOR BUSINESS FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

REGISTERED PRINCIPAL AGREEMENT

Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC ("Ameriprise Financial") and Independent Advisor are parties to the Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC Independent Advisor Business Franchise Agreement ("Agreement") and hereby agree as follows:

1. SUPPLEMENT TO AGREEMENT. This Addendum to the Agreement ("Addendum") shall supplement the terms of the Agreement and shall supersede all previous agreements and addendums relating to Registered Principal activities. In the event of any inconsistency between this Addendum and the Agreement, this Addendum shall control.
2. SCOPE OF ADDENDUM. This Addendum defines Independent Advisor's relationship with Ameriprise Financial as a Registered Principal. In setting forth such relationship in this Addendum, Independent Advisor shall be referred to as the Registered Principal ("Registered Principal", "you" or "your").
3. UNDERTAKINGS BY REGISTERED PRINCIPAL. You shall serve as a Registered Principal for Independent Advisors and perform these functions in accordance with all applicable regulatory and statutory requirements, the Compliance Policy Manual and Ameriprise Financial policies and procedures. It is expressly understood that applicable regulatory and statutory requirements, as well as the Compliance Policy Manual and Ameriprise Financial policies and procedures may be amended during the course of this Agreement. Registered Principal shall nonetheless comply with all such amendments or changes thereto.
   A. The regulatory activities include, but are not limited to, compliance supervision with specific requirements as listed below:
      (1) Proactively work with advisors and their staff to support their effort to run a compliant practice. This includes;
         - Conducting and documenting supervisory meetings, one of which must be an annual Practice Assessment meeting

         - Administering Education and Discipline as necessary;
         - Providing coaching on compliance policies and procedures;
         - Acting as the main resource for completion of compliance requirements; and

      (2) Proactively detect violations of compliance policy or procedures through:
         - Responding to corporate requests to review advisor activity;
         - Making client calls; and
         - Analyzing reports and other metrics.
      (3) Adhere to the Written Supervisory Procedures ("WSPs").
      (4) Respond to issues identified by corporate business partners. This includes:
         - Working with the Supervision Department and Compliance on corrective action plans ("CAPs") and any other items needing attention;
         - Working with Compliance on complaints;
         - Resolving issues identified by Field Office Inspections;
         - Working with Legal on investigations.
      (5) Comply with record keeping processes, required use of certain technology tools and systems, and other requirements as identified.
   B. You acknowledge and agree to satisfy the requirements of being a Registered Principal set forth in the WSPs and Operating Procedures. Failure to do so may result in termination of this Addendum and/or a default of your Agreement.

C. You shall provide, at your own expense, adequate systems sufficient to perform supervision for the advisors assigned to you. You may elect to delegate, at your own expense, certain supervisory functions to qualified support personnel. You acknowledge and agree to remain responsible for ensuring the quality and timeliness of all such functions delegated.

D. You may independently provide supervision in accordance with the approved Registered Principal/ Independent Advisor ratios or as otherwise approved by Ameriprise Financial. To the extent your provision of such services exceeds the approved ratios, you will be required to secure the services of individuals, approved by Ameriprise Financial to provide or assist in the provision of those services, such that the ratios meet the designated requirements. To the extent you hire, at your own expense, one or more delegate(s), the delegate shall be your own employee or contractor and not be an employee or contractor of Ameriprise Financial, and you are required to obtain covenants from that delegate in accordance with Section 19 of the Agreement. Likewise, to the extent you use a delegate to provide supervision, you are solely responsible for the creation and maintenance of a contractual relationship with that individual. Each delegate shall be approved in advance by Ameriprise Financial and must execute the appropriate agreements required by Ameriprise Financial.

E. You acknowledge and agree that you (and all your delegates) are required to comply with all privacy requirements set forth both by applicable federal and state laws, as well as Ameriprise Financial's policies and procedures.

F. You acknowledge and agree that you (and all your delegates) are required to strictly comply with the Ameriprise Financial Global Code of Conduct, especially given that you and your delegates will have unique access to sensitive information regarding other Ameriprise Financial advisors. By way of example, to the extent that an advisor seeks input from you related to a potential practice acquisition or sale, you should immediately notify the advisor if you may have a personal interest in the transaction. Failure to conduct yourself in accordance with the Ameriprise Financial Global Code of Conduct could result in consequences up to and including termination of this Addendum and/or termination of your Agreement.

4. COMPENSATION. F. No Pre-Termination Notification of or Solicitation of Clients. Departing Independent Advisor agrees not to notify clients of his or her termination, orally or in writing, on or prior to the effective date of termination. Further, any notice Independent Advisor does send to clients after the Independent Advisor's termination, announcing Independent Advisor's termination from Ameriprise Financial, must not be on Ameriprise Financial (or affiliated company) stationery or use Ameriprise Financial's Proprietary Marks, and may not be mailed in any envelope marked with any Ameriprise Financial Proprietary Marks. Agreement except the Restrictive Covenant set forth at Sections 19(B)(1) and (2) of the Franchise Agreement(s). This Addendum does not modify, amend, or otherwise alter Independent Advisor's obligations under Ameriprise Financial's client assignment policy. Should any court, arbitration panel or quasi-judicial body of competent jurisdiction determine that any provision of the Franchise Agreement or this Addendum is unenforceable or invalid, such a determination shall not render the Franchise Agreement or this Addendum, or any provision thereof, otherwise unenforceable or invalid.

K. Primary Purpose of This Addendum. THE FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW MAKES IT UNLAWFUL TO OFFER OR SELL ANY FRANCHISE IN THIS STATE WITHOUT FIRST PROVIDING TO THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE, AT LEAST SEVEN DAYS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION BY THE PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE OF ANY BINDING FRANCHISE OR OTHER AGREEMENT, OR AT LEAST SEVEN DAYS PRIOR TO THE PAYMENT OF ANY CONSIDERATION BY THE FRANCHISEE, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST, A COPY OF THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, TOGETHER WITH A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement; or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Item 17, Additional Disclosure(s):

The Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act governs the Franchise Agreement.

Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act § 705/41 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

Your rights upon termination and non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

Any provisions in the Disclosure Document or Franchise Agreement that require you to disclaim the occurrence of or acknowledge the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale, and/or assignment/transfer will not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. § 101, et seq.).

Franchise Agreement, Section 28:

Franchise Agreement, Section 28 ("Acknowledgements") does not apply and is hereby stricken if you are a Maryland resident, or if the Independent Financial Advisor Business franchise is to be located in Maryland.

MINNESOTA

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§ 80C.01—80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply. If any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or Franchise Disclosure Document are inconsistent with Minnesota law, Minnesota law will apply.

Minnesota Statute 80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(J), prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce: (1) any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statute 80C; or (2) your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

Franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. See Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(J). A court will determine if a bond is required.

That a franchisee by given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement; and

- That consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

Minnesota prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining or prohibiting a franchisee from: (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor; or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Minnesota.

Item 19, Additional Disclosure(s):

Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(D) provides that any general release of claims that you may have against us, including without limitation, claims arising under federal, state, and local laws and regulations shall exclude claims you may have under the Minnesota Franchise Act and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder by the Commissioner of Commerce.

The limitations of claims section must comply with Minnesota Statute § 80C.17, subd. 5.

2. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of: the number of franchisees and the size; nature or financial condition of the franchise system or its business operations.
3. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge, or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.
4. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

Item 17, Additional Disclosure(s):

Item 17(c), 17(m): The following is added to the end of the "Summary" sections of Item 17(c), titled "Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend", and Item 17(m), titled "Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer": To the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this provision that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law §§ 687(4) and 687(5) be satisfied.

Item 17(d): The following replaces the "Summary" section of Item 17(d), titled "Termination by franchisee": You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

Item 17(v): The following is added to the end of the "Summary" sections of Item 17(v), titled "Choice of forum", and Item 17(w), titled "Choice of law": The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the franchisor or upon the franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement; or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Any sale made must be in compliance with § 683(8) of the Franchise Sale Act (N.Y. Gen. Bus. L. § 680 et seq.), which describes the time period a Franchise Disclosure Document (offering prospectus) must be provided to a prospective franchisee before a sale may be made. New York law requires a franchisor to provide the Franchise Disclosure Document at the earlier of the first personal meeting, ten (10) business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement, or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.

RHODE ISLAND

To the extent the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act, R.I. Gen. Law ch. 395 §§ 19-28.1-1—19-28.1-34 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply. If any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or Franchise Disclosure Document are inconsistent with Rhode Island law, Rhode Island law will apply.

Item 17, Additional Disclosure(s):

Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act § 19-28.1-14 provides that: “a provision in a franchise agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act.”

VIRGINIA

To the extent the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, Va. Code §§ 13.1-557—13.1-574 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply. If any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or Franchise Disclosure Document are inconsistent with Virginia law, Virginia law will apply.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement; or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Any provision in any of the contracts that you sign with us which provides for termination of the franchise upon the bankruptcy of the franchisee may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. § 101, et seq.).

Virginia Retail Franchising Act § 13.1-564 provides that it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

Under subsection D of § 13.1-559 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, for all franchises located in Virginia, the franchise contract or agreement offered or entered into pursuant to terms of this chapter shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Under subdivision A 4 of § 13.1-563 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act (“Act”), it is unlawful to offer or enter into a franchise agreement that restricts the right of a franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail after termination or expiration of the franchise agreement. However, subsection B of § 13.1-563 of the Act provides that if a franchisee sells a franchise at a mutually agreed upon price to a third party or back to the franchisor, such sale may include a term restricting the right of such franchisee to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services at retail for a period of no more than two years after such sale.

WASHINGTON Addendum to the Franchise Disclosure Document, Franchise Agreement, and Related Agreements

To the extent the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code §§ 19.100.010—19.100.940 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply. If any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or Franchise Disclosure Document are inconsistent with Washington law, Washington law will apply.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of: (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement; or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Item 17, Additional Disclosure(s):

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW shall prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Franchisees who receive financial incentives to refer franchise prospects to franchisors may be required to register as franchise brokers under the laws of Washington.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining or prohibiting a franchisee from: (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor; or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

The franchisor may use the services of franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Do not rely only on the information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor's current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.

Franchise Agreement, Section 22(B):

Section 22(B) is hereby stricken and replaced with the following: Ameriprise Financial makes no guarantees or warranties and assumes no liability or obligation to Independent Advisor, by providing any approval, consent, suggestion, or waiver to Independent Advisor in connection with this Agreement or by reason of any delay, denial or neglect of any request therefor.

Franchise Agreement, Section 24(A):

Section 24(A) is hereby stricken and placed with the following:

This Agreement and the attachments hereto, constitute the entire agreement between Ameriprise Financial and Independent Advisor concerning the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, negotiations, and representations (oral and written). No amendment, change or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed by their authorized officers or agents in writing. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to disclaim any representations that Ameriprise Financial made in the Franchise Disclosure Document Ameriprise Financial provided to Independent Advisor.

Franchise Agreement, Section 28(A):

Franchise Agreement, Section 28(A) ("Acknowledgements") is hereby stricken and replaced with the following:

INDEPENDENT ADVISOR ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE OR SHE RECEIVED A COMPLETE COPY OF

THIS AGREEMENT, THE ATTACHMENTS HERETO, AND AGREEMENTS RELATING THERETO, IF ANY, AT LEAST SEVEN (7) CALENDAR DAYS PRIOR TO THE DATE ON WHICH THIS AGREEMENT WAS EXECUTED (EXCLUSIVE OF THE DAY INDEPENDENT ADVISOR RECEIVED THE DOCUMENT AND THE DAY INDEPENDENT ADVISOR SIGNED THIS AGREEMENT). INDEPENDENT ADVISOR FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE OR SHE RECEIVED THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT REQUIRED BY THE TRADE REGULATION RULE OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION ENTITLED "DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS AND PROHIBITIONS CONCERNING FRANCHISING AND BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY VENTURES" AT LEAST FOURTEEN (14) CALENDAR DAYS PRIOR TO THE DATE ON WHICH THIS AGREEMENT WAS EXECUTED (EXCLUSIVE OF THE DAY INDPENDENT ADVISOR RECEIVED THE DOCUMENT AND THE DAY INDEPENDENT ADVISOR SIGNED THIS AGREEMENT).

Franchise Agreement, Section 28(B):

Franchise Agreement, Section 28(B) ("Acknowledgements") does not apply and is hereby stricken if you are a Washington resident, or if the Independent Financial Advisor Business franchise is to be located in Washington.

Exhibit H, Promissory Note, Section 14:

Promissory Note, Section 14 is hereby stricken and replaced with the following: A waiver or modification of any term of the Note or any of the obligations secured thereby must be made in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of Ameriprise and shall be limited to the express terms of such waiver or modification.

WISCONSIN

To the extent the Wisconsin Franchise Investment Law, Wis. Stat. §§ 553.01—553.78 or Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law, Wis. Stat. §§ 135.01—135.07 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply. If any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or Franchise Disclosure Document are inconsistent with Wisconsin law, Wisconsin law will apply.

Item 17, Additional Disclosure(s):

The Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law applies to most, if not all, franchise agreements and prohibits the termination, cancellation, non-renewal or the substantial change of the competitive circumstances of a dealership agreement without good cause. The Law further provides that ninety (90) days prior written notice of a proposed termination, etc. must be given to the dealer. The dealer has sixty (60) days to cure the deficiency and if the deficiency is cured, the notice is void.

The Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law, Wis. Stat. Ch. 135 supersedes any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or the Disclosure Document or a related contract, which are inconsistent with that Law.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT:

It is agreed that the applicable foregoing state law addendum, if any, supersedes any inconsistent portion of the Franchise Agreement and of the Franchise Disclosure Document, but only to the extent they are then valid requirements of an applicable and enforceable state law, and for only so long as such state law remains in effect.

SAMPLE TRANSITION PROMISSORY NOTE

1. FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned (hereinafter the “Independent Advisor”) promises to pay to the order of “Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC” (hereinafter “Ameriprise”) the principal sum of $100,000.00 plus interest which is payable at a rate equal to one quarter point more than the semi-annual mid- term Applicable Federal Rate as defined in Section 1274 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, compounded annually, determined as of the date the loan is made (the “Applicable Rate”). The current Applicable Federal Rate is 3.82% making the total interest rate for the purpose of this loan 4.07%. In the event of a default by Independent Advisor on this loan, or the obligations described herein, (i) as allowable by applicable law, the interest rate effective for the period prior to the default shall convert to 10% per annum, and all payments previously made hereunder shall be recalculated using an 10% interest rate (this recalculation may result in a change to the outstanding principal and interest); and (ii) the interest rate effective for the period beginning the date of default shall convert to the maximum rate allowable by applicable law. This default interest rate is contemplated by the parties to account for the reduction in value of this note as an asset held by Ameriprise and fall within the range of actual damages that the parties could have anticipated would flow from such a default, and the parties acknowledges that such an increase in the interest rate is a common method of recouping the type of loss incurred by a lender upon a borrower’s default. This agreement shall be referred to as the “Agreement” or “Note.”

However, in no event shall the amount of interest due or payment in the nature of interest payable hereunder exceed the maximum rate of interest allowed by applicable law, as amended from time to time, and in the event any such payment is paid by the undersigned or received by Ameriprise, then such excess sum shall be credited as a payment of principal, unless the undersigned shall notify Ameriprise, in writing, that the undersigned elects to have such excess sum returned to it forthwith.

Principal and interest shall be due and payable in monthly installments of $1,397.47 for 7 years on the second paydate Friday of each month starting the second month of this loan.

2. If Independent Advisor's Business Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) terminates for any reason including, but not limited to, death, resignation, Independent Advisor becomes insolvent or files for bankruptcy while affiliated with Ameriprise, then the unpaid balance of the principal sum, plus accrued interest, shall become immediately due and payable as of the date of any of the above-described events. Independent Advisor's failure to immediately pay any outstanding balance when due shall serve as a default to this Agreement without any need for prior demand or presentment by Ameriprise. Further, any incident of breach or default by Independent Advisor of any other Agreements or obligations of Independent Advisor to Ameriprise, including without limitation, maintaining proper licensure and compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, as well as complying with Ameriprise policies and Code of Conduct, may also serve as a default to this Agreement at Ameriprise’s sole discretion.

In addition, if Independent Advisor transfers direct or indirect interest in the Franchise Agreement in whole or in part, or any portion of the assets of the Independent Financial Advisor Business, in a manner inconsistent with Ameriprise policies or practices as defined in the Franchise Agreement, may result in default of this Agreement at Ameriprise’s sole discretion.

A. In the event that Independent Advisor becomes employed or affiliated with a subsequent employer, associated firm, broker-dealer or Registered Investment Advisor after default on this Note or while any amounts are still outstanding on this Note, Independent Advisor agrees to promptly inform such subsequent employer, associated firm, broker-dealer or Registered Investment Advisor of the outstanding Note amounts due and consents to permit Ameriprise to also inform Independent Advisor's new employer, associated firm, broker- dealer or Registered Investment Advisor of the outstanding debt and Note.

B. In the event of default, Independent Advisor grants to Ameriprise a limited power of attorney to act on Independent Advisor's behalf to make a legally enforceable request to any subsequent employer, associated firm, broker-dealer or Registered Investment Advisor who may provide to Independent Advisor a subsequent bonus or loan for payment of such bonus or loan in full or in part to Ameriprise in amounts sufficient to satisfy any outstanding obligations on the Note. Independent Advisor also agrees that any subsequent bonus or loan from a subsequent employer, associated firm, broker-dealer or Registered Investment Advisor may be subject to a lien for the discharge of any indebtedness or obligations under this Note. The foregoing powers of attorney, being coupled with an interest, are irrevocable until the payment in full of the obligations under this Note.

3. All or any portion of unpaid principal and accrued interest may be prepaid at any time without premium or fee. Independent Advisor expressly requests and consents that any amounts due or owing on loans from Ameriprise be deducted from Independent Advisor's compensation. Any payments or prepayments (whether voluntary or otherwise) shall be applied at the option of Ameriprise first to collection costs, if any, then to accrued interest, and then to principal. Notwithstanding the above, following a default by Independent Advisor of this agreement, Ameriprise may at any time, and at its sole and absolute discretion, demand full or partial payment of the outstanding balance due under this Note.

4. Independent Advisor hereby represents and warrants that the proceeds of the loan evidenced by this Note are advanced as a result of commercial activity, are based upon business metrics, and are intended to assist Independent Advisor in continuing to achieve similar commercial performance to the degree that such performance is in the interest of the customers of Ameriprise.

5. Independent Advisor hereby agrees that Ameriprise may assign the obligations and/or benefits of this Note to any other party without the consent of, or notice to, the Independent Advisor, and such assignment shall transfer the obligations and/or benefits under this Note to such assignee. Independent Advisor may not assign the obligations and/or benefits of this Note.

6. Independent Advisor agrees that any dispute arising between the parties to this Agreement (including but not limited to Independent Advisor's default on the loan) shall be subject to arbitration pursuant to the FINRA Code of Arbitration Procedure for Industry Disputes. Independent Advisor agrees that the exclusive process for resolving any disputes arising between the parties to this Agreement (the "Covered Claims") shall be arbitration on an individual basis only, not on a class, collective or representative action basis. Independent Advisor further agrees not to participate as a class or collective action representative, or as a member of any class, collective, or representative action, in any action for or related to Covered Claims. Independent Advisor agrees that arbitrators appointed under the authority of this arbitration agreement are not authorized to conduct a class, collective, or representative action arbitration for or related to Covered Claims. Independent Advisor agrees that if Independent Advisor is included within any class action, collective action, or representative action in court or in arbitration involving any Covered Claims, Independent Advisor shall take all steps necessary to opt out of the action, or refrain from opting in to the action, as applicable.

A. To the extent any dispute is arbitrated pursuant to the FINRA Code of Arbitration Procedure for Industry Disputes, Independent Advisor agrees to expedite such arbitration and hearing on the Note to the fullest extent possible pursuant to the applicable Code of Arbitration Procedure.

B. In the event that Independent Advisor is in default with respect to the Note, Independent Advisor hereby stipulates to the entry of an Award in favor of Ameriprise and against Independent Advisor for all outstanding principal and interest, as well as all costs of collection incurred by Ameriprise, owed pursuant to this Agreement ("Stipulated Award Claim"). Independent Advisor agrees that any claims which Independent Advisor may have against Ameriprise shall not be raised as a counterclaim to the Stipulated Award Claim, but instead shall be raised in a separate arbitration proceeding to be initiated by Independent Advisor. Independent Advisor knowingly and affirmatively agrees to waive all rights to combine claims against Ameriprise under FINRA Code of Arbitration Procedure Rule 13314. Independent Advisor agrees that if Independent Advisor violates this provision by either (i) filing a counterclaim against Ameriprise's Stipulated Award Claim, or (ii) attempting to combine its separately-filed claims with Ameriprise's Stipulated Award Claim; then Ameriprise is entitled to recover its costs of defense in defending against such claims or counterclaims, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs, whether incurred in arbitration, post-arbitration, or appeal. Independent Advisor hereby irrevocably authorizes and empowers FINRA to enter an award against Independent Advisor on an expedited basis and in favor of Ameriprise, its representatives and assigns, for which this Agreement, or a true copy hereof, shall be a sufficient warrant, at any time or times after default, and as any term, for the whole or any part of said amounts, with or without declaration, with collection fees and costs of suit, without stay of execution, and with attorney's fees and costs. The authority herein granted to enter the award shall not be exhausted by any exercise thereof, but shall continue from time to time and at all times until full payment of all said amounts. Independent Advisor hereby waives and releases all errors, defects, imperfections, appeals, and any stay of execution in any proceedings instituted by Ameriprise under this Agreement. Independent Advisor waives the benefit of any laws or rules of court now or hereafter in effect relating to exemption, appraisement, stay of execution, or other relief from the entry of an award.

7. Independent Advisor also hereby authorizes Ameriprise and its affiliates to directly apply any bonuses, commissions or other payments earned from Ameriprise against payments due on loans.

A. In the event of default, to the extent permitted by law, Independent Advisor authorizes Ameriprise to place pend status on, restrict transfers, hold as security, or subject to a lien any property, securities, or funds in which Independent Advisor has a direct or indirect interest that are held in any brokerage, deposit, or other account at Ameriprise or its affiliates, including but not limited to any cash management account (other than deferred compensation as defined in Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and any related regulations and guidance, as the same may be amended from time to time). If Independent Advisor's repayment obligations are not satisfied in full when due, Ameriprise shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to liquidate any property, securities, or funds in such accounts or investments and use the proceeds to set off any amounts owed. This right to set off is in addition to, and not in limitation of, any right Ameriprise may have at law or otherwise.

B. Ameriprise's right to recover all amounts due under this Note shall not be limited to recovery from Independent Advisor's accounts as this Note is a full recourse Note against Independent Advisor who shall be personally liable for repayment of the Note. Independent Advisor expressly authorizes Ameriprise to seek a garnishment of Independent Advisor's wages in a court of competent jurisdiction to satisfy any or all amounts owed by Independent Advisor to Ameriprise.

C. In furtherance hereof, and as security for the repayment of all amounts due under this Note to Ameriprise including expenses and attorney's fees, Independent Advisor hereby assigns to Ameriprise and grants to Ameriprise a security interest in the following:

(i) all of the intangible and tangible assets of Independent Advisor's Financial Advisor Business, as defined in the Independent Advisor Business Franchise Agreement between Independent Advisor and Ameriprise ("Franchise Agreement") and/or of any direct or indirect interest in the Franchise Agreement (including, without limitation, (x) all "accounts", "chattel paper", "commodities accounts", "commodities contracts", "deposit accounts", "documents",

"electronic chattel paper", "equipment", "general intangibles", "goods", "instruments", "investment property", "payment intangibles", "promissory notes", "records", "software", and "tangible chattel paper" together with all "supporting obligations" and "proceeds" related to the same (in each case as the same are defined in Article 9 of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC")) and (y) to the extent not otherwise included under clause (x), all client lists, client accounts, accounts receivable, goodwill, books and records and equity interests) associated with Independent Advisor's Independent Financial Advisor Business (both existing and any new business Independent Advisor acquires or gains with Loan proceeds, the "Business"); and

(ii) Independent Advisor's right, title, and interest in any sums received or to be received whether now owing or hereafter arising from any future employer or other party which provides Independent Advisor with any form of compensation or contingent compensation commonly referred to as a forgivable loan, loan, bonus, up-front loan, transitional compensation, transitional loan, recruiting bonus, promissory note amount, or account (as defined in the UCC) or any other sum or payment of every nature, type or description granted or provided to Independent Advisor or for Independent Advisor's benefit as a result of accepting employment or other arrangement with such employer or party;

In addition, Independent Advisor hereby agrees to execute upon the request of Ameriprise any documents requested by Ameriprise including, but not limited to, control agreements as defined in the UCC in such form and containing such terms and conditions as Ameriprise shall require, and Independent Advisor hereby authorizes Ameriprise (i) to file all documents, including, without limitation, a UCC financing statement, in such offices or with such parties as Ameriprise deems necessary or appropriate to perfect such security interest, and (ii) to notify such employer or other party of the assignment and security interest granted herein and to require that such employer or other party pay all amounts subject to the assignment and security interest described herein directly to Ameriprise whether or not is in default under the terms of this Note.

D. Independent Advisor agrees and acknowledges that while any amounts are still outstanding on this Note, all of Independent Advisor's personal accounts and personal trading governed by the Ameriprise Financial Code of Ethics and Personal Trading Policy must be held and conducted exclusively at Ameriprise. Upon the satisfaction of all obligations of this Note, Independent Advisor shall be permitted to conduct personal trades and hold personal securities accounts as allowable pursuant to the Personal Trading Policy.

8. Independent Advisor understands and agrees that in the event of default hereunder, Ameriprise shall have the right, without notice, to exercise its rights to initiate suit or other action to collect on this Note. You hereby acknowledge and attest that you alone are responsible for the repayment of the full amount of all loans extended to you by Ameriprise regardless of any agreements you enter into with any other party. Should you enter into any other agreement with other parties including without limitation agreements that may utilize or otherwise be funded by the loan proceeds, Ameriprise has no obligation to honor such agreement(s). Further, knowledge by Ameriprise of any such agreement does not constitute a ratification thereof. In the event that any party or parties initiate litigation against Ameriprise concerning or arising under any such agreement, you agree to indemnify Ameriprise with regard to any and all damages, interest, attorney's fees, and any other costs of litigation incurred in defending against such litigation.

9. Independent Advisor hereby waives demand, presentment, notice of nonpayment and protest, and agrees to pay all costs of collection, whether or not suit or action is filed hereon, in the event that payment is not made in accordance with the provisions of this Note. The costs of collection shall include but are not limited to reasonable attorney's fees for collection efforts before commencing any legal proceeding, in arbitration, at trial, and on appeal. If a suit or action is filed, or if arbitration is commenced, the amount of such reasonable attorney's fees shall be fixed by the arbitrator or court(s) in which the matter is tried, heard or decided, including any petition or appeal thereon.

10. The provisions of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of New York, without reference to the principles of choice of law thereof, unless this requirement is prohibited by applicable law.

11. This Agreement is an integrated document and contains the complete understanding between Independent Advisor and Ameriprise relating to the matters contained herein. To the extent Independent Advisor enters into other agreements with Ameriprise, no claim of breach of such other agreements shall affect Independent Advisor's obligations with regard to the Note or other note obligations Independent Advisor may have with Ameriprise.

12. Independent Advisor, in exchange for the benefits and consideration described in this document, as well as benefits and consideration under the Franchise Agreement, and any transitional funds to be provided to Independent Advisor, releases and discharges Ameriprise and its related entities and affiliates, as well as respective current and former directors, officers, employees, agents, successors or assigns, as well as all employee benefit plans of Ameriprise, from any and all actions, causes of action, claims, allegations, demands, rights, obligations, liabilities, grievances or charges, whether known or unknown, that Independent Advisor has asserted or could have asserted against Ameriprise based upon any act or omission from the beginning of time to date.

Further, where applicable, by signing this Agreement, Independent Advisor expressly waives any and all rights under California Civil Code § 1542, or any like or similar statute or common law doctrine, which provides as follows:

> A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

Thus, where applicable, notwithstanding the provisions of California Civil Code § 1542, and for the purpose of implementing the full and complete release and discharge intended by the parties, Independent Advisor expressly acknowledges that this Agreement is intended to include in its effect, without limitation, claims and causes of action that Independent Advisor does not know of or suspect to exist in Independent Advisor's favor at the time of execution hereof and that Independent Advisor intends by this Agreement to extinguish all such claims and causes of action.

In consideration of the provisions of the Note, Independent Advisor further agrees to waive any and all rights under the laws of any jurisdiction in the United States or any other country that limit a release to claims against Ameriprise, known, unknown, or suspected to exist in Independent Advisor's favor as of the date of execution of this document.

13. No previous waiver and no failure or delay by Ameriprise in acting with respect to the terms of the Note shall constitute a waiver of any breach, default or failure of condition under the Note or the obligations of Independent Advisor secured thereby.

14. A waiver or modification of any term of the Note or any of the obligations secured thereby must be made in writing and signed by a duly authorized representative of Ameriprise and shall be limited to the express terms of such waiver or modification. Independent Advisor may not rely on any oral waivers or modifications and no such oral waiver or modification shall be binding on Ameriprise or otherwise be effective.

15. The obligations set forth herein shall be construed as agreements independent of any other provision in any other agreement by, between, among, or affecting Ameriprise and Independent Advisor, and the existence of any claim or cause of action of Independent Advisor against Ameriprise, whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement of this Note or the obligations of Independent Advisor hereunder.

16. If any provision of this Note is held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction or arbitration panel, the other provisions of this Note will remain in full force and effect. Any provision of this Note held invalid or unenforceable only in part or degree will remain in full force and effect to the extent not held invalid or unenforceable.

17. Independent Advisor agrees that in Independent Advisor's affiliation with Ameriprise, Independent Advisor will receive valuable and confidential trade secret information, including, without limitation, the identity of clients and potential clients and their contact information, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional and marketing methods and techniques of company. In recognition and in consideration for this Note and other benefits, to protect the confidentiality of Ameriprise's client information and goodwill Independent Advisor agrees that (a) during the term of Independent Advisor's affiliation with Ameriprise and (b) until all obligations under this or any other Ameriprise note have been satisfied Independent Advisor shall not, either directly or indirectly, for the benefit of Independent Advisor or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or entity, encourage, assist, participate, induce or attempt to induce any client or prospective customer to terminate or otherwise change or limit their relationship with Ameriprise or its affiliates.

18. In the event Independent Advisor becomes inactive for a period of 30 consecutive days or more for any reason, including but not limited to a Leave of Absence or a suspension, all monthly payments to Ameriprise under this Agreement will be suspended for the time that Independent Advisor remains inactive. Interest at the current rate specified herein will continue to accrue during any such period of suspended payments. If the Independent Advisor returns to active affiliation at Ameriprise within four months from the initial date of absence, upon Independent Advisor's return to active affiliation at Ameriprise, suspended payments shall be processed and future payments shall resume under this Agreement. If the Independent Advisor returns to active affiliation at Ameriprise more than four months from the initial date of absence, upon Independent Advisor's return to active affiliation at Ameriprise, the date for all suspended and future payment obligations shall be extended by a period of months equal to the number of months of the Independent Advisor's inactivity. Failure to return from leave under company policy resulting in termination of affiliation will be considered an event of default under the terms of this Note.

   G. Use the Licensed Software in any manner not explicitly authorized by this Agreement.

Violation of any of these provisions shall be the basis for immediate termination of this Agreement. Termination of the Agreement shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other equitable or legal remedies available to Ameriprise Financial.

3. PRICE AND PAYMENT. You agree to pay Ameriprise Financial for use of the Licensed Software, pursuant to the fees and payment terms set forth in the Software and Pricing Schedule. Ameriprise Financial has the right to terminate the Agreement and the license(s) granted herein for non-payment of the fees and payments as set forth in the Software and Pricing Schedule.
4. CONFIDENTIALITY. You acknowledge and agree that all aspects of the Licensed Software are confidential, trade secret information ("Confidential Information") of Ameriprise Financial or its licensors. You agree not to disclose the Confidential Information to any third party, to protect it and not use it in a manner adverse to the interests of Ameriprise Financial or its licensors, or for any purpose not directly related to the conduct of the Licensed Activities.
5. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS. All intellectual proprietary and ownership rights, including any copyrights, patents, service marks, trademarks, trade names or trade secrets in the Licensed Software and any enhancements or modifications thereto, belong either to Ameriprise Financial or its licensors. This Agreement is not a sale of a copy of the Licensed Software, and ownership of the Licensed Software and all components and copies thereof shall, at all times, remain with Ameriprise Financial and/or its licensors, regardless of who may be deemed the owner of the tangible media in or on which the Licensed Software may be provided to you or is copied, encoded or otherwise fixed.
6. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. IN NO EVENT WILL AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL BE LIABLE TO YOU, YOUR PRACTICE OR TO ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY FOR ANY CORRUPTED OR LOST DATA, LOST PROFITS, LOST SAVING OR OTHER SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY PRODUCT OR SERVICE FURNISHED OR TO BE FURNISHED BY AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.
7. WARRANTY DISCLAIMER. THE LICENSED SOFTWARE IS FURNISHED BY AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL AND ACCEPTED BY YOU "AS IS", WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY WHATSOEVER, EXCEPT FOR SUCH WARRANTIES, IF ANY, THAT YOU MAY RECEIVE BY OPERATION OF LAW FROM A THIRD-PARTY LICENSOR OR VENDOR. ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTIES OF FITNESS FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, MERCHANTABILITY OR TITLE ARE SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMED AND EXCLUDED BY AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL. AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE LICENSED SOFTWARE IS FIT FOR ANY PARTICULAR PURPOSE, THAT THE OPERATION OF THE LICENSED SOFTWARE WILL BE ERROR FREE OR UNINTERRUPTED OR THAT THE LICENSED SOFTWARE WILL MEET YOUR REQUIREMENTS. AS BETWEEN YOU AND AMERIPRISE FINANCIAL, THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE LICENSED SOFTWARE IS WITH YOU.
8. TERMINATION. The license granted under this Agreement will terminate automatically and immediately, without notice from Ameriprise Financial, in the event that: (i) you violate any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement; or (ii) your association with Ameriprise Financial is terminated. Without limiting any of the provisions above, Ameriprise Financial shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and license(s) granted herein in the event you, your practice or its officers or employees violate any provision of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, confidentiality and payment. In the event of termination of this Agreement, you will, within fifteen (15) calendar days, either return all copies of the Licensed Software to Ameriprise Financial or remove the same from your hard drive following the procedure outlined in the Compliance Manual Policy 2.9 and certify to Ameriprise Financial in writing that all copies not returned to Ameriprise Financial have been irretrievably destroyed. Termination under this paragraph shall not relieve you of your obligations of confidentiality regarding the Licensed Software or any payments due. Returned copies shall be delivered to:

   Advisor Technology Solutions
   646 Ameriprise Financial Center
   Minneapolis, Minnesota 55474

   In addition, upon termination of this Agreement, you agree to, within fifteen (15) calendar days, uninstall all Licensed Software provided to you under this Agreement.
9. CHOICE OF LAW. This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by, interpreted, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the United States of America and the State of Minnesota. Any action between Ameriprise Financial and you will be venued in a federal or state court situated within the State of Minnesota, and you hereby irrevocably agree to submit yourself to the personal jurisdiction of such courts for such purpose.

10. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement and understanding between Ameriprise Financial and you regarding the subject matter hereof, and supersedes any prior representations, advertisements, statements, proposals, negotiations, discussions, understandings or agreement regarding the subject matter. This Agreement may not be modified or amended except in writing signed by the party against whom the same is sought to be enforced.
11. SEVERABILITY. Every provision of this Agreement shall be construed, to the extent possible, so as to be valid and enforceable. If any provision of this Agreement so construed is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severed from this Agreement, and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.
12. REMEDIES. In the event you breach this Agreement, you agree that Ameriprise Financial, in addition to any other damages, remedies or rights available in equity or at law, shall be entitled to: (i) injunctive relief enjoining and restraining any such breach by you; and (ii) recover from you all costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by Ameriprise Financial as a consequence of any such breach.
13. WAIVER. The failure by either party hereto to enforce any of the provisions of this Agreement or any right or remedy available hereunder or at law or in equity, or to exercise any option herein provided, shall not constitute a waiver of such provision, right, remedy or option or in any way affect the validity of this Agreement. The waiver of any default by either party shall not be deemed a continuing waiver, but shall apply solely to the instance to which such waiver is directed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement on the date first above written.

Trail GDC (Client Service)

GDC Rates

Engagement Period (Contract Term)	TOS GDC Rate	Trail GDC Rate
AFPS	100%	N/A

Hypothetical Example Assumptions:

- Advisor sells an AFPS plan for $1,500
- Product GDC Rate: 100%
- Advisor Payout Rate: 85%

Calculating TOS GDC and Commission
Step 1:	(Client Fee) x (Product GDC Rate) = TOS GDC % $1,500 x 100% = $1,500 TOS GDC
Step 2:	TOS GDC x Advisor Payout Rate = GDC Commissions $1,500 x 85% = $1,275 GDC Commissions

2. Advisory Solutions (Managed Accounts)

Eligible for Sale/Compensation

- Compensation is paid with applicable licensure and fulfilled requirements

GDC Overview:

TOS GDC (New Business)

- Total Advisory Fee Rate + Manager Fee (if applicable) + Platform Fee + AFS Fee (if applicable)

$1,500,000+	0.11%	0.10%	0.09%	0.08%	0.075%	0.07%	0.065%	0.06%

Hypothetical Example Assumptions:

- Advisory Fee: $202.02
- Administration Fee: $44.95
- GDC Rate: 100% less the Administration Fee

Hypothetical Example Assumptions:

- Client buys a stock with a client commission of $100
- Product GDC Rate: 100%
- Advisor Payout Rate: 85%

Calculating TOS GDC and Commission
Step 1:	(Client Commission) X (Product GDC Rate) = TOS GDC ($100) x 100% = $100.00 TOS GDC $202.02 - $44.95 = $157.07 TOS GDC (Net Wrap Fee)
Step 2:	TOS GDC x Advisor Payout Rate = GDC Commissions $100.00 x 85% = $85.00 GDC Commissions

EXHIBIT M

LOAN AND SECURITY AGREEMENT

This Loan and Security Agreement (the "Agreement") is made as of [Date], by [Name of Advisor], an individual with primary place of business at [Advisor's Office Address] (the "Borrower" or "Independent Advisor"), and Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company headquartered at 707 2nd Avenue South, 55 Ameriprise Financial Center, Minneapolis, MN 55474 (the "Lender" or "Ameriprise").

WHEREAS, Borrower requires funds in the amount of $[Amount of Loan] (the "Original Principal Amount") for [ongoing capital and liquidity needs][1] arising from the operation of Borrower's Independent Financial Advisor Business (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) (the "Business Need");

WHEREAS, Borrower is a registered representative and independent franchisee advisor of the Lender, as further set forth and defined in the governing Independent Advisor Business Franchise Agreement, between Lender and Borrower (the "Franchise Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, Lender desires to lend and Borrower desires to borrow funds needed to finance the Business Need; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of their mutual covenants herein contained, Borrower and Lender, the parties hereto to this Agreement, intending to be legally bound, hereby mutually covenant and agree as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS. All capitalized terms used in this Agreement that are not defined herein have the same meaning used in the Franchise Agreement.

2. LOAN.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and in reliance upon the Borrower's representations and warranties, Lender hereby agrees to make the Loan to Borrower on or about [Date], 202x in the principal amount of $[XXX] (the "Loan"). The Loan will be funded by Lender upon satisfaction of the conditions described in Section 7 of this Agreement.

(b) The Loan shall have a repayment term of [ten (10) years] (the "Repayment Term"). Except as otherwise agreed to in writing by the parties hereto, Loan payments will be paid on or prior to the last day of each month beginning in [Month after Loan is made] 202x, provided that if the last day of a month is not a business day, the Loan payment may be paid on the next succeeding business day in accordance with Section 3(a). From the date hereof through the date that is five years following the date the initial payment is due (the "Initial Rate Period"), the Loan shall have a fixed rate of interest of [X]% percent of the unpaid principal balance (the "Initial Rate") and Loan Payments will be made in equal monthly installments of $[XXX]. Thereafter, the Loan shall have a fixed rate of interest equal to the lower of (x) the Initial Rate or (y) 5-Year Treasury (as defined below) as of the last business day of the month prior to the end of the Initial Rate Period plus [2.0% for internal acq. or 1.0% for external acq.] (the "Recalculated Rate"). The term "5-Year Treasury" shall mean the 5 Year Daily Treasure Par Yield Curve CMT Rate reported on https://home.treasury.gov. If https://home.treasury.gov ceases to report the 5 Year Daily Treasury Par Yield Curve CMT Rate, 5-Year Treasury will be a comparable interest rate designated by the Lender to replace 5-Year Treasury.. Lender will notify Borrower of the Recalculated Rate and revised Loan payment amounts. Borrower will become obligated to repay the Loan pursuant to the terms of this Agreement upon Lender's delivery of the proceeds of the Loan to Borrower.

[1] Where loan is for an acquisition a number of different changes will be made – including changing Business Need references to Acquired Practice in Section 4. This definition can be more narrowly tailored if desired.

(c) Borrower agrees that Lender shall have the right to set off any amounts owed by Borrower pursuant to this Agreement against any future compensation payable to Borrower by Lender.

3. PAYMENT TERMS.

(a) Principal and Accrued Interest. Borrower shall repay the principal balance of the Loan and the accrued interest thereon to Lender in accordance with Section 2 above. All payments in respect of the principal amount of the Loan shall include payment of accrued interest on the principal amount being repaid or prepaid, and all such payments shall be applied to the payment of interest before application to principal. Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due on a day that is not a business day, such payment shall be made on the next succeeding business day and such extension of time will be included in the computation of the payment of interest hereunder. All payments by Borrower will be made in same day funds, without defense, setoff or counterclaim, free of any restriction or condition.

(b) Promissory Note. Borrower will execute and deliver to Lender a promissory note ("Note") substantially in the form of Schedule A hereto in order to evidence the Loan.

(c) Pre-payment. Borrower may prepay the Loan in whole or part at any time, subject to Section 10. If Borrower prepays the Loan in whole prior to the third anniversary of the date of this Agreement, Borrower will make an additional make-whole payment equal to 2% of the Original Principal Amount. For any partial prepayment, Lender shall apply any excess amounts to the outstanding principal balance after application to the current monthly payment amount(s) due. Borrower shall continue to make in full, regularly scheduled monthly payments following any partial prepayment until all Borrower's obligations under this Agreement are fully paid. If Borrower prepays the Loan in full prior to [Last day of the final month of repayment], all provisions of this Agreement will remain in place until [Last day of the final month of repayment], excepting those provisions which by their terms survive until the end of the Restricted Period (including without limitation provisions relating to Liquidated Damages as defined in Section 10(c) below).

(d) Obligations After Repayment. Borrower agrees that Liquidated Damages will be payable pursuant to Section 10(c) hereof in the event that Borrower terminates Borrower's Franchise Agreement or ceases to be a registered representative of Lender at any time during the Restricted Period.

4. GRANT OF SECURITY INTEREST. For the purpose of securing repayment of the Loan, Borrower hereby assigns and grants to Lender a security interest in the following together with any and all proceeds therefrom:

(a) All of (i) the intangible and tangible assets of Borrower's Independent Financial Advisor Business (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) and/or of any direct or indirect interest in the Franchise Agreement (including, without limitation, client lists, accounts receivable, client accounts, goodwill, books and records and equity) associated with Borrower's Independent Financial Advisor Business (both existing and any new business Borrower acquires or gains with Loan proceeds, the "Business") and (ii) Borrower's right, title, and interest in any sums received or to be received whether now owing or hereafter arising from any future employer or other party which provides Borrower with any form of compensation or contingent compensation commonly referred to as a forgivable loan, loan, bonus, up-front loan, transitional compensation, transitional loan, recruiting bonus, promissory note amount, or account (as defined in Article 9 of the applicable Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") or any other sum or payment of every nature, type or description granted or provided to Borrower or for Borrower's benefit as a result of accepting employment or other arrangement with such employer or party. The assets described in Sections 4 are referred to collectively herein as the "Collateral"; and

(b) Borrower agrees to execute one or more financing statements in a form satisfactory to Lender at the request of Lender, including, but not limited to, control agreements as defined in the UCC in such form and containing such terms and conditions as Lender shall require. Without Lender's written consent, Borrower will not allow any financing statement covering the Collateral, or the proceeds thereof to be on file in any public office. Borrower also authorizes Lender (i) to file all documents, including, without limitation, a UCC financing statement, in such offices or with such parties as Lender deems necessary or appropriate to perfect such security interest, and (ii) to notify such employer or other party of the assignment and security interest granted herein and to require that such employer or other party pay all amounts subject to the assignment and security interest described herein directly to Ameriprise whether or not is in default under the terms of this Agreement. Borrower also agrees to perform any further acts and to sign and deliver to Lender any additional assurances and instruments that Lender may require to more completely vest in and assure to Lender its rights under this Agreement.

5. BORROWER'S REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. In order to induce Lender to enter into this Agreement and to make the Loan, Borrower represents and warrants to Lender, as follows:

(a) Borrower has all requisite power and authority to own and operate Borrower's properties, to carry on Borrower's business as now conducted, to enter into this Agreement and to carry out the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

(b) The execution, delivery and performance by Borrower of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby do not and will not (i) violate any provision of any law or any governmental rule or regulation applicable to Borrower or any order, judgment or decree of any court or other governmental authority binding on Borrower, (ii) conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under any other contractual obligation of Borrower, (iii) result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien upon any of the properties or assets of Borrower (other than any liens created in favor of Lender under this Agreement).

(c) Borrower has good and marketable title to the Collateral. Except as permitted by this Agreement, the Collateral is free and clear of liens.

(d) Subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement, Borrower has the authority to pledge the Collateral pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and Borrower's title to the Collateral is free and clear of any adverse claims, liens, security interests, or encumbrances. Borrower will continue to own the Collateral pledged under this Agreement at all times during the course of this Agreement.

(e) There are no Proceedings (at law or in equity, or before or by any court or other governmental authority) that are pending or, to the knowledge of Borrower, threatened against or affecting Borrower. Borrower is not in violation of any laws applicable to the Business or the Franchise Agreement.

(f) All federal and all other material tax returns and reports of Borrower required to be filed have been timely filed, and all taxes shown on such tax returns to be due and payable and all material assessments, fees and other governmental charges upon Borrower and Borrower's properties, assets, income, businesses and franchises that are due and payable have been paid when due and payable.

(g) No part of the proceeds of the Loan will be used for the purpose, directly or indirectly, of buying or carrying any margin stock (within the meaning of Regulation T, U or X).

SAMPLE

(h) No representation or warranty of Borrower contained in this Agreement, or in any other document, certificate or written statement furnished to Lender (including any materials about the Business Need) by or on behalf of Borrower for use in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained herein or therein not misleading in light of the circumstances in which the same were made.

6. BORROWER'S COVENANTS. Borrower covenants and agrees that, during the Repayment Term or as specifically noted below, unless Lender shall otherwise give consent, Borrower shall perform the following covenants:

(a) Performance. In the event any amounts due and payable under this Agreement are more than thirty (30) days past due, Borrower consents to Lender reserving the right to set off and deduct from Borrower's advisor compensation (including deferred compensation) any such amounts and to thereafter continue deducting any subsequent payments against advisor compensation (including deferred compensation), whether current or in arrears.

(b) Compliance Requirements. Borrower shall comply in all material respects with laws applicable to Borrower, the Franchise Agreement and all Lender's policies and procedures applicable to Borrower, including but not limited to the Lender's Global Code of Conduct. In the event Borrower receives written or oral notice from Lender that Borrower is not in compliance with the requirements of the preceding sentence, then Borrower shall use Borrower's immediate and best efforts to cure such compliance violation and, in the event Borrower has not received a written statement from Lender within thirty (30) days of knowledge or notice to the effect that Lender is satisfied with the Borrower's cure of the violation, it shall be a default as described immediately below and Lender shall have the right to enforce any remedy described herein.

(c) Franchise Agreement. Borrower agrees to remain affiliated as a registered representative of Lender and agrees to not terminate the Franchise Agreement for a period of three (3) years from the date hereof.

(d) Documentation. Lender is making the Loan under this Agreement and the Note based on the documents and information submitted during the application process. Borrower must present Lender with final copies of all requested documents, including any documents related to the Business Need promptly upon request, and notify Lender of any subsequent changes to such documents.

(e) Use of Proceeds. Borrower shall use the proceeds of the Loan solely to fund the Business Need. No portion of the Loan shall be used by Borrower in any manner that might cause the borrowing or the application of such proceeds to violate Regulation U, Regulation T or Regulation X of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or any other regulation of such Board or to violate the Exchange Act, in each case as in effect on the date or dates of the Loan.

(f) Adverse Liens. Subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement, Borrower will keep the Collateral free from any adverse lien, security interest, or encumbrance and will not sell, offer to sell, transfer, waste or destroy the Collateral or any part of them. Borrower will not use or permit anyone to use the Collateral in violation of any statute, ordinance, or state or federal regulation or in violation of the Franchise Agreement. Lender may examine and inspect the Collateral at any time, wherever located.

(g) Transfer of Interest. Borrower shall not Transfer (as defined in the Franchise Agreement) any interests in the Independent Financial Advisor Business exceeding [5.00%] (in the aggregate across multiple Transfers) of the total gross dealer concessions generated by Borrower during the 26 service periods immediately preceding the Transfer without the express prior written consent of Lender.

(h) Taxes and Assessments. During the Repayment Term, Borrower will promptly pay, when due, all taxes and assessments upon the Collateral or for its use or operation, or upon this Agreement or the Note.

(i) Asset Sales. Except as specifically addressed in Section 6(g) of this Agreement, Borrower shall not convey, sell, lease or sub-lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, in one transaction or a series of transactions, any property or asset of the Business (including client accounts or rights therein) whether now owned or hereafter acquired, without express written consent from Lender.

(j) Confidentiality. At all times from and after the date of this Agreement, Borrower will keep in strict confidence the terms and existence of this Agreement, including without limitation (a) any and all details related to the discussions or negotiations between Borrower and Lender in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (b) any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Subject to the following sentence, Borrower understands Borrower may not disclose confidential information to any person without the express written consent of an officer of Lender, even if such person is one of Borrower's employees, independent contractors, agents, consultants or external advisors (collectively, "Representatives"); provided, however, that if disclosure is allowed Borrower shall make Borrower's Representatives aware of the confidential nature of the information and shall be responsible for any breach of the confidentiality obligations set forth in this Section 6(i) by its Representatives; provided further for the avoidance of doubt, that Borrower will not share such information with any other financial advisor of Ameriprise or any employees or independent contractors of such financial advisors. In addition, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit either party from disclosing such information in connection with an order, decree, subpoena or other validly issued judicial, regulatory or administrative request. Each party agrees that to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, such party will be entitled to seek injunctive relief from a court or FINRA arbitration should the other party violate this confidentiality provision. Borrower recognizes that Lender's remedies solely at law may be inadequate and difficult and inconvenient to quantify.

7. CONDITIONS TO FUNDING OF LOAN. This Agreement will become effective, and funding of the Loan will occur, subject to prior or concurrent satisfaction of the conditions that Borrower will deliver to Lender executed original copies of this Agreement upon Borrower's request.

8. LENDER'S RIGHT TO PAY TAXES. At its option, Lender may discharge taxes, liens or security interests, or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed on the Collateral, may pay for insurance on the Collateral, and may pay for the maintenance and preservation of the Collateral. No such payments shall relieve Borrower's obligations to make payments or perform maintenance, nor shall they constitute a waiver of any default hereunder.

9. DEFAULT. If one or more of the following events ("Events of Default") occurs:

(a) Borrower fails to make a regular monthly payment or fails to pay any fee or other amount due as and when due;

(b) Borrower fails to observe or perform any covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement;

(c) any representation, warranty, certification or statement made by Borrower in this Agreement or in any certificate, financial statement or other document delivered pursuant to this Agreement, including but not limited to those supplied during the application process, was incorrect in any material respect when made or deemed made;

(d) the death or disability of Borrower;

(e) the dissolution, insolvency, business failure, appointment of a receiver of any part of the property of, assignment for the benefit of creditors by, or the commencement of any proceeding under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws by or against Borrower, and any such event described in this clause (e) shall continue for sixty (60) days unless dismissed, bonded or discharged;

(f) the termination of Borrower as an independent advisor of Lender, whether initiated by Borrower or Lender, for whatever reason; or

(g) Borrower's failure to make any payment when due, or any other default or breach by Borrower of any material term, covenant, warranty or undertaking, in each case, under or with respect to the Note, the Franchise Agreement, or any other agreement to which the Borrower and Lender (or an affiliate of Lender) are parties.

THEN, Borrower will be considered in default of this Agreement and Lender shall be entitled to exercise any or all of the remedies as set forth in Section 10 of this Agreement, as well as any remedies available under the Franchise Agreement or at law or in equity.

10. REMEDIES UPON EVENT OF DEFAULT.

(a) In addition to any other remedies set forth in this Agreement or available to Lender under the Franchise Agreement or through equity or law, in the case of any of the Events of Default specified above, Lender may by notice in writing to the Borrower declare all of Borrower's outstanding principal (together with accrued interest thereon) under the Loan to be due and payable within two (2) days of the notice without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by Borrower.

(b) In the case of an Event of Default arising under Section 9(f) where such termination involves any type of affiliation or registration with any competitor, broker-dealer or investment advisor during the Restricted Period, or under Section 9(b) by reason of Borrower's violation of Section 6(c) or Section 11, or under Section 3(d) where such termination involves any type of affiliation or registration with any competitor, broker-dealer or investment advisor during the Restricted Period, in addition to any other remedies set forth in this Agreement or available to Lender under the Franchise Agreement, at law or in equity, and as allowable by law, the interest rate effective for the period prior to the default shall convert to a rate equal to the Initial Rate plus 5% per annum (the "Default Interest Rate"), and all payments previously made hereunder shall be recalculated using the Default Interest Rate (this recalculation may result in a change to the outstanding principal and interest, provided however that this recalculation shall never result in a decrease in payments due). In the case of any Event of Default, the interest rate effective for the period beginning the date of the Event of Default shall convert to the Default Interest Rate. Any amounts due under this Section 10(b) (the "Default Interest") are contemplated by the parties to account for the reduction in value of the Loan as an asset held by Ameriprise and fall within the range of actual damages that the parties could have anticipated would flow from such a default, and the parties acknowledge that such an increase in the interest rate is a common method of recouping the type of loss incurred by a lender upon a borrower's default.

(c) (i) In the case of an Event of Default arising under Section 9(f) where such termination involves any type of affiliation or registration with any competitor, broker-dealer or investment advisor during the Restricted Period, or under Section 9(b) by reason of Borrower's violation of Section 6(c) or Section 11, or under Section 3(d) where such termination involves any type of affiliation or registration with any competitor, broker-dealer or investment advisor during the Restricted Period, in addition to any other remedies set forth in this Agreement or available to Lender under the Franchise Agreement, at law or in equity, and as allowable by law, Borrower shall pay to Lender liquidated damages without any offset or reduction for interest already paid ("Liquidated Damages"), calculated as a percentage of the Original Principal Amount based on when the Event of Default occurs, as follows:

Date of Event of Default	Percentage of Original Principal Amount to be paid as Liquidated Damages
0-36 months after the date hereof	55%
37-60 months after the date hereof	45%
61-84 months after the date hereof	35%
85-120 months after the date hereof	25%
121+ months after the date hereof	0%

(i) Such Liquidated Damages shall be in addition to any Default Interest.

(ii) Borrower acknowledges that:

(A) Ameriprise is making these funds available to Independent Advisor for and in reliance on Independent Advisor's stated intention to stay at Ameriprise and grow Independent Advisor's practice at Ameriprise;

(B) The Loan inures to the benefit of Independent Advisor by providing liquidity and access to funds on terms that are overall more favorable than Investment Advisor was able to find from any other source;

(C) If Independent Advisor should terminate Independent Advisor's relationship with Ameriprise before the end of the Restricted Period, such termination would cause Ameriprise irreparable harm and result in damages in addition to the financial harm suffered by Ameriprise in connection with such termination due to the unique investments and efforts Ameriprise has made to grow the Independent Advisor's practice;

(D) Independent Advisor further acknowledges that this Agreement is the most recent example of the unique benefits and support Ameriprise has provided to grow Independent Advisor's practice during the term of the Franchise Agreement at the cost of significant risk and potential adverse and negative impacts to Ameriprise.

(iii)[2] Borrower further acknowledges Ameriprise has incurred significant additional risk by consenting to Borrower's acquisition of all or part of another Ameriprise practice and providing the Loan as funding for such acquisition, due to the inherent risks of consolidating multiple practices under a single franchise operator, including but not limited to the death, disability, regulatory suspension or bar, negative public activities or other work-related or non-work-related misconduct, or departure of the franchise operator. In addition, by consenting to the aforementioned internal practice acquisition and consolidating multiple practices under a single franchise operator, Ameriprise incurred the risk of lost income due to the progressive structure of Ameriprise's compensation and fee schedules. Ameriprise conditioned its consent to the aforementioned internal practice acquisition based in part on Ameriprise's reasonable expectations that the risks and loss of compensation identified above would be offset in part by additional compensation Ameriprise would receive as Borrower grows Borrower's Independent Financial Advisor Business over an extended period through both organic growth and external franchise practice acquisitions and implements improved practice management techniques.

(d) In the case of an Event of Default, to the extent permitted by law, Borrower authorizes Lender to place pend status on, restrict transfers, hold as security, or subject to a lien any property, securities, or funds in which Borrower has a direct or indirect interest that are held in any brokerage, deposit, or other account at Lender or its affiliates, including but not limited to any cash management account (other than deferred compensation as defined in Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and any related regulations and guidance, as the same may be amended from time to time) (collectively, the "Accounts"). If Borrower's repayment obligations are not satisfied in full when due, Lender shall be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to liquidate any of Borrower's Accounts and use the proceeds to set off any amounts owed. This right to set off and the right in Section 12(f) are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law or otherwise.

(e) If Borrower fails to make a regular monthly payment when due, Borrower shall pay to Lender an additional late payment fee equal to 2% of the regular monthly payment amount.

11. NON-COMPETITION COVENANTS. In recognition of and in consideration for the Loan Agreement, Borrower covenants that during the Restricted Period (as defined below):

(a) Borrower shall not, either directly or indirectly, for Borrower's self, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person or entity:

(i) establish, engage or operate a business competing with Lender or its affiliates within a 100 mile radius of the current location of Borrower's franchise advisor business;

(ii) encourage, induce, or attempt to encourage or induce any client that Borrower contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under the Franchise Agreement to terminate an agreement with Lender, Lender's affiliates, Issuers, or any other financial advisor of Lender;

(iii) encourage, induce, or attempt to encourage or induce any client that Borrower contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under the Franchise Agreement, to terminate, surrender, redeem, or cancel any action related to products or services acquired or ordered from or through Lender, Lender's affiliates, Issuers, or any other financial advisor of Lender, except as provided in Lender's compliance manuals or with Lender's written approval and consent;

(iv) solicit any clients that Borrower contacted, serviced or learned about while operating under the Franchise Agreement for the purpose of the client opening an account other than a Lender account, purchasing investment, financial, or insurance products or services, purchasing any product or service, the type of which is offered by Lender, or purchasing any investment, financial or insurance products or services other than through Lender; or

(v) encourage, induce, or attempt to encourage or induce or otherwise solicit any person who is at that time employed, associated or affiliated with Lender or its affiliates as an employee, independent contractor or agent to terminate their employment, association or other affiliation with Lender or its affiliates.

[2] Include Section 10(c)(iii) only if the loan is being used to fund an internal acquisition.

(b) Borrower will not disparage, during the term of the Franchise Agreement or thereafter, Lender, its affiliates, employees, advisors, or the products and services offered by Lender and its affiliates. For purposes of this Section, an "Issuer" is a company or entity that issues products or services distributed or offered by Lender, Lender's affiliates, or Lender as the agent of another company.

(c) Borrower agrees that to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Lender will be entitled to injunctive relief from a court or FINRA arbitration should Borrower violate any of the covenants in this Agreement. Borrower recognizes that Lender's remedies solely at law will be inadequate, that Lender will be irreparably harmed by violations of the provisions in this Agreement, and thus that Lender will be entitled to injunctive relief to prevent future violations of the provisions in this Agreement until a full and final resolution of any dispute may be had on the merits. Lender has the right to seek such injunctive relief in a court of competent jurisdiction, which relief shall extend until, and if, a decision on the merits of the same issue is rendered by a FINRA arbitration panel. Such election by Lender to seek judicial relief shall not waive any rights Lender may have to arbitrate disputes arising under this Agreement, including rights to obtain damages from Borrower in arbitration for violations of this Agreement.

(d) In addition to any other remedies set forth in this Agreement or available to Lender under the Franchise Agreement or through equity or law, Borrower shall pay Liquidated Damages to Lender pursuant to Section 10(c) if Borrower joins a competing broker dealer as an employee, consultant, or independent contractor, or in any capacity substantially similar to Borrower's current role with Lender in violation of Section 11(a).

The "Restricted Period" shall mean the Repayment Term plus two (2) years, regardless of any prepayment of the Loan. If any existing or future law renders the duration of the Restricted Period impermissible for any reason, Borrower and Lender agree that the Restricted Period shall be reduced in length to the maximum duration allowable by law.

12. MISCELLANEOUS.

(a) Amendment and Waiver. Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived if, but only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and is signed by the Lender.

(b) No Waivers. No failure or delay by the Lender in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any Note shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

(c) Notices. Any demand upon or notice to Borrower that Lender may give shall be effective when addressed and mailed to Borrower's address shown at the beginning of this Agreement or such other address that Borrower may notify Lender of in writing.

(d) Expenses. Borrower agrees to pay Lender all costs incurred in the enforcement of this Agreement, whether or not an action is brought. The costs shall include, but are not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees for collection efforts before commencing any legal proceeding, in arbitration, at trial, and on appeal. If a suit or action is filed, or if arbitration is commenced, the amount of such reasonable attorney's fees shall be fixed by the arbitrator or court(s) in which the matter is tried, heard, or decided, including any petition or appeal thereon.

(e) Indemnification. Borrower shall indemnify the Lender against any transfer taxes, documentary taxes, assessments or charges made by any governmental authority by reason of the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Note. In consideration of the provisions of this Agreement, Borrower further agrees to waive any and all rights under laws of any jurisdiction in the United States or any other country that limits a release to claims against Lender, known, or suspected to exist in Borrower's favor as of the date of execution of this Agreement.

The authority herein granted to enter the award shall not be exhausted by any exercise thereof, but shall continue from time to time and at all times until full payment of all said amounts. In the case of an Event of Default, Borrower grants to Lender a limited power of attorney to act on Borrower's behalf to make a legally enforceable request to any subsequent employer, associated firm, broker-dealer or registered investment advisor who may provide to Borrower a subsequent bonus or loan for payment of such bonus or loan in full or in part to Lender in amounts sufficient to satisfy any outstanding Loan amounts (including application of the applicable Default Interest Rate or payment of Liquidated Damages). (l) Severability. If any portion of this Agreement is prohibited or held to be unenforceable, then only that portion is void and not the entire Agreement.

(m) Conflicts. If any term in this Agreement should conflict with any term in the Franchise Agreement between Borrower and Lender, then the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall prevail unless specifically stated otherwise herein.

(n) Entire Agreement. Subject to the Franchise Agreement, this Agreement embodies the entire Agreement between Lender and Borrower and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings relating to the Loan.

(o) Supremacy Clause. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and any other agreement between Borrower and Lender, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

13. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT. This Agreement shall terminate immediately, except for those terms which by their nature are intended to survive, on [Last day of the final month of repayment] provided Borrower has made full payment of the Loan together with any interest and other costs and fees provided for in this Agreement or the Note.

1. Organization, Basis of Presentation, and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

Ameriprise Financial Services, LLC (the Company) is a wholly owned subsidiary of AMPF Holding, LLC. AMPF Holding, LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of Ameriprise Financial, Inc. (the Parent). The Company was previously known as Ameriprise Financial Services, Inc., but was converted to a limited liability company effective January 2020. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the various states in which the Company conducts business as an introducing broker-dealer and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). In addition, the Company is a registered investment adviser with the SEC pursuant to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Company is registered as a Commodity Trading Advisor (CTA) with the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) and is a member of, and the corresponding services function is regulated by, the National Futures Association (NFA). The Company is required to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the SEC, FINRA, CFTC, NFA and SIPC.

The Company clears most transactions with an affiliate, American Enterprise Investment Services, Inc. (AEIS), which under a clearing agreement charges the Company clearing fees on a per trade basis or based on assets under management. AEIS is primarily dependent on the Company for the introduction of clients and gathering of client assets which generates AEIS's revenues. As a result, the Company charges a distribution access fee based on a fixed contractual amount to provide AEIS with ongoing access to the Company's financial advisors, client servicing and product distribution efforts.

The Company offers financial planning and investment advisory services to retail clients for which it charges a fee through an advisor-based distribution channel. These services are designed to provide comprehensive advice, when appropriate, to address clients' cash and liquidity, asset accumulation, income, protection, and estate and wealth transfer needs. To complete their advice services, the Company's financial advisors provide clients with recommendations from more than one hundred products distributed by subsidiaries and affiliates of the Parent, as well as products of approved third parties.

The financial advisors are either non-employee independent contractors operating through a nationwide franchise system, or they may choose to be employees of the Company. Due to differing levels of support provided to advisors operating in these various platforms, advisors are compensated at different percentages of the gross dealer concessions allowed for the various product offerings.

To complement its advisor-based channel, the Company also offers an integrated direct retail distribution channel. Direct distribution services are provided through the Company's online brokerage offering, which allows clients to purchase and sell securities online, obtain research and information about a wide variety of securities, use asset allocation and financial planning tools, contact advisors, as well as access a wide range of proprietary and non-proprietary mutual funds.

The Company's operations constitute a single operating segment and therefore a single reportable segment, because the chief operating decision maker ("CODM") manages the business activities using information of the Company as a whole. As its CODM, the Company's President utilizes the Statements of Operations and its net income metric to allocate resources and assess performance of the Company. The accounting policies used to measure the profit and loss of the segment are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis of Presentation

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses. These accounting estimates reflect the best judgment of management and actual amounts could differ significantly from those estimates.

Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition: Refer to Note 3 for discussion of accounting policies on revenue from contracts with customers.

Investment Income, Net: Primarily includes interest income from cash and cash equivalents, the changes in fair value of trading securities, and realized gains and losses on the sale of securities. Interest income is accrued as earned using the effective interest method, which makes an adjustment to the yield for security premiums and discounts on all performing fixed maturity securities.

Commissions: Commission amounts paid to financial advisors are based on fees earned on client accounts, production bonuses, and advisors deferred compensation plan expense, which are recognized as incurred. The liabilities associated with commission and production bonus expenses are included in the field force compensation line in the statements of financial condition.

Service fees charged by Parent and affiliates: Service fees charged by Parent and affiliates are recognized when incurred and are described in the related party transactions. See Note 12.

Compensation and benefits: Compensation and benefits represent compensation-related expenses paid to employees. The Company has deferred compensation plans which allow certain employees and financial advisors to defer a portion of their compensation and commissions. Participants can choose various distribution options. Certain plan liabilities are settled with the Parent monthly. For remaining plans, the liability is included in field force compensation and in salaries and employee benefits in the statement of financial condition. See Note 12.

Share-based compensation: The Company also participates in the Parent's Incentive Compensation Plan (Incentive Plan) and the Parent's Deferred Equity Program for Independent Financial Advisors (Deferred Equity Program). Employees, directors, and independent contractors are eligible to receive incentive awards including stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock units, performance shares, and similar awards designed to comply with the applicable federal regulations and laws of various jurisdictions. These expenses are included in the compensation and benefits line in the statements of operations.

Sales training, promotion, travel, and other: Fees paid to outside vendors, such as for data processing, account management, licensing, travel, and printing, are generally expensed when incurred. Advertising costs are also included in this line. The Company's policy is to expense advertising production costs at the time the first advertising takes place. The deferral of advertising costs until the first time the advertising takes place is allowed as long as there is the assumption that the advertising will take place. If advertising is no longer expected to occur, the advertising cost is expensed immediately. Advertising costs amounted to $19,411, $18,972, and $17,462 for 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively, and are reflected in the sales training, promotion, travel, and other line of the statements of operations.

Clearing charges to affiliate: Clearing costs represent fees paid to AEIS for clearing transactions either on a per trade basis or on assets under management. These charges are based on underlying contracts and are recorded as incurred.

Occupancy: Occupancy primarily consists of rental expenses for office leases as well as property, equipment, and other facility expenses. Rental expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the contract. See Note 9.

Income taxes: In January 2020, the Company converted to a limited liability company and became a disregarded entity for the 2020 tax year. The Company is included in the consolidated tax returns filed by the Parent. However, as a limited liability company that is not subject to tax and considered a disregarded entity for tax purposes, the Company and the Parent have elected to not allocate the consolidated amount of current and deferred tax expenses to the Company. See Note 11.

Cash and cash equivalents: The Company has defined cash and cash equivalents to include money market funds, commercial paper, time deposits, and other highly liquid investments with original or remaining maturities at the time of purchase of 90 days or less. The Company has evaluated the cash equivalents for credit risk and has determined it is negligible due to the short-term nature of the investment.

Cash segregated under federal and other regulations: Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 Section (k)(2)(i), cash received that is not related to the securities business, is deposited into segregated bank accounts maintained solely for the benefit of customers until forwarded to affiliates. Cash received that is related to the securities business, is deposited directly into accounts maintained by its affiliate, AEIS.

Allowance for credit losses: The Company measures credit losses using the current expected credit loss (CECL) method, when applicable. The Company recognizes an allowance for credit losses for financial assets carried at amortized cost to present the net amount expected to be collected. The allowance is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset and is adjusted each period for changes in expected lifetime credit losses.

Receivables from Financial Advisors and employees: Financial advisors are required to pay for certain support services provided by the Company. The Company reserves outstanding receivables from financial advisors that it does not believe are recoverable. The Company also provides loans to advisors for transitional cost assistance and practice operations and determines its allowance based on historical collection experience. The Company sells these loans issued to advisors to an affiliate. See Note 12 for further details. The allowance for credit losses on advisor loans and financial advisors and employee receivables is recorded within compensation and benefits in the statements of operations.

Receivables from Distribution fees and other receivables: The Company reserves fees receivable related to marketing support arrangements for sales of mutual funds of other companies based upon management's judgment as to the collectability of these receivables based on historical collection experience. The allowance is recorded in Commissions in the statements of operation.

Other: The Company also reserves for unsecured client activity funded by its affiliate, AEIS. The Company has agreed to indemnify AEIS for any losses that it may sustain from the customer accounts introduced by the Company. The Company reserves for these potential losses. The allowance is recorded in Clearing charges from affiliate in the statements of operations.

Goodwill and intangible assets: Goodwill represents the amount of an acquired company's acquisition cost in excess of the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The Company evaluates goodwill for impairment annually on the measurement date of July 1 and whenever events and circumstances indicate that an impairment may have occurred, such as a significant adverse change in the business climate or a decision to sell or dispose of a reporting unit. Impairment is the amount that the carrying value exceeds fair value and is evaluated at the reporting unit level. The Company assesses various qualitative factors to determine whether impairment is likely to have occurred. If impairment were to occur, the Company would use the discounted cash flow method, a variation of the income approach.

Intangible assets generally represent customer and independent contractor relationships and non-compete agreements. Intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives unless they are deemed to have indefinite useful lives. The Company evaluates the definite lived intangible assets remaining useful lives annually and tests for impairment whenever events and circumstances indicate that an impairment may have occurred, such as a significant adverse change in the business climate. For definite lived intangible assets, impairment to fair value is recognized if the carrying amount is not recoverable. Indefinite lived intangibles are also tested for impairment annually or whenever circumstances indicate an impairment may have occurred.

Prepaid commissions: Commissions paid by the Company to advisors in connection with the sales of financial plans are deferred until the plan is delivered and the corresponding revenue is recognized. See Note 3.

2. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Adoption of New Accounting Standards

Segment Reporting – Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures

In November 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2023-07, Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, updating reportable segment disclosure requirements in accordance with Topic 280, Segment Reporting ("Topic 280"), primarily through enhanced disclosures about significant segment expenses. The amendments also expand Topic 280 disclosures to public entities with one reportable segment, clarify circumstances in which an entity can disclose multiple segment measures of profit or loss, and contain other disclosure requirements. The amendments are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2023. The Company adopted the standard on January 1, 2024. The adoption of the standard did not have an impact on the Company's financial condition and results of operations as the standard is disclosure-related only.

The following discussion describes the nature, timing, and uncertainty of revenues and cash flows arising from the Company's contracts with customers.

Advice services and retail brokerage fees

Advisory fees
The Company earns revenue for performing investment advisory services for certain brokerage customers' discretionary and non-discretionary managed accounts. The revenue is earned based on a contractual fixed rate applied, as a percentage, to the market value of assets held in the account. The investment advisory performance obligation is considered a series of distinct services that are substantially the same and are satisfied each day over the contract term. Advisory fees are recognized daily and are charged in advance on a monthly or quarterly basis.

Financial planning fees
The Company earns revenue by providing a financial plan to its clients. The revenue earned for each financial plan is either a fixed fee (received monthly, quarterly, or as a single payment) or a variable fee (received monthly) based on a contractual fixed rate applied, as a percentage, to assets held in a client's investment advisory services account. The financial planning fee is based on the complexity of a client's financial and life situation and his or her advisor's experience. The performance obligation is satisfied at the time the financial plan is delivered to the customer. The Company records a contract liability for the unearned revenue when cash is received before the plan is delivered. The financial plan contract with clients is an annual contract. Amounts recorded as a contract liability are recognized as revenue when the financial plan is delivered, which will occur within the annual period.

For fixed fee arrangements, revenue is recognized when the financial plan is delivered. The Company accrues revenue for any amounts that have not been received at the time the financial plan is delivered.

For variable fee arrangements, revenue is recognized when the financial plan is delivered. The amount received after the plan is delivered is variably constrained due to factors outside the Company's control including market volatility and client behavior. Revenue is recognized when it is probable that a significant reversal will not occur, which is generally each month or quarter end as uncertainty within the advisory account balance is resolved.

Contract liabilities for financial planning fees, which are included in unearned revenue in the statements of financial condition, were $187,574, $181,502, and $168,280 as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

The Company pays sales commissions to advisors when a new financial planning contract is obtained or when an existing contract is renewed. The sales commissions paid to the advisors prior to financial planning delivery are considered a cost to obtain a contract with a customer and are initially capitalized. When the performance obligation to deliver the financial plan is satisfied, the commission is recognized as distribution expense. Capitalized costs to obtain these contracts are reported in prepaid commissions in the statements of financial condition and were $153,238, $149,003, and $136,385 as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

Retail brokerage fees

The Company earns revenue from brokerage clients for the execution of requested trades. The performance obligation is satisfied at the time of trade execution and amounts are received on the settlement date. The revenue varies for each trade based on various factors that include the type of investment, dollar amount of the trade, and how the trade is executed (online or broker assisted). These fees are recorded daily and collected on a weekly basis.

Distribution fees from affiliates and unaffiliated companies

Mutual funds, annuities and insurance, and certificates

The Company earns distribution fees from an affiliate, Columbia Management Investment Distributors, Inc. (CMID) and from unaffiliated partners for the sale of mutual funds. Revenue includes asset-based fees that are generally based on a contractual rate as a percentage of assets (12b-1 fees) and front-load mutual fund fees on sales of affiliated and unaffiliated mutual funds. The Company also earns distribution fees from insurance company affiliates and from unaffiliated partners for acting as the introducing broker on the sale of affiliated and unaffiliated fixed and variable annuities and insurance products. Finally, the Company earns distribution fees from an affiliate, Ameriprise Certificate Company (ACC), for the sale of face value certificates through its financial advisors. The selling performance obligation of affiliated and unaffiliated mutual funds, annuities, insurance, and certificates is satisfied at the time of each individual sale. A portion of the revenue is based on a fixed rate applied, as a percentage, to amounts invested at the time of sale. The fixed rate is based on the applicable contract governing each type of transaction. The remaining revenue is recognized over the time the client owns the investment or holds the contract and is earned generally based on a fixed rate applied, as a percentage, to the net asset value of the fund, the market value of the investment, or the value of the insurance policy or annuity contract. The ongoing revenue is not recognized at the time of sale because it is variably constrained due to factors outside the Company's control including market volatility and client behavior (such as how long clients hold their investment, insurance policy, or annuity contract). These fees are primarily for products sold in prior years. The revenue will not be recognized until it is probable that a significant reversal will not occur. The fees from mutual funds and third-party insurance partners are generally recognized and collected monthly.

Distribution access fees

The Company earns revenue by providing an affiliate, AEIS, with access to the Company's financial advisors. The Company's advisors will provide ongoing client acquisition and servicing, and product distribution services to AEIS. These performance obligations are considered a series of distinct services that are substantially the same and are satisfied each day over the contract term. These fees are invoiced and collected on a weekly basis.

Distribution support services

The Company earns revenue for performing distribution support services, primarily for insurance company affiliates. Support services the Company performs include retail distribution services, marketing and sales management, and other administrative services necessary to operate a retail distribution network. These performance obligations are considered a series of distinct services that are substantially the same and are satisfied each day over the contract term. The revenue earned from each affiliate is based on a set of factors that consider product complexity and efficiency to the market. These fees are invoiced and collected monthly.

Other income

Fees from advisors

Fees from advisors include fees charged to franchise advisors for providing various services the advisors need to manage and grow their practices. The primary services include licensing of intellectual property, licensing of software, compliance supervision, insurance coverage, technology services and support, consulting, and other services. The services are either provided by the Company or third party-providers. The Company controls the services provided by third parties as it has the right to direct the third parties to perform the services, is primarily responsible for performing the services and sets the prices the advisors are charged. The Company recognizes revenue for the gross amount of the fees received from the advisors. The fees are primarily collected as a reduction of bi-weekly commission payments.

Intellectual property and software licenses along with compliance supervision, insurance coverage, and technology services and support are primarily earned based on a monthly fixed fee. These services are considered a series of distinct services that are substantially the same and are satisfied each day over the contract term. The consulting and other services' performance obligations are satisfied as the services are delivered, and revenue is earned based upon the level of service requested.

Receivables

Receivables for revenue from contracts with customers are recognized when the performance obligation is satisfied, and the Company has an unconditional right to recognize the revenue. Receivables related to revenues from contracts with customers were $178,236, $185,395, and $159,203 as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

4. Goodwill and Other Intangibles

Goodwill is not amortized but is instead subject to impairment tests. During the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the tests did not indicate impairment.

Definite lived intangible assets acquired for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 representing the acquisition of advisors, customer relationships, and non-compete agreements were $50,787, $29,458, and $153,325 respectively, with a weighted average amortization period of five years. Aggregate amortization expense was $45,690, $41,169, and $31,857 for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the impairment tests on definite lived intangible assets did not indicate impairment.

On November 6, 2023, the Company and Comerica, Inc. closed an arrangement in which the Company became Comerica's new investment program provider. The Company acquired Comerica customer lists for $110,000. The acquisition resulted in a definite-lived intangible asset of $110,000, which is included in the total acquisitions disclosed above, with a straight-line amortization period of 10 years. The agreement includes provisions for terminations at the discretion of either Comerica or the Company subject to recoveries of previous amounts paid and other make-whole provisions. Aggregate amortization expense for the Customer relationships Comerica intangible asset during the year ended December 31, 2025 was $11,000.

5. Business Owned Life Insurance

The Company holds cash value life insurance policies as a means of offsetting market fluctuations in certain deferred compensation liabilities. The cash surrender value, which approximates fair value, of this life insurance was $39,848, $36,720, and $31,233, respectively, as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, and is included in the other assets line in the statements of financial condition. Changes in fair value of our cash value life insurance policies are recorded in the net investment income line in the statements of operations.

6. Secured Demand Note Receivable and Subordinated Liabilities

In December 2014, a subordinated loan agreement in the form of a secured demand note was entered into with the Parent. The interest expense for the subordinated loan agreement for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 was $200, $200, and $199, respectively, and is reflected in the interest expense line in the statements of operations.

The borrowing available under the subordination agreement on December 31, 2025, is as follows:

Secured demand note collateral agreement, 0.10 percent, due December 15, 2026	$200,000

The subordinated borrowing with the Parent is available in computing net capital under the SEC's uniform net capital rule. Under the terms of the subordinated loan agreement, to the extent that such borrowings are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, the Company is prohibited from making payments on the subordinated note agreement. The Company has the option to renew the current agreement in one-year increments in perpetuity. Pursuant to the agreement, the Parent must notify the Company on or before the day seven months preceding the maturity date if they do not intend to extend the maturity date of the agreement. The Company and the Parent have elected to not terminate the agreement for fiscal year 2026.

On December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 the secured demand note was collateralized by securities with an aggregate fair value of $220,556, $221,165, and $235,109, respectively. Based on the character and fair value of the securities collateralizing the secured demand note receivable, the entire $200,000 is available in computing net capital in accordance with SEC's uniform net capital rule. The securities collateral has been deposited by the Parent in a separate custodial account for the exclusive benefit of the Company. In the event the Company draws on the secured demand note receivable, the maximum payment to the Company in accordance with the terms of the collateral agreement is $200,000. Effective June 1, 2023, the Company and Lender agreed to amend the subordinated agreement by modifying the interest rate from LIBOR plus 90 basis points to Daily Simple SOFR plus 100 basis points (SOFR + 1.00%) per annum. The subordinated loan agreement and the associated secured demand note agreement entered with the Parent was approved by FINRA prior to the respective effective dates.

7. Fair Values of Assets and Liabilities

U.S. GAAP defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date; that is, an exit price. The exit price assumes the asset or liability is not exchanged subject to a forced liquidation or distressed sale.

Valuation Hierarchy

The Company categorizes its fair value measurements according to a three-level hierarchy. The hierarchy prioritizes the input used by the Company's valuation techniques. A level is assigned to each fair value measurement based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are defined as follows:

Level 1	Unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date.
Level 2	Prices or valuations based on observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities.
Level 3	Prices or valuations that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable.

Determination of Fair Value

The Company uses valuation techniques consistent with the market and income approaches to measure the fair value of its assets and liabilities. The Company's market approach uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities. The Company's income approach uses valuation techniques to convert future projected cash flows to a single discounted present value amount. When applying either approach, the Company maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs. The following is a description of the valuation techniques used to measure fair value and the general classification of these instruments pursuant to the fair value hierarchy.

Cash Equivalents, Other Assets and Liabilities

When available, the fair value of securities is based on quoted prices in active markets. If quoted prices are not available, fair values are obtained from third party pricing services, non-binding broker quotes, or other model-based valuation techniques. The Company's cash equivalents, consisting of commercial paper and time deposits, are classified as Level 2 and are measured at amortized cost, which approximates fair value because of the short time between the purchase of the instrument and its expected realization. Level 1 money market funds and other assets consist of common stock and government treasury bills and notes. Level 2 other assets consist of unitary investment trusts (UITs), municipal bonds, and limited market securities. Level 2 liabilities consist of UITs, non-convertible debt securities, municipal bonds, government securities and agencies, and limited market securities. Level 3 contingent consideration liabilities consist of earn outs and/or deferred payments related to the Company's acquisitions. Contingent consideration liabilities are recorded at fair value utilizing a discounted cash flow model using an unobservable input (discount rate). Significant increases (decreases) in the discount rate used in the fair value measurement of the contingent consideration liability in isolation would have resulted in a significantly lower (higher) fair value measurement. Given the use of a significant unobservable input, the fair value of contingent consideration liabilities is classified as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy.

The following table presents balances of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

In general, the Company's financial assets and liabilities are carried at fair value or at amounts which, because of their short-term nature and based on market interest rates available to the Company on December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, approximate fair value.

Included in receivables from financial advisors and employees on the statements of financial condition are loans receivable from financial advisors. As of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the carrying value of the loans is $3,133, $3,860, and $1,192, respectively, which approximates fair value. These receivables, not included in the table of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis, are considered Level 3 fair value.

As of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the fair value of the secured demand notes receivable and the subordinated liability approximate book value of $200,000. This receivable and liability, not included in the table of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis, are considered are considered Level 2 fair value. As of December 31, 2025, the secured demand note collateral consisted of corporate bonds and agency mortgage-backed securities and as such is considered Level 2 fair value.

8. Net Capital Provision and Regulatory Requirements

As a registered broker dealer, the Company is subject to the SEC's uniform net capital rule (SEA Rule 15c3-1).

The Company computes its net capital requirements under the alternative method provided for in SEA Rule 15c3-1, which requires the Company to maintain net capital equal to 2% of combined aggregate customer-related debit items, as defined or $250, if greater.

On December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the Company had net capital of $137,699, $112,956, and $100,770, respectively, which was $137,449, $112,706, and $100,520, respectively, more than the amount required to be maintained at those dates. Advances to affiliates, dividend payments, and other equity withdrawals are subject to certain notifications and other provisions of the net capital rule of the SEC and other regulatory bodies.

The Company has claimed exemption from SEA Rule 15c3-3 of the SEC under paragraphs (k)(2)(i) and (k)(2)(ii) of that rule.

9. Leases

The Company has a short-term intercompany lease agreement with an affiliate, Ameriprise Holdings, Inc. (AHI). The agreement has a one-year term with no contractual renewal provision and is revocable by either party with 30 days' notice. No lease asset or liability is recorded in the statements of financial condition. Rent expense was $40,356, $40,912, and $39,563, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, and is reflected in the occupancy line in the statements of operations.

Under the same agreement the Company compensates AHI for use of property, equipment, and similar items that AHI owns or maintains. These expenses were $63,536, $50,340, and $50,971, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, and are included in the service fees charged by Parent and affiliates line in the statements of operations.

10. Commitments and Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company may indemnify and guarantee certain service providers against potential losses in connection with their acting as service providers to the Company. The maximum potential future payments the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated; however, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded a contingent liability in the financial statements for any indemnifications.

The Company has agreed to indemnify an affiliate, AEIS, for any losses that it may sustain from the customer accounts introduced by the Company. The Company reserves for these potential losses. On December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, the reserve was $3,020, $3,042, and $3,379, respectively, and is reflected in the other liabilities line in the statements of financial condition.

The Company is involved in the normal course of business in legal, regulatory, and arbitration proceedings, including class actions, concerning matters arising in connection with the conduct of its activities as a diversified financial services firm. These include proceedings specific to the Company as well as proceedings generally applicable to business practices in the industries in which it operates. The Company can also be subject to litigation arising out of its general business activities, such as its investments, contracts, leases, and employment relationships. Uncertain economic conditions heightened and sustained volatility in the financial markets and significant financial reform legislation may increase the likelihood that clients and other people or regulators may present or threaten legal claims or that regulators increase the scope or frequency of examinations of the Company or the financial services industry generally.

As with other financial services firms, the level of regulatory activity and inquiry concerning the Company's businesses remains elevated. From time to time, the Company receives requests for information from, and/or has been subject to examination or claims by, the SEC, FINRA, state insurance and securities regulators, state attorneys general, and various other governmental and quasi-governmental authorities on behalf of themselves or clients concerning the Company's business activities and practices, and the practices of the Company's financial advisors. The Company has numerous pending matters which include information requests, exams or inquiries that the Company has received during recent periods regarding certain matters, including: sales and distribution of mutual funds, exchange traded funds, annuities, equity and fixed income securities, real estate investment trusts, insurance products, and financial advice offerings, including managed accounts; supervision of the Company's financial advisors; security of client information; and transaction monitoring systems and controls. The Company has cooperated and will continue to cooperate with the applicable regulators.

In August 2024, the Company agreed to a settlement with the SEC to resolve one such matter regarding the preservation of certain business-related communications sent on electronic messaging platforms that had not been approved by the Company. The settlement included a civil penalty of $50,000 that was previously accrued during 2023 and was paid during the third quarter of 2024.

These legal and regulatory proceedings and disputes are subject to uncertainties and, as such, it is inherently difficult to determine whether any loss is probable or even reasonably possible, or to reasonably estimate the amount of any loss. The Company cannot predict with certainty how or when any such proceedings will be initiated or resolved or what the eventual settlement, fine, penalty, or other relief, if any, may be, particularly for proceedings that are in their early stages of development or where plaintiffs seek indeterminate damages. Numerous issues may need to be resolved, including through potentially lengthy discovery and determination of important factual matters, and by addressing unsettled legal questions relevant to the proceedings in question, before a loss or range of loss can be reasonably estimated for any proceeding. An adverse outcome in one or more proceedings could eventually result in adverse judgments, settlements, fines, penalties, or other sanctions, in addition to further claims, examinations, or adverse publicity that could have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

In accordance with applicable accounting standards, the Company establishes an accrued liability for contingent litigation and regulatory matters when those matters present loss contingencies that are both probable and can be reasonably estimated. In such cases, there still may be exposure to loss more than any amount reasonably estimated and accrued. When a loss contingency is not both probable and estimable, the Company does not establish an accrued liability, but continues to monitor, in conjunction with any outside counsel handling a matter, further developments that would make such loss contingency both probable and reasonably estimable. Once the Company establishes accrued liability with respect to a loss contingency, the Company continues to monitor the matter for further developments that could affect the amount of the accrued liability that has been previously established, and any appropriate adjustments are made each quarter.

11. Income Taxes

Effective January 1, 2020, the Company adopted guidance simplifying the accounting for income taxes. As a result of the adoption and the Company's conversion to a limited liability company in 2020 which resulted in it becoming a disregarded entity, income tax expense, income tax receivables and payables, and deferred tax assets and liabilities are no longer recognized in the financial statements for the Company. See Notes 1 and 2.

The Company files its federal income tax return as part of the consolidated income tax return of the Parent in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. The Company files as a separate entity and as part of unitary or combined returns with the Parent and other affiliates in various state jurisdictions. The federal statutes of limitations are closed on years through 2018, except for two issues for 2016 which were claimed on an amended return. During the second quarter of 2025, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) finalized the audit of the Parent's U.S. income tax returns for tax years 2019 and 2020, except for one issue for 2020, which remains open. The IRS is currently auditing the Parent's U.S. income tax returns for 2021 through 2023. The state income tax returns of the Parent or its subsidiaries, including the Company, are currently under examination by various jurisdictions for years ranging from 2018 through 2023.

12. Related Party Transactions

The amounts of revenue earned from affiliates may not be reflective of revenues that could have been earned on similar levels of activity with unrelated third parties. Similarly, the expenses allocated to the Company may not be reflective of expenses that would have been incurred by the Company on a stand-alone basis. Revenues received from affiliates are described in Note 3.

The Company is allocated certain administrative expenses, including technology, client servicing costs, rent, finance, human resources, legal services, insurance premiums and marketing, by the Parent on a prorated basis. Vesting of restricted awards and units may be accelerated based on age and length of service. Compensation expense for restricted stock awards is based on the market price of the Parent's stock on the date of grant and is amortized on a straight-line basis over the vesting period. Franchise Advisor Deferred Compensation Plan

The Franchise Advisor Deferred Compensation Plan (the AFG Deferral Plan) is an unfunded, non-qualified deferred compensation plan that provides benefits to certain advisors associated with the Company.

The AFG Deferral Plan allows qualifying advisors to, in lieu of otherwise receiving cash compensation, voluntarily defer a portion of their cash commissions and elect crediting rate alternatives that include a fund based on Ameriprise Financial stock or other investment options (including cash). These deferrals are fully vested and are not subject to forfeitures. From 2006-2010, the Company provided advisors with a matching contribution with respect to these voluntary deferred amounts; however, the Company has chosen not to provide a match since that time. Out of the shares outstanding under the AFG Deferral Plan, there are approximately 93,521 shares of the Parent outstanding under this prior matching contribution aspect.

In addition to the voluntary deferral of cash commissions, certain advisors are eligible to earn amounts tied to certain performance measures. When earned, award amounts are credited to their deferral account and receive a crediting rate based on an investment in Ameriprise Financial stock, advisors elect whether to receive payout of these awards in cash or stock. Share units receive dividend equivalents, as dividends are declared by the Parent's Board of Directors, until distribution and are subject to forfeiture until vested.

For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, expense related to share-based units awarded under the Franchise Advisor Deferral Plan was $36,796, $34,141, and $33,148, respectively, and is reflected in the commissions line in the statements of operations. These expenses are settled with the Parent, and no liability remains on the Company's statements of financial condition.

As of December 31, 2025, there were approximately 1,530,000 shares outstanding under the Franchise Advisor Deferral Plan.

Pursuant to an assignment agreement executed with the Parent, the Company expensed and transferred all monthly franchise advisors deferred compensation mutual fund liabilities to the Parent for $123,397, $110,139, and $102,360 in 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

Advisor Group Deferred Compensation Plan

The Parent's Advisor Group Deferral Plan, which was created in April 2009, allows for employee advisors to receive share-based bonus awards which are subject to future service requirements and forfeitures. The Advisor Group Deferral Plan is an unfunded non-qualified deferred compensation plan under section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. The Advisor Group Deferral Plan also gives qualifying employee advisors the choice to defer a portion of their base salary or commissions. This deferral can be in the form of share-based awards or other investment options. Deferrals are not subject to future service requirements or forfeitures. Awards granted under the Advisor Group Deferral Plan may be settled in cash and/or shares of the Parent's common stock according to the award's terms. For the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023, expense related to share-based units awarded under the Advisor Group Deferral Plan was $70,681, $58,457, and $49,599, respectively. These expenses are settled with the Parent, and no liability remains on the Company's statements of financial condition.

As of December 31, 2025, there were approximately 877,000 shares outstanding under the Advisor Group Deferral Plan, of which 206,210 were fully vested.

The total unamortized compensation expense to be recognized for all the share-based plans for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 were $148,899, $139,718, and $124,624, respectively, and is reflected in the commissions line in the statements of operations.
